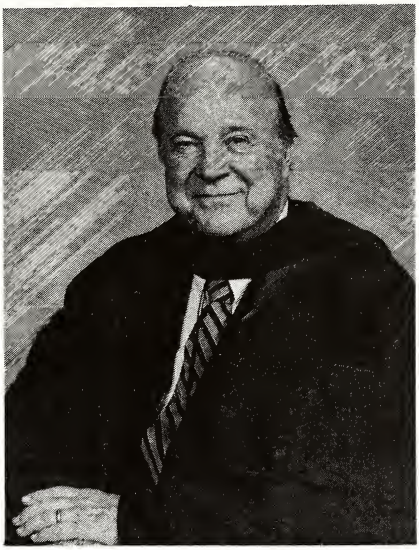
DEDICATION

By recommendation of the Resolutions Committee at the Tuesday evening session of the annual meeting the 1991 Minutes of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association are dedicated to the memory of Dr. T. Max Linnens and in honor of Rev. Cline W. Borders and Rev. Robert G. Davis, Sr.



IN MEMORIAM

T. Max Linnens was born October 19, 1919. A native of Alamance County, North Carolina, the son of John and Ethel Guthrie Linnens, he was married to Anne Davis. God blessed them with three children: Mackie, Stephen and Nancy.

He was a graduate of Gardner-Webb College, Wake Forest University and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa Fraternity and a veteran of World War II, serving in the United States Marine Corps.

He served as pastor of three churches located in: Chapel Hill, St. Paul and Boiling Springs. He was pastor of Boiling Springs Baptist Church twenty-seven years. Under his leadership the church grew in many ways including relocation into a magnificent new building, which would also house a day care center. He was a friend of Gardner-Webb College as well as faculty member and campus minister.

June 15, 1991 our Lord called this servant from this world of woe into His holy eternal presence. He left us an example by which many, who knew him, could profit. He will be long remembered for his work with Boiling Springs Baptist Church, Gardner-Webb College and the entire community.

We salute the homegoing of a man who was willing to speak and serve his convictions.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Ed Sessom, Chairman

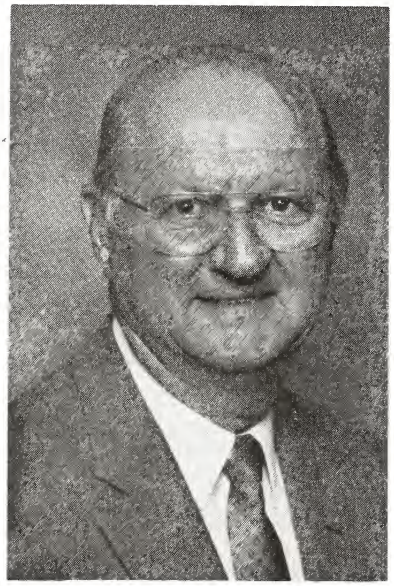
By recommendation of the Resolution Committee at the Tuesday evening session of the annual meeting the 1991 Minutes of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association are dedicated in honor of Rev. Cline Borders and Rev. Robert G. Davis, Sr. and to the memory of Dr. T. Max Linnens.

IN HONOR



Cline W. Borders was born April 14, 1926, Cleveland County, North Carolina, the son of Mike L. and Donna Cline Borders. He was educated in Shelby High School, Gardner-Webb Junior College, Wake Forest University and Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

He is married to Doris Browne. God has blessed them with four children: Cline, Jr.; Tim; Cheryl and Danny.

Prior to entering the ministry, he served with the United States military and farmed. He was licensed and ordained by Elizabeth Baptist Church, Shelby, North Carolina. He served as pastor of four churches: Ephesus Baptist, Spring Hope; Commonwealth Baptist, Charlotte; New Bethel Baptist, Lawndale, all in North Carolina; and Draytonville Baptist, Gaffney, South Carolina. He served as interim pastor for Midway, Patterson Springs and Norman's Grove in the Kings Mountain Association. He retired April 30, 1991 after serving as director of missions, Kings Mountain Baptist Association, for eighteen years.

He has served in numerous ways including: Board of Trustees, Meredith College; Ministerial Board of Associates, Gardner-Webb College; Associate Director of the Seminary Extension Department; and President, Directors of Missions Conference, Southern Baptist Convention.

During his term as director of missions for the Kings Mountain Baptist Association significant growth occurred. Number of churches grew from 70 to 74; a new office complex was built; an extensive church and community ministries was begun; Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Extension classes began at the Baptist Center; and associational missions gifts increased from $24,000 to more than $258,000.

Cline will continue to live in Cleveland County where his wife, Doris, serves as register of deeds. He has a host of friends in the county with whom he enjoys playing golf and interchanging. We hope one of his rewards will be many years of enjoying retirement.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Ed Sessom, chairman

HISTORY OF POLKVILLE BAPTIST CHURCH

On July 28, 1940, Polkville Church was officially constituted near the site of the present church building. Rev. D.F. Putnam was the moving spirit in the organization of this church. The deadline for charter members was set for August 11, 1940. Seventy-one charter members were formed into a new church called Polkville Baptist Church.

The first church building was erected on a tract of land purchased on October 4, 1940. The first service in the new sanctuary was held on the third Sunday of August, 1942. An educational building was dedicated on May 28, 1961. A parsonage was completed on June 1, 1963.

The sanctuary structure served the congregation until February 1, 1976 when the building was replaced by the sanctuary still in use today. In 1982 the family life center was added to give more space and better facilities to the congregation as they anticipated increased growth.

Various land purchases were made during the growth of the church. This land will be used in a five-phase growth plan adopted by the church in 1990. The first phase will include approximately 22 new classrooms. Ground breaking is anticipated in the spring of 1992.

God has blessed Polkville Baptist Church in the past years with the guidance of many faithful ministers and devoted church leaders.

Rev. Alton Martin serves as pastor, Mr. Bob Hendrick as minister of music and Mr. Rick Hamrick as minister of youth/education. The current membership is 549.

HISTORY OF ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

Zion members are presently worshipping in a modern renovated brick structure. Zion is the oldest church in the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

Zion was established in 1816 and is spoken of as the "Mother Church." Members from Zion withdrew to become charter members of: Zoar, Shelby First, Double Springs, New Prospect, New Bethel, Pleasant Grove, Shady Grove, Ross Grove, Union and Double Shoals.

A brush arbor was mentioned as a meeting place before the first church was built of logs in 1816. The second, third and fourth buildings were built in 1858, 1883, and 1927. The first service was held in the present church in 1953.

Zion adopted Miss Faye Tunmire as a missionary to serve in the Phillipines in 1956.

Zion's twentieth pastor, Rev. Russell Fitts, came April 1978. During his tenure of 13 years the Lord has blessed Zion. The church made an agreement with the pastor in 1978 to own his home and Mr. and Mrs. D.W. Kiser gave an eight-acre tract to build the home.

In April 1991 Zion broadened its endeavors for missions. Thirteen men traveled to Honduras to help complete construction of a missionary couple's home.

Zion celebrated 175 years on August 18, 1991. Dr. Wyan Washburn, associational historian, was the morning speaker and Dr. Gene Puckett, editor of The Biblical Recorder, was guest speaker for the afternoon.

Rev. Russell Fitts serves as pastor and Miss Faithe Cooper serves as minister of music/education/youth. The current membership is 548.

(3) the giving and receiving of information, assistance and training for member churches;
(4) the cooperation with North Carolina Baptist State and Southern Baptist Conventions.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: The Association shall be composed of cooperating Baptist churches in the area of the Association.

Section 2: Churches desiring membership in the Association shall apply to the Membership Committee. Application should include:

(2) A written statement reflecting their beliefs and practices.
(3) A written statement that expresses their intent to cooperate.
(4) A willingness to meet with Membership Committee to discuss other items of mutual interest to both parties.

The Membership Committee should be sensitive to groups seeking its services and be willing to present a statement of Baptist belief and practice and what it means to cooperate with the churches in the Association in a world-wide mission program. If recommended by this committee and accepted by the Association, a mission or a church shall agree to come under the watchcare of the Association for a minimum of one (1) year. Membership within the Association shall be determined by vote of the Association at its annual meeting. Churches under the watchcare shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Association except their members shall not hold office nor vote.

1990-91 ANNUAL REPORT
DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

This past year has been a wonderful year for our Lord in the Kings Mountain Baptist Association. Seeds sown by you in recent years have been lovingly watered and are now ready to bear fruit to the glory of God. All of us prayed and labored to see the Christopher Road Mission become a fully self-supporting church. This is now a reality. The exciting news is that Christopher Road Baptist Church is now sponsoring a new mission. The Star of Bethlehem, Spanish Baptist Mission of Shelby, is presently using the facilities of Christopher Road for worship services and will soon be asking for association watchcare.

Many of you have prayed, worked, and supported, in many ways, the effort to establish New Jerusalem Baptist Church. After a year under associational watchcare, and the leadership of Brother Buddy Corbin, New Jerusalem is asking for full membership in the association. The Kings Mountain group of churches, under the leadership of Brother Eugene Land, has helped to establish the Peoples Baptist Church, and they will ask to come under associational watchcare this year. A new church, Piedmont Baptist Church of Lawndale, has been organized and constituted, and they are also requesting to come under associational watchcare. In addition, Joe Collins, associational Sunday School director, led us to a standard associational Sunday School in 1990-91. To God be all the glory. A special thanks to all who have labored, and continue to labor, in these fields.

We all rejoice in the victories of the past year; however, we must look to the future. A new and exciting year is before us. We are in the process of seeking a new director of missions. The search committee has earnestly sought God's will and direction. Let us continue to lift the search committee up in prayer, and God will direct us to the person He wants to fill this position. Our job will be to unite behind the person God sends to lead us and face the challenges before us to minister to the lost and the needy among us. This is our opportunity to write a new chapter in this association. Until the new director of missions is in place, I will do my best to keep you informed and to lead the association in seizing every opportuntiy to minister to hurting people of our community and to win souls for Christ.

In closing, let me say that serving as your interim director of missions has given me a new, and deep, appreciation for the associational staff, the excellent leadership in the association, for the pastors and their families, and for each of you who make this the best association in North Carolina. I also have a deeper appreciation for the work Brother Cline Borders did during his years with us. No greater honor can ever be given to me than to serve you as interim director of missions.

Respectfully submitted,
Sam Snyder
Interim Director of Missions

EXECUTIVE BOARD REPORT - 1991

Three regular meetings of the Executive Board were held in 1991 - January 28 at Boiling Springs; April 22 at First Church, Kings Mountain; and July 22 at Zoar.

New pastors and new board members were recognized at each meeting. Reports from the director of missions (and interim director of missions), director of church and community ministries, various committees and clerk-treasurer were presented at the meetings.

Highlights of the meetings included the following:

In JANUARY, the Strategy Planning Committee reported that a new staff position, that of Church Development Director, had been approved, and this would, of course, entail the need for increased giving by the churches in order to meet the budget needs for a new staff person.

This committee also reported the ongoing work of seeking to establish new Southern Baptist churches in predominately black communities. Recommendations were made and approved to assist with the funding of this work.

At the close of the meeting, Rev. Cline Borders announced his resignation as director of missions.

In APRIL, Mr. Borders gave his final report as director of missions and expressed his appreciation for both his office staff and the church community for their support of him and the work which has been and is being done.

It was recommended and approved to put the new staff position of church development director "on hold" due to the resignation of the director of missions and what was felt to be the more urgent need to fill that vacancy on the staff.

At the close of the meeting, Rev. Sam Snyder was requested to come forward and was introduced as the acting director of missions, and he expressed his willingness to serve in this capacity to meet the needs of the association until the position could be filled.

At the JULY meeting, both the Eastern and Western Advisory Committees had reports of the ongoing, exciting and challenging work the sponsored churches are attempting to do and are doing.

At the close of each meeting, the host church provided a time of fellowship and refreshments.

We thank each person in the association who makes a contribution (whether of prayer, time, energy or money) to assist in the work of this body of Christ.

Recca Bingham
Clerk/Treasurer

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

I am pleased to report that the Sunday Schools of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association have made some progress during the past year. In the area of enrollment, we have held our own. In Average weekly attendance and participation of leaders in training, we have made some significant gains.

Last year marked our first significant enrollment gain in ten years. This year we cannot report a gain, but with two churches not reporting yet, our Sunday School enrollment stands at 16,617 - just 3 below last year's total enrollment. Our enrollment in Vacation Bible School increased this year by nearly two hundred.

There is probably no truer growth indicator in Southern Baptist life than average weekly Sunday School attendance, and I gladly report to you a gain among Kings Mountain Baptist churches. Our average weekly attendance climbed for the second year in a row after four years of steady decline. This year's figure of 8,800 was 155 higher than the previous year.

Sunday School training in our association is the charge of the Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team (or ASSISTeam for short). This year, because they provided a variety of training events and participated themselves in training and planning, your ASSISTeam was recognized by the Sunday School Board as a standard team.

On March 26, Mike Johnson of First Baptist Shelby led an outreach clinic on "Reaching Out in the Nineties." Twenty-six persons attended this event, representing twelve of our churches.

On June 11, pastors, Sunday School directors, and others responsible for ordering literature were invited to attend a Preview of 1991 Improved Curriculum Conference at the association building. Twenty-three attended, representing fourteen churches.

Our largest training event of the year was held at Elizabeth Church on September 16, 1991. One hundred fifty-three Sunday School leaders from across the association attended the Associational Training School to learn about improvements in Sunday School literature and new recommendations for organization. Thirty-four of our churches were represented.

During the year, a total of 179 different persons participated in training events, and thirty-eight of our seventy-five churches were represented. My prayer is that Kings Mountain Baptist Sunday School leaders will continue to train for the task of reaching people with Bible study. The difference between good Sunday Schools and poor ones has always been leadership.

Joe Collins

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING REPORT

Church Training is now Discipleship Training. Discipleship Training represents more than a name change. It reflects a clarification of the biblical objective of "making disciples of all nations" and of equipping GOD's people for works of service. The new member training and LIFE series are great ways of equipping members.

SUMMARY OF EVENTS:

1. Childrens Bible Drill: 48 State winners from 10 churches.
2. Youth Bible Drill: 6 Youth state winners from 1 church.
3. "M" Night: Piedmont Baptist Church of Kings Mountain won the High Attendance Award and the High Percentage Award.

WMU REPORT

There are still seven churches in our association without any WMU organizations at all. Our total enrollment in WMU is 3,909 within the 299 organizations that we have.

In November of 1990, Baptist Women observed World Day of Prayer with a salad dinner and missions fair. There were displays and programs on different countries that have mission fields.

Our Annual Spring WMU Meeting was held in April at First Baptist Church, Shelby. This was well attended.

This has been an exciting year for our Acteens. Acteens from Mount Sinai and Christopher Road participated in the Acteen Activators program. This included five Acteens and four leaders. July 5-11, they went to Bryson City. While there they led Vacation Bible Schools and Day Camps for the children at the campgrounds. They also went to the flea markets with puppets and clowns to witness to the people there. Witnessing was also done at the train station in Nanthala.

Our GA's have been busy, too. In April at Elizabeth Church, they participated in a cooperative program learning experience of "free" games that were provided by their leaders. This was fun as well as being a time to learn about missions. In May, the GA's were ask to supply personal hygiene kits for the NC Baptist Men's Medical/Dental Bus that was in our county to assist those less fortunate than themselves. The girls really enjoyed doing this. The MK/International Banquet was sponsored by our GA's on October 15, 1990. Approximately 170 attended.

The WMU Fall Leadership Workshop was held September 23, 1990 at Elizabeth Church. Twenty-nine churches were represented with a total of 148 present.

Frances B. Cline, Director

BROTHERHOOD REPORT

Brother Moderator, friends, and visitors of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association; it is always a privilege for me to report on the activities of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association Brotherhood. I believe there are exciting changes moving throughout the men in our organization.

Our main activity this year was the Cleveland County Fair Prayer Breakfast. We always look forward to sharing physical and spiritual food with our brothers and sisters who work with the fair. Many brotherhood groups joined together to provide the meal and I extend my thanks to them along with Brother Richard McSwain and the Gideon organization for handing out Bibles. We never know when one of those Testaments will be opened, read and the Word will reach out and speak to someone who needs Jesus.

Other ongoing mission activities I'll mention briefly are: splitting and delivering wood to needy families, transporting those in need to and from the hospital and doctors office, paying medical bills, and delivering medicine to those without transportation.

We have an active RA organization in our association and I urge you to get the young men and boys in your church involved. Being an RA is a wonderful growing experience providing many opportunities to serve the Lord through various mission activities and projects.

If you are not already involved, I encourage you to get involved in the RA and Brotherhood programs of your church. You will find that you will be blessed far more than those you serve.

Harold Wright
Brotherhood Director

MUSIC REPORT

During the past year, our association has participated in two workshops aimed at providing training for music leaders of all our churches - large and small.

On August 17, a Regional Children's Choir Leadership Workshop was held at First Baptist, Gastonia. Transportation was provided from our association and ten people took advantage of it. Training was provided by state music specialists and was very beneficial to all who attended.

On August 27, a Regional Pedalpoint Clinic wsa held at First Baptist, Hickory. Martha Kirkland, Keyboard Consultant with the Baptist Sunday School Board led this time of training and inspiration. Of the 45 total attending this clinic, 15 were from the Kings Mountain Baptist Association. Again, transportation was provided from our association. This provision made it possible for some people to attend who might not have been able to attend otherwise.

Our minister's of music have enjoyed meeting regularly for lunch to fellowship, share, and plan together. Attendance at these luncheons has averaged ten. We are planning some exciting things for this next year, including a School of Music and an Associational Youth Musical. Each church will be kept aware of developments through a music newsletter sent to each church. If you are a pastor, please see to it that the newsletter reaches the proper person.

Pray for us as we seek to provide opportunities for training and fellowship that will benefit every church musician in our association.

Charlton D. Bozard
Associational Music Director

HISTORIANS REPORT

One hundred and fifty years ago ministers in our association were outstanding in their preaching, leadership and in their zeal for missions. Church and associational minutes are filled with their achievements.

At the same time, there were a few devoted laymen. Women were mostly seen and not heard, except when teaching the children.

There have been some changes in the past 70 years with regard to the use of LAITY. The LAITY, both men and women, began to emerge as leaders, planners and doers just after World War I. Some were as well educated as the preachers. All praise is due to our ministers but today let us talk about a few lay people. Today lay members outnumber ministers about 1,000 to one.

First, John R. Logan, who wrote "The History of the Broad River Association." He helped map and lay out the town of Shelby and the county seat.

From Double Springs, J.N. Barnette, J.S. Gillespie, and Fred Greene were outstanding leaders.

From Sandy Run, J.U. Rollins and E.G. Whitaker, who were strong supporters of Gardner-Webb College. From Zion, G.T. Cabaniss and Walter Davis.

From the Kings Mountain area, G.G. Page, J.R. Davis, and a number of Mauneys, Neislers, and Hords stand out.

From Double Shoals, J.W. Costner; also a number of Spanglers.

From Boiling Springs came J.Y. Hamrick, Elijah Clifford, O.P. Hamrick and J.D. Huggins. Also Etta Curtis and Ollie Wood.

From Shelby First we have Plato Durham, O. Max Gardner and his wife, Faye Webb Gardner, Judges J.L. and E.Y. Webb, Byrum Weathers, A.A. Powell, Peyton McSwain, O.M. Mull and Rush Hamrick, Sr., Horace Easom and Dr. Zeno Wall.

From South Shelby, G.V. "guvernor" Hawkins stands out.

From Elizabeth Church, Thomas Wilson, who married the daughter of James Love. Mr. Love provided the land for the City of Shelby. Also from Elizabeth, P.M. Mauney, father of our parliamentarian Joe Mauney.

Lay leaders have been prominent in our Baptist colleges. At Wake Forest, W.L. Poteat and A.C. Reid. At Meredith, Fuller B. Hamrick worked as finance officer.

In state government we add to O. Max Gardner the names of J.W. Harrelson, Forest Shufford, L.R. Harrill, J.S. Dorton and J.Y. Hamrick II.

At Gardner-Webb College, following layman Huggins were such lay leaders as George Burnett, A.C. Lovelace, Phil Elliott, and now, Christopher White.

Outstanding women of the LAITY include: Mae Cline Stroup, Delia Dixon Carroll, Mrs. John Wacaster, Selma Webb, Minnie Schenck Ramseur, and of course, Grace and Kathryn Hamrick, current columnist and historian.

Other outstanding were: Dewey Whitaker, who became president of Lehigh University and served on the Atomic Energy Commission and Ray E. Brown, a well known hospital administrator at Shelby and NC Baptist in Winston-Salem. Writers and publishers: Lee B. Weathers, R.E. Price, whose widow Bonnie Roberts Price, is still with us, John Roberts, Hatcher Hughes, and Thomas Dixon, Jr.

The LAITY, both men and women in this association, not only followed the leadership of the clergy, but in some cases became the leaders, seizing opportunity, fulfulling obligation, and achieving outreach. Briefly the LAITY is ALL O.K.!

Dr. W. Wyan Washburn, Historian

1991 BRAZILIAN PARTNERSHIP REPORT

Next year, 1992, is the last year of the partnership between the Kings Mountain Baptist Association and the Sul Da Capital Association of Sao Paulo Brazil. The primary goals of the partnership are evangelism and church starting.

$3,519.23 has been donated to the KMBA to assist the partnership in it's five year goals. The Executive Committee has approved the funds to be disbursed in the following manner:

a) $200.00 for Portuguese New Testaments.

c) $1819.23 will be sent to the Sul Association for building materials and construction.

Five new churches have been organized in the past four (4) years of the partnership. Two churches have constructed additions on existing buildings to serve more people. Hundreds of individuals and families have accepted Christ through the volunteer mission work we have provided through the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

Eighteen (18) volunteers are needed to meet the evangelistic needs of the Sul Association in 1991. The mission travel dates will be September 17-30, 1992.

On November 6, 1991, the Brazil missionary coordinator will speak at Polkville Baptist Church. David and Karen Campbell are on furlough from Sao Paulo Brazil.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE REPORT

Based upon requests from three churches, the associational Membership committee met October 1, 1991 at 7:00 p.m. Rev. C.O. Greene, committee chairman and Sam Snyder, Interim Director of Missions were present. Delegations from New Jerusalem Full Gospel Baptist Church, Piedmont Baptist Church of Lawndale, and Peoples Baptist Church of Kings Mountain were also present.

Due to the lack of a quorum, Rev. Greene and Rev. Snyder, received the written reports and statements from the delegations and answered questions concerning membership in the association and what it meant to come under the watchcare of the association. Following this discussion, the meeting was adjourned without action.

Another meeting was scheduled for October 8, 1991, at 12:00 noon. All committee members were present. Brother Joe Cabaniss, associational moderator; Rev. Russell Fitts, associational vice-moderator; and Dr. Buddy Corbin, chairman of the Eastern Advisory Committee were also present. MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

We come at this time to remember those members of our fellowship who have been removed from our midst because of death: 269 lay people, 15 deacons, and one pastor - Dr. T. Max Linnens.

Isaac Watts great hymn "O God Our Help in Ages Past" contains a verse that says, "Time like an ever rolling stream bears all its sons away, they fly forgotten as a dream dies at the opening day." I was deeply impressed with that verse as we sang it during the worship hour and began to meditate upon its meaning. I came to the conclusion that time like an ever rolling stream does bear all its sons away. But do we all fly forgotten as a dream dies at the opening day? I came to the conclusion that we do not. The psalmist says, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." Precious because they are His saints. Precious because they are His children. Precious because they are coming home to the Father who gave them life to begin with. Precious because their trials and tribulations are over. Precious because their works do follow them and continue to accumulate dividends through the ages. No, we are not forgotten by God. Neither are we forgotten by friends and loved ones we leave behind. Neither are we forgotten by those with whom we have labored in the Lord in this life. No, the victory for them and us is in Christ and because He lives we and they shall live also.

May we spend a moment or two in loving remembrance of those whom have loved so much and lost for a while.

REPORT OF MINISTERS' WIVES AUXILIARY 1990-91

Forty years ago, September 1951, the Ministers Wives Fellowship of Kings Mountain Baptist Association was born. The guiding light for the conception and establishment of this auxiliary was the Rev. John W. Suttle, a well-known pastor in the association.

Hundreds of ministers' wives, including wives of church staff members, women in ministry and widows of ministers, have been enriched by the group through these years.

Presently salad luncheon meetings are held at the Baptist Building October through May at 12:00 noon on the Thursday following the first Sunday of each month, with the exception of December and February, when Christmas and Valentine banquets are held in local churches for both the ministers and their wives. These times are great opportunities for getting acquainted and having special fellowship as a family of God's servants.

Carolyn Reed has been elected to lead the Auxiliary during 1991-92, and all minister's wives are invited to attend the meetings this year.

Respectfully submitted,
Sarah Goare

NOTES REGARDING CHANGES IN BUDGET:

1. Salaries and housing/utilities allowances, plus the resultant changes in retirement packages, have been increased by 5%. The compensation package for the Director of Missions does not reflect any change at all. The compensation package for the new Director of Missions will be recommended by the Search Committee as a part of the process of recommending the new Director of Missions.

2. The amount contributed to the C.C.M Director's compensation jointly by the Baptist State Convention and the Home Mission Board is decreased $500 this year. The Association's portion of the salary item is thus increased by the same amount. The salary item reflects the 5% referred to in previous paragraph plus $500.

3. Life insurance, medical insurance, and long-term disability insurance are provided for Charles Reed by the Home Mission Board.

4. Allocations shown in the budget reflect the specific requests of staff, committee chairpersons, and/or heads of organizations.

5. This proposed budget reflects a total increase over last year's budget $13,903.84. This figure represents an increase of 6.09%.

HISTORICAL AND STATISTICAL TABLES

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE KINGS MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

On November 7, 1851 the following churches from the Broad River Baptist Association met at Double Springs Baptist Church for the purpose of organizing a new association: Beaver Dam, Bethel, Boiling Springs, Broad River, Buffalo, Double Springs, Mt. Pleasant, Mt. Sinai, New Bethel, Pleasant Hill, Sandy Run, Zion, and Zoar.

The need for a new association resulted from geographical conditions. The boundary of the Broad River Association was so extensive that delegates were unable to attend the annual sessions due to swollen rivers and streams.

The name "Kings Mountain Association" was chosen because its boundary included the Kings Mountain battleground, a monument to be remembered by every patriot and lover of religious liberty.

In 1903, the association appointed a committee to establish and endow a denomination high school. In 1905, Boiling Springs was chosen as the most suitable site by a 15-member Board of Trustees. The Sandy Run Assocition was invited to join the Kings Mountain Association in establishing the school. In 1906, efforts and plans were begun to raise money for the school and in 1902, the first building was erected. The school opened on October 1, 1907 with 135 students. The first principal was Professor J.D. Huggins. The school later became known as Gardner-Webb College.

Directors of Missions who have served the association are:

Lewis E. Ludlum	1946-50
Tom W. Bray	1950-59
C.O. Greene	1959-73
Cline Borders	1973-91

Interim Directors of Missions who have served are:

W.V. Tarlton	Aug.1, 1973 to Oct. 31, 1973
Sam Snyder	May 1. 1991 to present

During the tenures of Rev. Ludlum and Rev. Bray, the association occupied an office in the First Baptist Church, Shelby. In 1949, the association voted to build a missionary home on Buffalo Street for the associational missionary. In 1959, the association voted that the missionary home be turned into an office building to provide space for the associational missionary, secretary, clerk/treasurer and to provide conference space for meetings. The home was sold in 1965 and the association rented office space in Shelby.

In 1978, the association called Rev. Bob Davis as Church and Community Ministries Director. Rev. Davis served until August 1989 when he went on medical leave.

Additional staff and growing ministries led the association to build an associational complex on Wyke Road in Shelby. In 1981 a dedication service and open house was held.

In 1990, the association called Rev. Charles Reed as the current Church and Community Ministries Director.

Currently the association is made up or 74 member churches with a total church membership of 30,615.

DEDICATION

IN MEMORIAM

Ernest Monroe Blankenship was a native of Yancy County, North Carolina. He was the son of Roy and Josie Bell Blankenship. He was married to Ada Hartzog Blankenship. They have three sons: Wayne, Edwin, and Eric.

He was a graduate of Western North Carolina University, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Appalachian State University. He was a member and officer of American Association of University Professors, was a sponsor of Gamma Lamba chapter of Sigma Tan Delta at Gardner-Webb College and was a member of South Atlantic Modern Language Association.

He was an English Professor at Gardner-Webb College for twenty-seven years and was also chairman of the English department for ten years. He was a member of Boiling Springs Baptist Church, where he taught the Max Linnens Sunday School Class. Prior to Gardner-Webb, from 1963-1965, he was Chaplain and teacher at Carolina Military Academy in Maxton, North Carolina where his rank was Captain. He was pastor of Cone Creek Baptist Church in Boone, North Carolina from 1956-1963. He was also a former member of Boiling Springs Lions Club. Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Ed Sessom, chairman

DEDICATION

By recommendation of the Resolutions Committee at the Tuesday evening session of the annual meeting the 1992 Minutes of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association are dedicated to the memory of Reverend Bartley Paul Horne, Sr., Reverend Ernest Monroe Blankenship, and Reverend S.L. Lamm.

IN MEMORIAM

Bartley Paul Horne, Sr. was born November 1, 1909, a native of Charlotte, North Carolina. In 1932, he was ordained to the gospel ministry at Macedonia Baptist Church in Kings Mountain.

Although his sixty years of evangelistic ministry took him to pulpits all throughout the United States, Mexico and Canada, Rev. Horne spent many of his years of service to congregations throughout the Piedmont.

Rev. Horne retired from vocational ministry at the conclusion of his tenure at Highland Baptist Church in Shelby in 1979.

However, Paul Horne's ministry did not stop at retirement. For eleven years he voluntarily served as chaplain at the Kings Mountain Hospital, a position that not only lightened the visitation load of the Kings Mountain Ministerial Alliance, but also provided continuity of ministry to the patients and staff of the hospital.

As physical limitations gradually rendered him homebound, Rev. Horne's primary concern was not the intensity of his pain, but rather the dissolution of his capacity to preach and visit.

On April 28, 1992, Heaven welcomed brother Paul to his new and final residence. He left behind a son, Paul, Jr., living in Indiana, and his wife Pearl Huffstetler Moss Horne of Kings Mountain.

We recognize the hope and faithfulness of God's servant B. Paul Horne.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Ed Sessom, chairman

DEDICATION

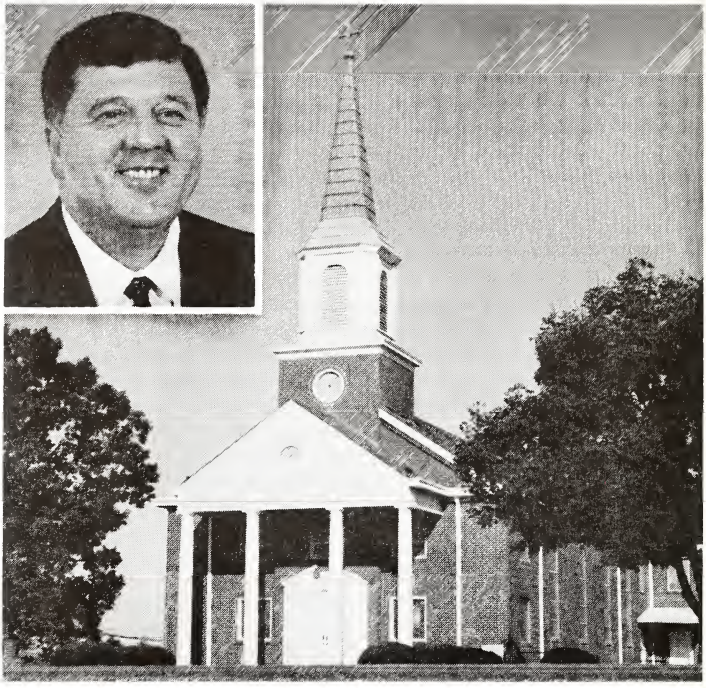
IN MEMORIAM

Sanford L. Lamm was born on October 4, 1897 in Nash County, North Carolina. He completed high school and two years of college at Mars Hill College in Mars Hill, North Carolina. He then completed his B.A. degree at Wake Forest College in Wake Forest, North Carolina. From there he went to the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky, completing both his Bachelor of Divinity and Master of Theology degrees. During his college years, he served as pastor of small churches and often held revival meetings. His first pastorate after the seminary was at South Roanoke Baptist Church in Roanoke, Virginia. On September 6, 1930, he married Foy O'Quinn. Together they served the church in Roanoke and them moved to Cochran, Georgia in 1935 where he pastored the First Baptist Church. In 1943, he became pastor of Avondale Baptist Church, Avondale, North Carolina until 1947. He then became pastor of the First Baptist Church of Bryson City, North Carolina until 1950. While pastor in Bryson City, he was a trustee for Gardner-Webb College until his retirement. He was interim pastor for approximately 40 plus churches serving in Cleveland, Rutherford, Gaston counties and returned at one point of time to interim for both Bryson City and Avondale churches. He also was interim in Cherokee County, South Carolina.

He has one daughter, Leona Lamm Cummings, of Alexandria, Virginia, three grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Ed Sessom, chairman



HISTORY OF OAK GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH

Oak Grove Baptist Church was organized in September of 1897. Prior to organization, services were held in the Putnam School House, which was located approximately 300 yards southeast of the present location of the church building. Services were also held under an old fashioned "brush arbor" near the school house.

Thomas Lovelace, Sr. is said to have donated the original site consisting of about two acres of land. Rev. James Crowell Blanton, founder of the church, was elected as first pastor. The church had thirty (30) charter members - all of which are now deceased.

The first church building was a one-room frame structure which stood on the ground now being used for cemetery space and was completed during the winter following the organization of the church in September of 1897. The second building was completed in August of 1924. The educational building was begun in April of 1948 and upon completion the worship services were held in the basement until the sanctuary could be built. Groundbreaking for the new sanctuary was held April 5, 1953 and the first service was held October 4, 1953. The church voted on April 14, 1965 to build the fellowship building and completed this project in 1968.

The church has come a long way from that original site of two acres to its present site of approximately 25 acres. Not only has the church grown physically but spiritually as well. Countless lives have been touched and changed by the witness of this church. God has richly blessed the past ninety-five years of the ministry of Oak Grove Baptist Church. With God's direction and blessing, this congregation anticipates even greater things in the future. God has been her help in ages past, and will be her hope for years to come!

Rev. Ron Caulder serves as pastor, Mr. Bob Webster as music director, and Miss Karen Mauney as minister of youth and children. The current membership is 650.

HISTORY OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

First Baptist Church, Kings Mountain, was brought into being through the dedication of two women who were strong believers in the Baptist doctrines.

In the late 1870's two newly married couples moved to Kings Mountain. They were Mr. and Mrs. George Cornwell and Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Kendrick. Both women were Baptist and would not join any other denomination even though their husbands were not Baptist. They joined Bethlehem, the closest Baptist church. They stood firm in their Baptist beliefs through many persuasions of others for them to join their husbands.

By 1890 a few other Baptist families had moved to Kings Mountain. These two faithful women had their letters granted from Bethlehem, and they with the few other families organized a Baptist church. With no meeting place, they met in homes and in the school building. A good Presbyterian, Mr. John H. Craig of Gastonia, donated a lot on the south corner of Piedmont Avenue and Mountain Street. The first building was finished and occupied in 1891.

Since that time the history of First Baptist Church can be traced in growth and building. The objective of First Baptist Church is to fulfill Christ's commission "to make disciples...baptizing them...and teaching them..." To fulfill this commission, the church assisted in the organization of Second Baptist Church in 1915 and Macedonia Baptist in 1920. To accommodate growth and to promote further growth, the church relocated on July 3, 1960 to its present location on West King Street. On September 22, 1985 the beautiful worship center was dedicated to the Lord Jesus.

Dr. John Sloan, Jr. serves as pastor, Rev. Morris Jordan as minister of music, Rev. Shane Doty as minister of youth, and Rev. Richard Young as minister of education. The current membership is 1,079.

36. Mr. Joe Cabaniss, chairman of the Finance Committee, presented the new 1992-93 budget. This was mailed out about two weeks ago for everyone to look over ahead of time. This new budget includes a 5th quarter that will allow our budget to be arranged to the calendar year. This budget will run from October 1, 1992 to December 31, 1993. This change is presented in a constitutional change in By-Law IV Section 4. A provision has also been made in the budget for the Church Development Director staff person with the understanding that this person will be called at a later date at such times the funds are available. The suggested percentage for each church to contribute to associational missions is 5%. Rev. Ed Sessom moved the adoption of this 15 month budget. Rev. The Star of Bethlehem is now sponsoring English classes for their members. Also every Monday, Bible study is held in the home of a member. Rev. Mr. Joe Lennon, president of the North Carolina Christian Action League, spoke on "God's Answer to our Moral Ills." He stated that our biggest problem is not the economy, as reported during these pre-election days, but rather our moral ills.

He reported having been in 45 of our churches since coming to our association in January 1992. He presented his message to the association. He spoke on, "The Same Gospel - A New Day...To Go Make Disciples." He challenged the association to not stop now but to move on to doing more next year. Looking back we can see how God has provided...looking ahead we must trust God to provide so we can be on mission for Christ in Kings Mountain Baptist Association. We must begin with the Great Commission which is our motive for ministry. Times are changing and we must change...it is a new day. Jesus ministered through relationship building...we, as churches, must do that too. The main thing is to go make disciples!

60. Moderator Fitts expressed appreciation to everyone and recognized Rev. Harold Bradley for the benediction. Rev. Harold Bradley, pastor of Highland Church, dismissed with prayer the 142nd annual session of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS REPORT

"Time flies when you're having fun" is how I feel about my first nine months as your Director of Missions. Your support of me, affirmation of me and confidence in me has been both humbling and gratifying. I am blessed indeed to have been called to serve with you in Kings Mountain Baptist Association. I am grateful for our associational staff and the love they have for each other and the association. We enjoy working together and working with you.

I also want to express appreciation to all of our leaders who have worked so hard to get things ready for the annual meeting - volunteers, our staff, organizational directors, committee chairpersons, the host churches and host group, associational officers, and church clerks. The annual meeting is quite an event to prepare for and so many worked so hard. I especially thank the Order of Business Committee for planning a balanced program that is informational and inspirational.

My work with individual churches or groups from churches continues to be one of my favorite responsibilities. The opportunities help me get to know "our Baptists" better and better determine ways that we can assist the churches. I do not take for granted that we exist because of and for the churches. During these first months with you I have had the opportunity to preach in, speak at, directly assist, etc. 36 of our churches. I have also attended services or special programs at 9 other churches.

I am encouraged by your openness to new areas of missions and ministries. During the past year we have witnessed many "new" areas of work such as:

1. Missionary-In-Residence partnership with Gardner-Webb College
2. Approval to begin an Associational Student Ministry Committee
3. Ethnic Missions Work
   a. Star-of-Bethlehem Baptist Mission (Hispanic)
   b. Laotian Baptist Mission
4. Black Church/Predominantly Black Church Development
5. Ministry training for those who work with victims of substance abuse
6. "Meet at City Hall" prayer rally
7. "See You at the Pole" prayer rally
8. Hurricane Andrew relief
9. New church starts
10. Rick Gage Crusade
11. Associational Youth Musical

This is only a partial listing of many great things that took place in our association last year. As we look to the future we will build on our openness to new areas of missions and ministries and trust God to show us His vision for this great association.

I urge you to prayerfully consider how you and your church can be involved in such opportunities as the extended Brazil partnership, a new missions partnership with the Greater Rochester Baptist Association in New York, the Bill Glass Crusade in the fall of 1993, building a Habitat for Humanity House for the Jose Espinales family, starting new churches, and the support of the Missionary-In-Residence to name a few. I want to see us strengthen our work in evangelism, family ministry and missions support. I want to see us strengthen the program areas and organizations in our churches. I want to see our churches responding in faith and confidence to God's leadership to do what each church is uniquely and individually called to do.

I urge us as an association to take that step of faith in order to call a Church Development Director. Will you pray about what you and your church can do as you evaluate your present level of the financial support of associational missions giving? "Listening Sessions" were held in six locations during the spring of this year to discuss the work of a Church Development Director.

Thank you for giving me the privilege to serve as your Director of Missions - may we faithfully and obediently follow God's vision.

Joyfully serving with you,
Leland Kerr
Director of Missions

EXECUTIVE BOARD REPORT

Three regular meetings of the Executive Board were held in 1992 - January 20 at Wallace Grove; April 27 at Bethlehem; and July 20 at Lawndale.

New pastors and new board members were recognized at each meeting; reports from the director of missions (and interim director of missions), director of church and community ministries, various committees and clerk-treasurer were presented at the meetings.

Highlights of the meetings included the following:

In January, the Board took the opportunity to thank Sam Snyder for his ministry as interim director of missions and to welcome Leland Kerr as the new director of missions.

Kathryn Hamrick, representing the Baptist State Convention as a member of the Institutions Relationship Study Committee, gave a report and requested information as to how best their committee could do its work effectively; she will be sharing her report again at the annual meeting.

In April, encouraging reports were given by the Sunday School and Discipleship Training directors and requests were made of the churches as to how these organizational leaders might best fulfill their responsibilities to our individual churches.

At the July meeting, a lengthy discussion was held concerning the staff position of church development director, and it was reported by Mr. Kerr that listening sessions had been held in all six church group areas of the association so that people might be made more aware of how this position can help, not only in establishing new church work in our association, but also with the work of individual churches which are already established.

This is the last year of our NC/Brazil partnership and Joe Collins, David and Joy Swann were recognized and given the opportunity to share their feelings as they prepare to go on this mission to Brazil. As board members circled the sanctuary and joined hands, a prayer was led by Rev. Jeff Brendle for this team of missionaries.

At each of the meetings, both the Eastern and Western Advisory Committees and the Star of Bethlehem Missions had the opportunity to report on the work of their churches/mission and how effective the churches/mission and pastors are in the growth and life of this area of ministry.

At the close of each meeting, the host church provided a time of fellowship and refreshments.

We thank each person in the association who makes a contribution (whether of prayer, time, energy or money) to assist in the work of this body of Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
Recca Bingham, Clerk-treasurer

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

1. The Executive Committee and the Missions Committee recommend that the Kings Mountain Baptist Association enter into a 3-5 year partnership with the Greater Rochester Baptist Association in New York. The North Carolina Baptist State Convention is in a partnership with New York Baptist Convention and encourages churches and associations to participate in the partnership.

Possible missions opportunities with the Greater Rochester Baptist Association are: youth missions trip teams, Back Yard Bible Clubs, program training, leadership training, evangelism, multi-housing ministry, construction, revivals, financial support, new church starts, creative arts ministries.

2. The Executive Committee and the Missions Committee recommend that our association observe Associational Missions Week May 17-23, 1993 by publicizing the week, developing a promotional program for the churches to use during the week, and promoting and receiving and Associational Missions Week Offering. The Missions Committee will present a goal for the offering at the January Executive Board Meeting with details as to how the offering would be used for special ministries and projects.

1991-92 SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

The Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team (ASSIST) has been busy over the past year, supporting the churches of Kings Mountain Baptist Association with training and consultation in Sunday School work. Because they have provided several training workshops, have participated in training themselves, and have made themselves available to churches who request help, the ASSISTeam has been recognized by the Baptist Sunday School Board as a standard team for the second year in a row.

Members of the ASSISTeam during the past year include Joe Collins, Director; Jerry Welch, Adult and Small Church Specialist; Bridget Allen, VBS Director and Youth Specialist; Scott Norton, Youth Specialist; Ruth Whisnant, Children Specialist; and Linda Ellis, Preschool Specialist. A special thanks goes to these volunteers and to a host of others who helped lead the Vacation Bible School Clinic.

On February 11, 1992, Bridget Allen and Joe Collins led a VBS Early Bird Clinic for pastors and VBS Directors at the associational building. Seventeen people, representing 10 churches, were present.

On March 31, 1992, 111 participants from 28 different churches gathered at Ross Grove Baptist Church for a Sunday School Outreach Clinic. Enthusiasm for reaching people for Bible study ran high among those present, and when all Uniform Church Letters are submitted to the association, we hope to see tangible benefits from this clinic in both enrollment and attendance figures.

On April 28, 1992, our annual VBS Clinic was held at Bethel Baptist Church. We had 85 VBS workers from 21 different churches represented at this event. On May 23, 1992, Joe Collins led an additional VBS Clinic for Backyard Bible Club/Mission VBS Workers. We had 7 people from 4 different churches who participated in this clinic at the associational building.

On August 24-25, 1992, 72 Sunday School workers gathered to study the new "Teaching" series book at Putnam Memorial Baptist Church. These participants represented 22 of our member churches in this last conference of the year.

During the year, a total of 177 different individuals received training in at least one of these conferences. They represented 37 of our 75 churches. A few churches led our association in participation in these events. Second Baptist of Kings Mountain led all other churches by registering 20 different individuals in these events. Dover Baptist sent 16, Ross Grove sent 12, and Putnam Memorial sent 10. These churches are to be commended for their interest in training to become their best at reaching, teaching, and winning others. May their commitment become infectious.

Respectfully submitted,
Joe Collins

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING

The goal of Discipleship Training is to equip church members and churches for greater Christian service. Today, Discipleship Training offers many new methods to help members enhance their knowledge and skills in living the Gospel. The LIFE series offers some new methods of equipping in the LIFE support course, Experiencing God, Disciple's Prayer Life and many others.

Summary of Events:

1. Children's Bible Drill
   72 children participated from 14 churches

2. Youth Bible Drill
   7 youth participated from one church

3. "M" Night: Piedmont Church in Kings Mountain won the High Attendance Award & the High Percentage Award.

4. Disciple All Conference

W M U REPORT - 1992

I would like to express my appreciation to each associational director, leader, secretary, whatever your responsibility was, for the work you have performed this year, and also to the many of you who have supported us. Our theme has been, "Called and Accountable." We have really come to realize this does not mean called by need, success, ethics, guilt or even the Great Commission - these are reasons to be, to do, to go, but they are not who calls us. The true call that sustains, empowers and equips us - is the Holy Spirit of God living and working is us through His power.

We covet your prayers as we continue to work and give our Lord and Savior the praise, honor, and glory for all blessings he bestows upon us.

In November 1991, Baptist Women observed World Day of Prayer.

Our Annual Spring Meeting, held at Patterson Springs Church on April 28, 1992, was very well attended. A wonderful program was planned including the Parade of Flags. It was a very inspiring program.

Our Acteens have had another very busy year:

At the fall meeting in 1991, Charles Reed made them aware of his responsibilities and ways they could be of help. This added two steps to their achievement guide.

June 21-26 the Acteen Activators once again went to Beaufort and Hunting Island, South Carolina to participate in a beach ministry and migrant ministry.

They worked in a Vacation Bible School for a week which was held at the Baptist Church of Beaufort. Their attendance was 448 and they had 150 professions of faith. Bible Day Camp was held at Hunting Island campground. Attendance ranged from 28 to 40 children. Our girls worked in preschool with 4 and 5 year olds and also 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grade classes.

Thanks to so many who furnished sheets for beds which was a part of their project for Beaufort. They had to take a van just to take their sheets in. They distributed 764 sheets from which the majority of them came from our churches of Kings Mountain Baptist Association. Many, many thanks to all who had a part in this.

Acteens from Elizabeth Baptist Church made prayer bears for the Medical Dental Bus. Christopher Road Acteens made bears for Christmas Toy Store.

May 1992 the Acteens sponsored an Associational World Missions Fair. Displays of countries from India and Canada were the highlight of this event.

Director Gay Tolbert is certainly to be commended for her dedication and effort for making all this a great success.

Girls-in-Action: The G.A.'s made hygiene kits for the Medical Dental Bus and together filled the bags with items furnished by our churches.

Mission Friends: The leader planned a picnic for leaders and children at the park which was enjoyed by all.

The fall WMU/Brotherhood Workshop was held at Elizabeth Baptist Church on September 1, 1992. WMU attendance was 75.

Our 1991 membership totaled 3,827 with 308 organizations.

One of the highlights was to be able to help the Missionary-In-Residence missionaries, Chris and Pam Ammons, by furnishing linens, silverware, and small kitchen items.

BROTHERHOOD REPORT

In Charles Dickens' book "A Tale of Two Cities," the author begins with the proclamation that "this is the worst of times and the best of times." As we look back on 1992 I suppose many in certain areas of our country would consider it the worst of times.

In late August Hurricane Andrew devastated the southern tip of Florida and the inland area of Louisiana. In just a matter of hours thousands of homes were destroyed and people's lives changed forever. Response to their needs from our North Carolina Brotherhood and Baptist Men Organizations was immediate. It was reported that our North Carolina Disaster Relief Van was the first to reach the stricken Homestead area.

In addition, three groups of men from our association responded to the call - one group to Florida and two groups to Louisiana. I want to thank all the men who made sacrifices to go and especially to their families and also to the churches who sponsored them with their financial support, food, and most importantly their prayers.

Hurricane Andrew was a catastrophe, but sometimes it takes a tragedy like this to help us focus on what is important in life. This tragedy made me realize that when times hit hard people will give of themselves to others, that my personal problems are not that big in the grand scheme of things, and finally how quickly things can change. My advice: take time today and do something you have been putting off. Who knows what tomorrow will bring.

In other areas,our Brotherhood organizations continue to grow and be active in missions. Our Prayer Breakfast at the Cleveland County Fair was held on October 7th and our Baptist Men provided a hot breakfast to over 135 fair employees and their families. Our purpose is to share the love of Jesus Christ through this activity and we know this breakfast has become a special event in the lives of the fair personnel and our Baptist Men.

Special recognition also goes to our RA organizations, their leaders and to our RA boys. We have a tremendous RA program in our association that is being used as an example for other associations. My special thanks to all the leaders who give of themselves toward this purpose.

Finally, I want to recognize all the dedicated men who are visiting our nursing homes, worship with our jail and prison ministry programs, staffing the Winter Night Shelter, and all those who readily volunteer when a call for help is sent out.

Our goal is to be MEN MOBILIZED FOR MISSIONS. Through your efforts and by your sacrifices we will continue to do as our Lord leads us. May God bless each of you.

Yours in Christ,
Harold Wright, Brotherhood Director

MUSIC MINISTRY REPORT

This has been another good year for music in our association. We will soon complete the requirements for the Basic Standard of Excellence.

Two major events were sponsored by our Music Ministry during this year. On May 17-18, our first Associational Youth Choir presented "Live It To The Max 2 - Be The One." Over 200 youth from 19 churches took part in this event at Bethel Baptist Church. Through Bethel, we were able to have the musical broadcast on Channel 16. Then due to a scheduling mix-up at the station, it was presented two more times. This was a great way to extend the ministry of these young people beyond their own doors.

On September 21, an Associational Church Music Workshop was held at Bethel Baptist Church. We had 72 people from 22 churches participating in this event. Classes for music directors, sound technicians, pianists and organists, children's choir leaders, as well as for spouses were offered. Response from this event has been excellent and such events will definitely be beneficial in the future.

It has been a good year for fellowship among our ministers of music. We have met for lunch, fellowship, and planning about once a month with an average attendance of 10. We are seeking avenues of fellowship that will allow our part-time and volunteer music leaders to more easily enjoy this fellowship time.

Respectfully submitted,
Charlton D. Bozard

HISTORIAN'S REPORT

Today I want to tell you about a Civil War Soldier, a twice wounded veteran of several battles, who was also a chaplain, later a full-time minister in the Kings Mountain Baptist Association, who founded what was probably the first Sunday School in our association, and who, as a "missionary" helped found more than a dozen churches in the area, including the First Baptist Church of Gastonia.

He was Rev. Philip Ramseur Elam, a relative of all the Elams in the association for the past 100 years, including the families by that name who live in the Kings Mountain and Lawndale and Shelby sections of the county; also of Philip Ramseur Elam of Mars Hill, a long time member of the North Carolina Baptist Convention's History Committee. We are indebted to him for this photograph and brief sketch of the life of this minister-soldier-hero of the past.

Mr. Elam and I are proud to present this picture and sketch to the association. Hopefully they will be recorded in the minutes and become a part of the permanent record of this body.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. W. Wyan Washburn, Historian

BAPTIST MINISTER AND GALLANT CIVIL WAR SOLDIER

Rev. Philip Ramseur Elam: March 12, 1833 - February 24, 1901

Son of Anderson Samuel Elam (1792-1887) and Letisha Weatherford Elam, he was born in Virginia. He married Mrs. Mary J. Barber Crawford (a Civil War Widow with one son) in 1866. They reared six children and operated a 400 acre farm in addition to his pastoral duties. He was also a self-educated geologist.

P.R. Elam was ordained to the ministry on September 15, 1854 at New Bethel Baptist Church. In 1866 Rev. Elam assisted in the establishment of one of the first Sunday Schools in the Association at New Bethel Church. He pastored many churches during his tenure of 47 years. He was a member of the Presbytery, officiating at the organization of many churches in six counties and two states, including First Baptist Church, Gastonia, N.C. and was first pastor of many. He was also pastor of Bethlehem Church. He was an active contributor to the Kings Mountain Baptist Association according to the minutes and was the associational missionary for many years; "Elder Elam never failed to be on hand at the annual sessions of the association. In 1866 he preached the introductory sermon before the body with much acceptance." He often rode a horse a total of 50 miles despite inclement weather to preach to his congregations.

In 1861, Philip Elam volunteered in South Carolina's militia and was at Colonel Anderson's surrender at the fall of Fort Sumter. He then volunteered in North Carolina's 55th Regiment and was a Lieutenant of his company. He was wounded (left side) during the third day at Gettysburg, July 3, 1863 and imprisoned for nine months at Johnson's Island, Ohio. At a prisoner exchange in Point Lookout, Maryland, Lt. Elam was repatriated. Lt. Elam was subsequently wounded (left shoulder) in the defense of Richmond on August 5, 1864. Other than the time as a Union prisoner, he was active in all battles fought by Colonel John Conley's N.C. 55th Regiment. He was voluntary chaplain throughout the war and appointed missionary to Johnston's Army of Virginia. Operating as a Lieutenant, he lead his company in the front lines of battle never carrying a rifle. His motto to his men in the heat of battle was "Pray and press forward."

1992 BRAZIL PARTNERSHIP REPORT

The end of 1992 will mark the completion of the five-year Partnership that North Carolina has had with the State of Sao Paulo, Brazil. In 1987, the Kings Mountain Baptist Association began a partnership with the South Capital Association in the city of Sao Paulo. Over the past five years the Kings Mountain Baptist Association has commissioned 24 volunteer missionaries from Cleveland County. Six churches existed when the partnership began. Now 15 churches and missions function within the South Capital Association. Through the mission efforts in the South Capital Association, more than 300 Brazilians have come to know Christ as Savior.

The KMBA has received financial contributions of $2,377.00 dollars to purchase land or building materials. These funds were sent to the South Capital Association through the Foreign Mission Board. In August, a congregation of 30 people purchased a piece of land to begin construction of a church. The KMBA donation paid for one-third of the cost while other sources paid the remaining two-thirds of the cost.

The South Capital Association has been strengthened dramatically as a result of the partnership with our association. This South Capital area still suffers from terrible poverty, disease, and apathy. The people have pleaded with us to continue our mission efforts. In following, the South Capital Association has requested KMBA to continue the partnership on a limited basis. Our sister association has two priorities: a construction team in 1993 to assist in the new church construction, and and evangelism team in 1994 to continue strengthening the churches. As chairman of the Brazil Task Force, I make the following motion: that the Kings Mountain Baptist Association commission a mission team in 1993 and 1994 to address the priorities stated above.

It has been a pleasure to serve the Kings Mountain Baptist Association as your partnership coordinator.

Respectfully submitted,
David Swann

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE REPORT

The Membership Committee is charged with the responsibility of working with churches and missions which desire membership in the Association. The committee held two meetings this year. A planning meeting was held on July 27. Then, on August 23, 1992, the committee met, at different times, with groups from Piedmont Baptist Church of Lawndale, and People's Baptist Church, located in Kings Mountain.

Both churches had been received under the watchcare of the Association at the annual meeting of 1991.

Several members, including the chief officers, of Piedmont Baptist Church were present and presented a revised constitution, attendance and financial reports, building plans, and missions opportunities. The group expressed the desire for their church to become a full-fledged member of the Association.

The Membership Committee believes that Piedmont Baptist Church of Lawndale has met all the constitutional requirements of the Association and recommends that the church be received into full membership and fellowship in the Association.

A sizeable delegation from People's Baptist Church reaffirmed their belief in Southern Baptist Principles and their commitment to cooperate with the Association. The group shared exciting plans for evangelization and practical missions in areas in Kings Mountain.

The Membership Committee believes that People's Baptist Church has met all the constitutional requirements of the Association and recommends that the church be received into full membership and fellowship in the Association.

MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

The Apostle Paul wrote in Philippians 1:21 that "for me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." What, do you suppose, this great believer thought he would gain, when, in the will of God, the summons for his departure came?

He surely must have been confident that he would gain HEAVEN. No doubt he was familiar with the Master's words: "In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you."

Not only did Paul have such words as these for his consolation, but he evidently had earlier received a glimpse of heaven. From II Corinthians 12:2: "I knew a man in Christ about 14 years ago (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body I cannot tell; God knoweth) such a one was caught up to the third heaven." The third heaven was to the Hebrews the highest level of bliss--or what we call heaven today.

Moreover, he knew, as he wrote "that if his earthly tabernacle were dissolved, he had a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

As to the environment and character of heaven we cannot be sure, but through faith we believe that it is a reality, and awaits those who are prepared for it.

An old-fashioned preacher, who loved to journey through Eastern waters, put it this way: "We make too much of death. We do not dwell enough on the soul and its ongoing might. As one sails the Mediterranean, round whose shores much that is greatest in history has taken place (and it is beautiful), one shrinks from leaving it. Then too, the sea contracts toward the west; the shores gather together; in the way of the ongoing mariner the straits of Gibraltar are narrow; apparently they are impassable; they are like the end of a person's life.

But as you advance, the illusion vanishes. The straits are wide and deep enough for the mightiest ship. On past the great rocks at the portal, your ship goes out into the vaster sea. From the horizon comes the sight of the vast Atlantic Ocean.

Such is a person's voyage on the sea of time. In the narrow passage we call death we naturally have fear. But there is room for the greatest soul to pass. Let him go forward in confidence and hope. Beyond is the Infinite, and out into it the soul is moving to hear the call of loved ones, and to find the welcome of the Father's love and the light of His eternal home."

May we now stand for a few moments in loving remembrance of those who have gone from us.

J.C. Goare, Chairman

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMITTEE REPORT

Our committee began its work early in the 1992 calendar year by deciding about the area of our work responsibility and establishing some immediate goals.

Our most immediate goal was to encourage all churches of our association to organize a Christian Life Committee and offer training and literature to the committees as soon as possible. In an effort to accomplish this goal, the various members of the committee were assigned one or more groups of churches within the association to enlist each church's involvement. Mr. Russell Fitts, as ex-officio member of the committee, volunteered to assist the committee in its work as a replacement to Rev. Terry Cagle, who submitted his resignation to the committee. Rev. Fitt's contribution of time and labor on the committee has been of immeasurable value to the committee.

The National Day of Prayer, observed with "Meetings at each Municipal Hall" on May 7 between 12:20 and 12:40 PM, was adopted as our second goal. Each member of the committee assumed responsibility to contact the management in all municipalities in the association's geographical area for the promotion and conducting of these prayer meetings. Thirteen municipalities participated with high interest and good participation in all.

Mr. Coy Privette, Executive Director of the Christian Action League of North Carolina, was secured to present a program at the April meeting of the Pastor's Conference.

The chairman of the committee attended training meetings at Ridgecrest in May and a Family Life Conference in August.

A special publication outlining the work of a Christian Life Committee in each church was prepared by the committee and distributed to each church in the association. The North Carolina and Southern Baptist Christian Life Committee journals, as well as the American Family Association Journal, have been made available to each member of the committee. Additional copies of these journals are made available in the association's library on Wyke Road.

The committee has requested that the Constitution of the association be modified to allow a representative from each group of churches to be on the Christian Life Committee and that at least one member be female.

Mr. Joe Lennon, President of the Christian Action League of North Carolina, has been engaged to speak at the annual meeting in behalf of the social, moral and civic concerns of our committee.

Respectfully submitted,
William T. Roberson, Chairman

MISSIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

In the 1991 Kings Mountain Baptist Association Annual the membership of your Missions Committee is listed on page 9. The duties of the Missions Committee are spelled out on page 25 in By-law IV, Section 19, which concludes with these words: "Providing energetic outreach leadership for the Association shall be the committee's highest priority."

In the 1991-92 associational year your Missions committee met in November, February, May, August and September during the noon hour at the Kings Mountain Baptist Association office. The focus of all our meetings was upon God's vision for new work in our association and for insight and understanding into ways to strengthen our member churches and missions. Under God's leadership, we are constantly seeking ways to improve communication between the association and the individual churches. Again and again the Missions Committee expressed genuine concern for and a sensitivity to the needs of all those individuals and churches which make up the Kings Mountain Baptist Association. Beginning new work is our heartbeat and nurturing, encouraging and strengthening all existing churches in our association is our vital breath. We encourage all churches to freely share with us their needs and aspirations.

The Missions Committee has discussed ways to support our new works. We have authorized the use of State Missions Offering Funds for the purchase of a lot to build a Habitat for Humanity house for the Jose Espinales family. Jose is the pastor of the Star of Bethlehem Baptist Mission. We will encourage the raising of additional funds to build the house when plans are ready.

We joined Gardner-Webb College as a co-sponsor of the Missionary-In-Residence program. Our missionaries, the Chris Ammons family from Peru, moved into the house we rented in August of this year. They will be with us through June and another missionary family will arrive in July. We encourage each church to contribute a portion of or one month's rent ($500).

In the coming year we plan to continue to explore ways to start new church work. We will also encourage our existing churches to be "on mission in their setting." We anticipate continued work with the Brazil Partnership, and a new mission partnership with New York Baptists in the greater Rochester area. We will plan activities for and promote the Associational Missions Week in May of next year. May we continue to be sensitive to missions opportunities and activities.

Respectfully submitted,
Jim Brackett, Chairman

EASTERN ADVISORY COMMITTEE

At the beginning of the third year of ministry, Peoples Baptist Church of Kings Mountain is poised to meet the challenges of the 90's and the coming 21st century. During the just concluded year there has been a continued growth in numbers as well as a setting of a stronger foundation of the previous first year of ministry.

During the past year the church baptized 13 new believers, most of them adults. There were 4 who joined with us from other faiths. There has been a steady increase in attendance and in membership. There has been substantial growth in financial support and mission support. Peoples has reached out in local missions through contributions to individuals in need, the Rick Gage Crusade, and the Medical-Dental Bus. Peoples also has a regular ministry to the Pine Manor Apartments in Kings Mountain. During the year a building fund was established as Peoples look toward purchasing property for erecting adequate buildings to serve its growing needs.

God is doing some great things at Peoples Church through the dedicated and stable ministry of its gifted Pastor, Rev. John Houze. We rejoice in God's blessings.

Respectfully submitted,
Eugene Land, Chairman

WESTERN ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Your Western Advisory Committee has had three meetings since our last Kings Mountain Baptist Association Annual Meeting. These meetings were held on the Mondays of: December 9th, March 9th and August 10th. Attending these meetings were representatives from: Ross Grove, Churchill Drive, Bethel, First Baptist, New Jerusalem, and the associational staff.

The attending representatives discussed and identified areas of ministry needs. Some of these ministry needs have been provided to the New Jerusalem Baptist Church. Through contributing churches assistance has been provided to the church for: fuel oil, insurance, pastor support, purchase of literature and building repairs. In addition, some materials and literature has been contributed to New Jerusalem.

It is apparent that greater participation is needed from the churches in the Western sector of our association. You can be of assistance by: electing two (2) representatives from your church; by contributing financial aid to the Western Advisory Committee and by encouraging your mission organizations to become involved in mission projects at the New Jerusalem Baptist Church.

Respectively submitted,
Ray Lamb, Chairman

STAR OF BETHLEHEM HISPANIC MISSION REPORT

"But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." Acts 1:8

This order, given to us by our Lord, is the strength that makes me march on so I can take God's Word of Salvation to Hispanic families in Shelby.

It has been seventeen months since Rev. Sam Snyder and Mickey Heyward gave me the keys of the Association office and of Christopher Road Church. From this point on I have met twenty-eight Hispanic families with a total of seventy-eight people. Only sixteen people, or thirteen percent, attend our mission on a regular basis. We have twenty-seven enrolled in Sunday School. The mission has thirteen members of which only six tithe, the rest of them give offerings.

During the past summer we worked with the Migrant Ministry and we found ninety-three people from which sixteen received Jesus as personal Savior. We gave a total of sixty-five Bibles, thirty-five New Testaments and 120 pamphlets. We had the participation of Kings Mountain Baptist Association churches, and from a Methodist church with food, toothbrushes, toothpaste, etc. which was part of the program.

Our mission sponsors two families who came from Charlotte - Armando and Jazmine Blandon and three children and Leynus and Adilia Chavez Munoz. We also help with rent, furniture, clothes, and food.

To close this year we are working on a census which will help with a better schedule for English classes for Hispanics, with the help of Cleveland Community College. Mrs. Katty Wallace is the person responsible.

The Mission is working on a new program which will possibly teach Bible study to people who cannot come to the church because of time.

We want to help the American church with two hours of Spanish classes. For people who are interested, the classes will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

I personally want to tell you God bless the churches which are helping with our mission as well as those who are helping me. The word of God says, "It is better to give than to receive."

In Jesus,
Rev. Jose Espinales, pastor
Star of Bethlehem Mission

YOUTH MINISTRY COMMITTEE

The Youth Committee worked together to provide many activities and fellowships for the youth of Cleveland County and the churches in the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

An associational youth hayride was held in December of 1991. Over 200 youth met at Bethel Church to load up on tractors and trailers to ride around Shelby singing Christmas carols through the local neighborhoods and then at the court square sang carols for the area shoppers. The group then returned to Bethel for hot chocolate and doughnuts.

In February we had a youth retreat at Ridgecrest, NC. Buddy Freeman was the speaker for the weekend. The focus of the retreat was personal prayer life. Approximately 75 youth attended this retreat.

RESCUE '92 was held April 2,3,and 4. Mark Evans was the guest speaker and Kyle and Susan Matthews provided special music. Newsboys were the special guest for the Saturday evening celebration concert. This year an additional time of fellowship was added on Saturday morning at Boiling Springs Church. Kyle and Susan Matthews led a session about teenage sexuality. Then following recreation time and pizza for lunch, Susan and Kyle gave a special concert of music and drama. The average attendance for each evening was around 450. The following decisions were made during RESCUE,92: 18 professions of faith; 144 rededications; 2 Christian full-time vocation; 19 other decisions. Follow up was done with each decision and area ministers were contacted and encouraged to do additional follow-up for their geographical area.

KMBA Youth Choir performed at Bethel Church May 17 and 18 "Live It to the Max 2". This started as an associational music project but ended up involving youth ministers as well because of the many youth and music combination ministers in our association. Over 100 youth participated from the end of January to the middle of May as we met once a week each Sunday afternoon to work out voice parts, drama, choreography, scenery, and lighting. This event has set a precedent for future endeavors and for the spirit of cooperation that was borne out of the leaders and youth involved.

August 12 was the KMBA Youth Rally held at Eastside Church in Shelby. Witness, the music and evangelism team from the NC Baptist State Convention led this time of praise and worship.

September 16 was the first annual See You At The Pole prayer meetings at schools across the nation. Cleveland County and Shelby City School students led in prayer time at their respective school flag poles beginning at 7:30 am and lasting about 20 minutes. It has been estimated that well over 500 students praticipated in this event across our county.

James Byrd, Chairman

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE KINGS MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

On November 7, 1851 the following churches from the Broad River Baptist Association met at Double Springs Baptist Church for the purpose of organizing a new association: Beaver Dam, Bethel, Boiling Springs, Broad River, Buffalo, Double Springs, Mt. Pleasant, Mt. Sinai, New Bethel, Pleasant Hill, Sandy Run, Zion, and Zoar.

The need for a new association resulted from geographical conditions. The boundary of the Broad River Association was so extensive that delegates were unable to attend the annual sessions due to swollen rivers and streams.

The name "Kings Mountain Association" was chosen because its boundary included the Kings Mountain battleground, a monument to be remembered by every patriot and lover of religious liberty.

In 1903, the association appointed a committee to establish and endow a denomination high school. In 1905, Boiling Springs was chosen as the most suitable site by a 15-member Board of Trustees. The Sandy Run Association was invited to join the Kings Mountain Association in establishing the school. In 1906, efforts and plans were begun to raise money for the school and in 1907, the first building was erected. The school opened on October 1, 1907 with 135 students. The first principal was Professor J.D. Huggins. The school later became known as Gardner-Webb College.

Directors of Missions who have served the association are:

Lewis E. Ludlum	1946-50
Tom W. Bray	1950-59
C.O. Greene	1959-73
Cline W. Borders	1973-91
Leland A. Kerr	1992-present

Interim Directors of Missions who have served are:

W.V. Tarlton	August 1, 1973 to October 31, 1973
Sam Snyder	May 1, 1991 to January 24, 1992

During the tenures of Rev. Ludlum and Rev. Bray, the association occupied an office in the First Baptist Church, Shelby. In 1949, the association voted to build a missionary home on Buffalo Street for the associational missionary. In 1959, the association voted that the missionary home be turned into an office building to provide space for the associational missionary, secretary, clerk/treasurer and to provide conference space for meetings. The home was sold in 1965 and the association rented office space in Shelby.

In April 1978, the association called Rev. Bob Davis as Church and Community Ministries Director. Rev. Davis served until August 1989 when he went on medical leave. Rev. Sam Snyder served as interim CCM Director from October 23, 1989 to September 30, 1990. In October 1990, the association called Rev. Charles Reed as the current CCM Director.

Additional staff and growing ministries led the association to build an associational complex on Wyke Road in Shelby. In 1981 a dedication service and open house was held.

Currently the association is made up of 77 member churches with a total church membership of 29,348.

HISTORY OF
WESTVIEW BAPTIST CHURCH

On Sunday afternoon, August 13, 1961, Westview Baptist Church was organized at a meeting in the new Graham School building. The members met the following Sunday with 74 present for Sunday School and 14 new members added during the worship service. For six months Rev. C.O. Greene and Dr. A.B. Wood served as supply pastors without pay. On October 8, Westview moved to the old Graham School building on Oak Street. By November 1, total membership was 105.

Rev. Forrest Teague became the church's first full-time pastor on February 18, 1962. For a couple of years the church moved back to the new Graham Schools and purchased five and one-half acres on Melody Lane in 1963. On February 7, 1965, the first service was held in the new building. During Rev. Teague's six years of ministry the membership grew to 364.

In June, 1968, the church called Rev. W.J. Yeaman, Jr. During his tenure Westview had it's largest Sunday School attendance ever - 354. Rev. T.W. Estes was called in July 1971. Under his leadership, a multi-purpose building was constructed. Rev. Jerry King began his ministry in 1976. During his tenure the church burned the note on the mortgage from the building projects.

Interim pastor, Roland Leath, who was called in January 1982 led the church in a "I Love Westview Day" drive to replenish the general fund resulting in the biggest single day gifts in our history, $11,811.70. In 1983 Westview voted to build a new sanctuary and five classrooms. Rev. Randy Godwin began in June 1983. The new building was dedicated on June 24, 1984.

Westview's present pastor, Rev. Jim Brackett, began his ministry in May, 1988. In October, 1988, Rev. Larry King was called as associate pastor. In March of 1989 the new building mortgage was retired. The present membership is 551.

HISTORY OF
PUTNAM MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Putnam Memorial Baptist Church was organized in October 1949, under the guidance of Rev. Lewis E. Ludlum. The first meeting place for the new congregation was a tent located on present day Earl Road. Nineteen members originally met to organize the church, but allowed ten others, over a six month period, to also be considered charter members.

Although the tent sheltered the congregation adequately for a few months, it soon became evident that a more durable structure was needed. A lot on County Home Road was purchased for that new structure. Soon a small building was erected and lovingly referred to as "the temporary building."

Rev. Lawrence Roberts served Putnam Memorial as it's first pastor, overseeing the gradual growth of the new congregation from tent to permanent building.

Under the Lord's guidance the church changed and grew in a wonderful way and larger structures were needed to accommodate that growth. In June 1952, "the temporary building" gave way to the north end of the present educational plant. The south end was added in January 1958. A pastorium was built and open house was held September 13, 1963. On March 1973, a sanctuary was built in the front center of the educational plant and dedicated to the Glory of God.

In July of 1983, God united the congregation in a special way making it possible for the church to purchase three and one half acres of badly needed land behind the building.

The sanctuary was renovated in 1988 and a gymnasium was built on the newly acquired land and dedication services were held for the two facilities in November of 1988.

Rev. Larry A. Morris serves as pastor, Rev. Terry D. Gold serves as director of music and media, and Rev. T. Bryan Glisson serves as director of education and youth. The current membership is 668.

They appreciate the emotional and prayer support which has been tremendous. She shared about their work in Japan and encouraged the association to pray for the upcoming Billy Graham Crusade to be held in Japan in January 1994.

18. Leland Kerr introduced our guest speaker, Dr. Sam James, who serves with the Foreign Mission Board as Vice-President for Europe, the Middle East and North Africa.
19. Dr. James rendered an inspirational message as he shared how he comes with a burden and the greatest sense of urgency he has every had regarding the world that has changed tremendously in the past 3 1/2 years. He longs for Southern Baptist to know what is being done on the mission field. He shared scripture from Matthew 9:35-39 and offered a challenge for those who would "step forward" into areas of eastern Europe to be "their" shepherd and live out the truth of the gospel among the people. He told of instances of what is currently happening in many of these areas such as Bulgaria, Albania, Yemen, etc. and what an urgency there is to get into these areas now. We have 200 Russian missionaries and had 30,000 baptisms last year in Russia. He shared about many things being done through the aid of Southern Baptists through their mission gifts.
20. Dr. James asked for an invitation hymn. Rev. Lawton Neely led the congregation in "Wherever He Leads" as persons responded to the leading of the Holy Spirit.
21. Rev. Gene Daggerhart, pastor of Ross Grove Church, pronounced the benediction.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON
OCTOBER 26, 1993

22. As messengers and visitors gathered at Putnam Memorial Church for the second session of our annual meeting, special music was provided by a string quartet: Leland Kerr, our director of missions, on the bass, Lawton Neely of Bethel Church, on the banjo, Mike McGee of Elizabeth Church, and Rod Mauney of Bethlehem Church on the guitars.
23. Moderator Russell Fitts called our session to order. Rev Larry Morris, pastor of Putnam Memorial, welcomed us to the host church and recognized Pauline Webber, a member at Putnam who attended the annual meeting in 1949 when Putnam was received into the association. Putnam was the last church to be received into the association without being under watchcare. Mrs. Webber has attended every annual meeting since 1949 with the exception of one. Rev. Larry King, associate pastor of Westview Church, accompanied by Rev. Doug Pedigo, minister of music/youth, Zoar Church, led the congregation in singing, "I Love Your Kingdom, Lord." Scripture was read from Colossians 1: 9-18 and prayer was led by Rev. Glenn Walker, pastor of Double Springs Church.
24. Rev. Charlie Cabaniss, minister of music at Christopher Road and chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the following nominations for 1993-94:

    Clerk-treasurer.....Ms. Recca Bingham

    There were no nominations from the floor. Rev. John Bridges, pastor of Grover First, motioned that we accept the nominations. Rev. Allan Barlow, pastor of Pleasant Grove, seconded the motion. The motion carried and the officers were elected.
25. Rev. Jim Brackett, pastor of Westview Church and vice-moderator, gave the Missions Committee report. He asked all to read the report and also asked that we make these concerns a part of our daily prayer life remembering what God would have us do as an association and as individuals. Rev. Brackett also presented the 1994 calendar. One change was made: the WMU Spring Meeting was moved from April 25 to May 10. Rev. Brackett motioned that we accept the calendar. The motion was seconded, voted on and approved.

The committee tried to include all, or as many as possible, of our churches and also tried to balance males and females and lay persons and clergy. Rev. Bridges moved to adoption of this report. Charlie Cabaniss seconded the motion. It was voted on and approved.
28. The Memorials committee report was presented by Rev. Dan Jolly. We lost 252 laypersons, 11 deacons, and 5 ministers, Marlow Stroup, Herman Thomas, Emmitt Myers, Bruce Wilson and Aaron Phipps. Rev. Jolly led a time of prayer in memory of these.

29. Ms. Recca Bingham, clerk-treasurer, gave the Executive Board report. She extended an invitation to everyone to attend the quarterly meetings of the board so that you may know what is going on in our association. Ms. Bingham also presented the 92-93 Treasurers report. No questions were asked about this report. It was voted on and approved.
30. The Sunday School report was given by Joe Collins, our Sunday School director. He noted that our ASSISTeam has received standard recognition from the State Convention for the past two years. With many training opportunities this past year, Calvary, Elizabeth and Poplar Springs have lead with the largest number of participants in these events.
31. Rev. Larry Burns, pastor of Faith, gave the Discipleship Training report. We are all called to be disciples and to make disciples. He moved the report be accepted. This was seconded, voted on and approved.
32. Enrollment cards were taken up by the ushers at this time.
33. Mrs. Doreen Wacaster, minister of music and youth at Flint Hill, led us in singing "The Church is One Foundation".
34. Rev. Jose Espinales, pastor of our Spanish mission, The Star of Bethlehem, gave his report. He thanked the individuals, churches, and the association for help in working with the mission this past year. A special "thanks" went to Polkville Church who donated a van to the mission. They now have 25 members with an average attendance of 13 each Sunday worship.
35. Dr. John Sloan, pastor at First Baptist in Kings Mountain, reported on the Laotian mission work. They have had no baptisms and no decisions YET but the work is continuing. Dr. Sloan asked us to pray daily for a spiritual awakening in the Laotian community of our county.
36. Moderator Russell Fitts asked that any new pastors or staff who were not here last night to please come forward and introduce themselves. These were: Peter West, minister of youth and singles at Shelby First, Mark King, pastor at Zoar, and David Jones, pastor at Crestview.
37. Joe Cabaniss, chairman of the Finance Committee, gave his report. He stated that the quarterly missions account receipts for 92-93 were $224,947.19. He presented the new January - December 1994 budget. The Personnel Committee had input on staff salary and benefits which had a 5% increase. Total budget increased 6 1/2 % over last year. The floor was opened for questions. There were none. Mr. Cabaniss moved the adoption of the budget. Rev. Dave Gordon seconded. It was voted on and approved.
38. Dr. Paul Sorrells, pastor of Beaver Dam, gave the Membership Committee report. The committee has been working with Crestview Church since their beginning on June 13, 1993. The church has already baptized 15. Dr. Sorrells recommended, on behalf of the Membership Committee, that Crestview be brought under the watchcare of the association. Mr. Harold Causby seconded the motion. It was voted on and approved.
39. The Historian report was given by Dr. Wyan Washburn. He highlighted several individuals from the Shelby group of churches who have been great leaders in Baptist life.

40. Director of Missions Leland Kerr welcomed Crestview Church into our association under watchcare status. He commended Rev. Jose Espinales, pastor of the Star of Bethlehem Spanish Mission, for his work in our community. Rev. Kerr also encouraged us to support the Habitat House that is being built for the Espinales family in any way that we can. Rev. Kerr also asked that churches "adopt" the missionary in residence by helping with rent of their house which is $500 per month.
41. Special music was presented by Rev. Terry Gold, his wife, Beth and Teresa Crawford, all of Putnam Memorial Church.
42. Rev. Leland Kerr gave his report. He has been our director of missions for 22 months now. Rev. Kerr asked everyone who had been on a mission trip of any kind this past year to raise their hand. Many hands were raised. Missions the most important part of our work as Christians. Rev. Jim Toole, church planter in the Boiling Springs area new work, was introduced. Rev. Toole thanked the churches that are helping with this effort: Beaver Dam, Boiling Springs, Christopher Road, Flint Hill and Poplar Springs. He encouraged anyone who wants to help, to please contact him. Rev. Kerr stated that now with Crestview under our watchcare that we have a total of 81 churches and missions in our association. This summer our association, in partnership with the Greater Rochester Baptist Association in New York, participated in a mission trip to New York where work was done with three area churches. Sixty-one people from our association went on this trip. Linda Ellis, Doreen Wacaster, Bryan Gordon and Jeannie Watson shared some of their experiences with us. Three decisions for Christ were made by persons in New York. Another trip is planned for July 8-16, 1994. Rev. Kerr expressed a burden for our churches who are struggling. The figures from our Uniform Church Letters for 1992-93 (with six churches not reporting) show decreases in many areas of our work. Sunday School enrollment and baptisms are down from last year but there is still hope if we give it to the Lord and pray and work. We must work together and make disciples. Isaiah 54: 2-4 gives us an effective plan for breakthrough. William Cary once said, "Attempt great things for God. Expect great things from God." Rev. Kerr encouraged us to step out on faith instead of being silent Christians. We have hope....in Jesus Christ!
43. Rev. Larry Morris, pastor of our host church, Putnam Memorial, gave directions and thanks for our evening meal.

TUESDAY EVENING
October 26, 1993

44. At 6:30 p.m. as messengers and visitors gathered for the evening session, a video was presented on how three churches reached out to bring "Hope to Hurting Humanity." After the video, Charles Reed, director of church and community ministries of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association, encouraged churches to do simultaneous crusades in the spring of 1994 with "Hope for Hurting Humanity" as their theme.

45. A most inspiring pre-session musical program was rendered by the Celebration Singers of Putnam Church. The singers were accompanied by taped music and the musical presentation was interspersed with displays of banners. A dramatic sketch on "I Don't Want to Fight You Any More" was presented by Norma Smith.
46. Vice-Moderator Jim Brackett, pastor of Westview Church, presided for the remainder of the session.
47. Rev. Bob Dills, minister of music, First Church Shelby, led the congregation in singing, "Rescue the Perishing."
48. Rev. Mark King, pastor of Zion Church, shared scripture from Psalm 46:10 and led in the opening prayer for this session.
49. Rev. Charles Reed, church and community ministries director, gave the CCM report. He shared with the group how the work of CCM began in our association with the calling, in March 1978, of Rev. Bob Davis as the first director. Rev. Reed asked Mr. A.B. Davidson to come forward to accept an appreciation plaque on behalf of Mr. Carlos Young who served our association over twenty years in the jail ministry. Mr. Young was unable to be present to accept the plaque. Due to health reasons he must resign from the jail ministry.
50. Rev. Ed Sessom, retired pastor and chairman of the Resolutions Committee, presented his report. The report included the dedication of the associational minutes to the memory of Rev. Aaron C. Phipps, Rev. Marlow Arthur Stroup, and Rev. Robert Bruce Wilson.
51. Rev. Ed Sessom chairman of Annuity Task Force spoke briefly concerning annuity for pastors and offered a challenge to the churches of the importance of taking care of their pastors for retirement.
52. Ms. Recca Bingham gave the attendance report. She reported a total of 345 for the day: 206 messengers and 28 non-messengers in attendance for the afternoon session and 85 messengers and 26 non-messengers for the evening session. This represented 65 of our churches.
53. Mrs. Ladell Shields, minister of music/education/youth, Beaver Dam Church, led the congregation in singing, "Come, We That Love the Lord."
54. Vice-Moderator Jim Brackett presented the 1993-94 Committee on Committees on behalf of Moderator Russell Fitts. Those who will serve are: Rev. Jeff Brendle, Elizabeth Church, chairman; Mrs. Frances Caveny, Bethany Church; Mr. Haskel Scism, Patterson Grove Church; Mrs. Vickie Wyatt, Poplar Springs Church; Rev. Alton Martin, Polkville Church; Mrs. Beth Heffner, Dover Church; and Mr. Hill Carpenter, Waco Church.
55. Special music for the evening was rendered by a men's quartet from Putnam Church.
56. Vice-Moderator Jim Brackett introduced Rev. Russell Fitts for presentation of the moderator's message.
57. Moderator Russell Fitts presented his message for the evening. He talked about "What do we Baptists Believe and Teach." He spent time reflecting back over his ministry and the things he believed. He shared scripture from Hosea 4:6, "My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge." He talked about various aspects of church: complaining, training, finances, family, the importance of a church following God's plan, forgiveness among Christians, how God can handle different ways of worship and doesn't forget anything about us but our sins.

58. Leland Kerr presented a plaque to Moderator Fitts for his two-year tenure as associational moderator. He expressed appreciation for the way Rev. Fitts has been available to help him since he came as director of missions as well as always having a "good word" for the people of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.
59. At this time the new associational officers were installed and a prayer of commitment given by Director of Missions Leland Kerr. The new officers are:
    * Moderator: Rev. Jim Brackett, pastor of Westview Church
    * Vice-Moderator: Mrs. Mary Lou Causby, Shelby First Church
    * Clerk/Treasurer: Ms. Recca Bingham, Elizabeth Church

    Rev. Kerr passed the gavel to our new moderator and asked the congregation to pledge their support of the new team of leaders by standing.
60. Moderator Jim Brackett asked for the prayers of Kings Mountain Baptist Association. He feels God wants to break through to his people in a mighty way but this will not happen without a lot of prayer. He asked that we pray for God to reveal His glory to His people.
61. Rev. Russell Fitts dismissed with prayer the 143rd annual session of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

NOTE: Committee and organizational reports from these proceedings may be found elsewhere in this volume.

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS REPORT

What a joy it is to serve as your director of missions. I enjoy this association so much and appreciate the opportunity you have given me to minister with you. I am glad God called me to this place of service. I appreciate our associational staff who are really my "family." We are blessed indeed to have such a caring, loving and qualified team in Charles, Margaret, Judy, and Diane. We serve as a team to assist you and your church.

As I travel from church to church in our association I see firsthand how gifted and unique our churches and church members are in their setting. I have had the opportunity during 1992-93 to do many things in our churches - preach, train pastor search committees, work with deacons, work with finance committees, preach revivals, entertain, interpret Southern Baptist work, lead Sunday School conferences, speak to missions organizations, work with youth and much, much more. I try to be in our churches as often as possible.

A new service to our churches is the "Great Commission Breakthrough" (GCB). This is a process of evaluation, internal study, applying demographic information, interviewing church members and key leaders, and setting priorities, goals and actions to enable a church to position itself to fulfill the Great Commission. A part of this process is a four-session Bible study centered around the Great Commission passage in Matthew 28. I have had the privilege to lead this process as a consultant in three of our churches - Lawndale, Pleasant Grove, and Westview. I have recently started the process with Poplar Springs Baptist Church, and three other churches are considering entering the process. You can contact our associational office for more details.

I think the GCB is an excellent tool to help a church grow. I envision at least ten churches per year involved in GCB. Some of our ASSISTeam members are trained GCB consultants. My work in this area affirms our need for a church development director to broaden our opportunities to assist churches "on mission in their setting." We hope to add this staff member in the next few months. The search committee is working diligently to fill the position.

We had the opportunity in July of this year to participate in our first project in partnership with the Greater Rochester Baptist Association in Rochester, New York. Sixty-eight youth and adults from twelve of our churches worked with three churches in the Rochester area July 9-17. We conducted Backyard Bible Clubs, led worship services, distributed church flyers, conducted door-to-door surveys and did some re-modeling of a church building. We plan to take another group July 8-16, 1994 so mark your calendar. We may also send an adult construction team in 1994. More details later.

During our annual meeting you will hear the report of the great work of our church and community ministries under the direction of Charles Reed. This part of our work is leading the way in our state and in our convention through timely and very creative approaches to meeting the needs of the 90's. Two workshops in particular reminded us of the needs around us that we as churches must address - "Ministry to the Chemically Dependent" and "When HIV/AIDS comes to Church." Charles continues to bring to our attention various needs that we must respond to and resources to meet those needs. Charles is part of a Regional HIV/AIDS Consortium and also chairs the HIV/AIDS Task Force of our Baptist State Convention.

I want to urge each of our churches to support the Bill Glass Crusade October 31 - November 7 at Gardner-Webb University. We need this crusade to remind ourselves and our community that we must be about the business of reaching the lost and making disciples. There is no more important task than this.

As we look toward a new year of opportunities for ministry in our association, let us do so with openness, obedience, and faith. Please call me if I can assist you and/or your church in any way.

"Making Disciples" with you,
Leland Kerr
Director of Missions

EXECUTIVE BOARD REPORT

The Executive Board at each of its meetings has a time of prayer for God's blessings on all endeavors of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association. We have indeed been blessed as we participate in the many activities which provide all of us opportunity to witness:

TO THOSE WHO ARE HUNGRY - WE HAVE FED THEM
TO THOSE WHO ARE THIRSTY - WE HAVE GIVEN THEM DRINK
TO THOSE WHO WERE WITHOUT CLOTHES - WE HAVE CLOTHED THEM
TO THOSE WHO WERE SICK - WE HAVE VISITED THEM
TO THOSE WHO WERE IN PRISON - WE HAVE GONE TO THEM

God entrusted us to minister to all of these and stated in His Word that if we did so we would inherit the kingdom which had been prepared for us.

The meetings held were:

JANUARY 18 - At Eastside, where Rev. Jose Espinales, pastor of Star of Bethlehem Mission, reported that his church had 45 in Sunday School and 35 in worship attendance the first Sunday of the new year. Also, at this meeting, a recommendation was made, approved and passed that we set a goal of $10,000.00 for Associational Missions Week, and that the offering be used for missions partnerships in Greater Rochester Baptist Association/New York, Brazil, Ukraine and in new church starts.

APRIL 19 - At Poplar Springs, where the recommendation was made, approved and passed that the time had come to request the search committee for the church development director to proceed with their assignment in faith. Leland Kerr called attention to many activities, expressing delight in the fact that approximately 65 people from 16-17 churches had attended the preparation meeting to participate in the Youth Mission Trip to New York. Charles Reed reported on the success of the many activities of the church and community ministries, expressing particular interest in the fact that almost 100 people had registered for the workshop on "When HIV/AIDS Comes to Church."

JULY 19 - At Macedonia, where Leland Kerr shared about the Youth Mission Trip to New York, reporting that 65 youth and adults from 12 churches in the association and three youth from other associations enjoyed the opportunity afforded by the trip and the ministries involved. In the absence of Charles Reed, Diane Davis reported for the church and community ministries, stating how much volunteers were appreciated and still needed in so many areas of the work of the association.

As members of the association, we are urged by all who work and serve on the Executive Board to first of all, lend our prayers, second to engage our energies for the goodness our hearts will feel when doing something for others, third to strengthen our minds by reading God's Word and taking into account the responsibilities He has given to us all because we are His children, and fourth, giving our money support when and where it's needed as often as we can.

Recca G. Bingham, clerk/treasurer

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

"As the Sunday School goes, so goes the church." I have been hearing this phrase for years, and become more and more convinced of it every year. The truth of this is the driving force behind the Kings Mountain Baptist Association's commitment to ASSIST work. ASSIST stands for Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team and is composed of volunteers from all over our association who give their time and many talents to help churches develop their Sunday Schools.

For the third year in a row, your ASSISTeam has received the recognition of Standard ASSIST from the Baptist Sunday School Board for its leadership in a variety of workshops, participation in training at the state level, and availability to the churches who need information and other help. Members of this year's ASSISTeam include Joe Collins, director; Jerry Welch, adult and small church director; Bridget Allen, Vacation Bible School director and youth director; Scott Norton, youth director; Mark Davis, children director; Linda Ellis, preschool director; and Robert Haynes, outreach/evangelism director. A host of others helped lead our Vacation Bible School clinics.

Workshops led by the ASSISTeam offered help in many areas of Sunday School work. On February 25, Bridget Allen led pastors and Vacation Bible School directors in a VBS Early Bird clinic to help them "get a jump" on the massive task of Vacation Bible School.

On April 5-6, Temple Baptist Church hosted the annual Spring outreach clinic. Forty-three participants represented eleven churches as they studied the new Ideas for Reaching People series.

On May 4 and 6, two Vacation Bible School clinics were held, one in the eastern part of the association, the other in the western.

On August 30-31, the ASSISTeam led our association in basic training and offered a variety of conferences from which experienced and inexperienced workers could benefit. Twenty-six churches were represented by ninety-six participants in the two night affair held at Calvary Baptist Church.

A few churches have stood out this year in their commitment to training on the associational level. Calvary led the way by involving nineteen different people in training. Poplar Springs involved fourteen, and Bethlehem involved twelve. May we learn from these churches the value of training to lead our churches to be all they should. There are too many lost people in our county for us to get stuck in the habit of doing Sunday School the way we always have.

Remember, as the Sunday School goes, so goes the church. There's a bright, new day coming for Sunday School. However, the day will go to those churches who have trained to be effective.

Respectfully submitted,
Joe Collins, ASSISTeam director

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING REPORT

Discipleship Training is certainly an appropriate name for the task we are all called - making disciples. Church leaders can rely on DiscipleALL to plan and administrate an effective disciple making church. New members can quickly be productive members with the expanded 13-session module "Discover the Meaning of Church Membership." Adults, youth and children can become better disciples in many ways: dated periodicals, computer networking, videos, audio cassettes, retreats, seminars, and workshops just to mention a few.

If we are to be obedient to Christ's command to "Make Disciples" a commitment to Discipleship Training is imperative. Thanks to all who are involved in making disciples on the day and time that is most effective for you.

Below is a summary of associational training events:

1. Children's Bible Drill
   67 participants from 12 churches
2. Youth Bible Drill
   5 participants from 1 church
3. "M" Night Piedmont, Kings Mountain won both High Attendance and High Percentage Awards and will host "M" Night this year.

Respectfully submitted,
Larry Burns

W M U REPORT

For the year 1992-93, our associational WMU enrollment was 3,825 which includes 311 organizations.

Our Annual Spring WMU Meeting was held April 20, 1993 at Elizabeth Church with 93 attending. The Annual Fall WMU Leadership Conference was a success at Elizabeth Church on September 14, 1993 with approximately 90 people present.

The MK International Banquet was held honoring the MK students at Gardner-Webb University on February 16, 1993. There are 48 MK students enrolled at Gardner-Webb. Fourteen of those were present for our banquet at Patterson Springs Church. Mrs. Evelyn Jackson and Mrs. Diane Costner were in charge of this event and did an excellent job.

Our Acteens held an Associational Acteen Home Mission Study at the associational office on April 17, 1993. Three churches were represented. This type of study is good for our smaller churches who are not able to have their own studies in their church. July 19-25, 1993, the Acteen Activators Team went to Beaufort, South Carolina on a mission trip. They conducted Backyard Bible Clubs and Vacation Bible Schools. This Activator Team of 10 girls and their leaders are from three of our churches: Christopher Road, Mount Sinai and Double Springs.

On December 5, 1992, GA's met at the associational office for a Foreign Mission Study. Nine churches participated.

MUSIC MINISTRY

Although I have not yet been elected as your Associational Music Director, I have assumed this position due to Brother Charlton Bozard's recent move to Columbia, South Carolina.

There are only two events which I will be reporting on this year. First, our Associational Youth Choir presented "Celebrate Life" on May 15 and 16, 1993 at Gardner-Webb's Dover Theater. We had some 15 churches involved in the presentation with nearly 150 young people in the choir. Approximately 400 attended the performances.

On September 27, 1993, Associational Music Workshops were held at Bethel Church. There were 39 people from 13 churches participating in this event. Classes were taught by eight different ministers of music from our association in keyboard, reading music, vocal techniques, copyright laws, handbells, choir promotions, and sound systems.

Each month the ministers of music get together for lunch and fellowship. We share ideas and make plans for upcoming events for our associational music ministries.

There are four events scheduled for 1994. These are as follows:

March 7	Choral Clinic
May 15-16	Associational Youth Choir Musical
September 26	Church Music Workshops
October 24	KMBA Ministers of Music Choir
	Sing & Ring at Annual Meeting

HISTORIANS REPORT

My report this year will deal mostly with the 14 churches in the SHELBY GROUP. These host churches are in the geographical center of the association, and have the most members of any of our six groups.

Following is a list of these churches with their dates of founding and their contribution to missions last year. Data for this year will be in the new minutes of this meeting.

MEMBERS	CHURCH	FOUNDED	TO MISSIONS
589	Zoar	1837	$36,863
1877	Shelby First	1847	272,716
703	Shelby Second	1908	41,877
915	Eastside,Shelby	1921	29,370
408	Dover	1924	27,572
1318	Bethel	1940	36,269
14	Highland	1942	0
660	Putnam	1949	22,754
195	Churchill Drive	1950	8,029
55	Peach Street	1954	4,360
202	Lily Memorial	1955	6,963
546	Westview	1961	74,124
190	New Jerusalem	1981	815
123	Christopher Rd.	1988	13,564
7795			$580,376

Names of these churches came from places, faces, roads, the Bible, heros, a sweetheart, an orchard and geography. Pure democracy and religion at its best, don't you think?

If Zoar is the second oldest church in the association, may it also be called the mother of these churches. Shelby First may then be called a daughter and the other churches, born in the 20th century, may be called granddaughters and great granddaughters. As the town and community of Shelby grew the need for new churches arose.

The late John R. Dover used to say he wanted a Baptist church in every area where he built a textile mill.

Gifts to missions from this group of churches has been outstanding. Members averaged $73 per person last year which exceeds the associational average of $69 and the state average of $54 per member per year. This does not include contributions to local expenses.

Zoar and Shelby First were among the 13 churches which in 1851 withdrew from the Broad River Association to help form the new Kings Mountain Baptist Association which now has 77 churches. This county seat area has provided much leadership to the State and to the South in government, in civic affairs and building churches.

At a meeting at Zoar on 1905 this association voted to start a school to train preachers and church workers to teach the Bible and basic education. This school, now Gardner-Webb University, has over 2,000 students and teaches a broad range of subjects and awards, doctoral as well as academic degrees.

Christopher Road with Rev. Mickey Heyward as pastor, is now at five years of age, well on its way to becoming fully self-supporting. A thrilling part of its baby-days has been thousands of hours worked by volunteers from other churches, and cash donations from many sources.

A brief look at the calendar tells us that our 150th anniversary the Sesqui-centennial year of 2001, is fast approaching. It is not too early to begin to plan how best to celebrate and observe this most historical event.

Our History Committee wishes to thank all the church clerks and historians for gathering data this year which will be reflected in the annual minutes of this body.

THE FOLLOWING IS THE ACTUAL HISTORIANS REPORT GIVEN AT THE ANNUAL MEETING.....

This year the fourteen churches in the Shelby area are hosts to the association. These churches and the Shelby community in the past 142 years have produced a number of Baptist GIANTS, so to speak in the association, for the State of North Carolina and the nation. These giants have appeared both in the old days and in recent years. I name a few.

John R. Logan and wife, Susan, were members at Zoar. He was a historian of high calibre and wrote a complete history of the Broad River and the Kings Mountain Baptist Associations from the year 1800 to around 1880. He was born in 1811 and died in 1884.

Thomas Dixon Sr. was the father of several famous men and women including A.C. Dixon, internationally known minister; Thomas Jr. author and playwright whose books on post-Civil War events were the subjects of movies, stage dramas and pageants; Frank, governor of Alabama; Delia Dixon Carroll, first woman physician of the State of North Carolina and resident physician at Meredith College. Elder Dixon was pastor of several churches in this area and was for 54 years pastor at New Prospect, the longest tenure of record in the association. He lived on South Washington Street in Shelby.

The Durham family had several giants. Two ministers were Charles and Columbus, the latter at one time was executive secretary of the NC Baptist State Convention. Charles C. was clerk of superior court; Crawford and J.N. were at separate times mayor of the City of Shelby; Dr.L.N. was a dentist; W.C. was an editor; Robert Lee was president of a seminary for women and Captain Plato Durham was wounded several times as captain of a company in the Civil War. A marker near the court square in Shelby tells his story.

L.C. Ezell, L.M. Berry, D.L. Stough and G.P. Hamrick were all pastors of the Shelby First Church. Stough was a native of Germany, but became a loyal American.

Joseph Suttle was pastor at Double Springs when the association was organized there in 1851. He was grandfather to our better known Brother John Suttle, who was moderator of the association for 40 years.

In more recent times some of our "giants" have included Dr. Zeno Wall, pastor of Shelby First for 25 years, president of the State Convention four times, a record; president of Gardner-Webb College, now a university, and author of a number of books of sermons. His music minister, Horace Easom, a layman, was almost as well known in the state.

O. Max Gardner, Tarheel governor and U.S. Ambassador to the Court of St. James in Britain, taught a large Sunday School at First Church. His wife, Faye Webb Gardner, was widely acclaimed as a hostess both in Raleigh and Washington. She was a trustee at Gardner-Webb, founder of the Shelby Womans Club, mother and grandmother to Baptists who continue to bear the name well.

Ray E. Brown, son of a South Shelby minister, noted hospital and health care administrator in Shelby, Winston-Salem, and Chicago, was another giant.

C.O. Greene, rural minister, was the first director of missions for the Kings Mountain Association, and the best known clock maker and wood craftsman in this part of the state. The one thing he does better than woodcrafting is preaching.

Cline W. Borders followed C.O. Greene as director of missions and led the association in many areas of enlargement and service. Joe E. Cabaniss and Lawrence Roberts both served long terms as clerk-treasurer for our association. Carlos Young has been very active with the brotherhood and in the Baptist Hospitals and Homes for the Aged.

John Roberts of the Elizabeth Church is editor of the Baptist Courier of South Carolina and is a past president of the South Carolina Baptist Convention.

Last, but certainly not least, is Dr. Gene Watterson, pastor of First Baptist in Shelby. He is the shepherd of the largest flock in our midst, and was president of the Baptist State Convention twice.

In may sound odd to include women as giants, but by any measure , Mrs. Mae Cline Stroupe qualifies. In her lifetime, she gave away close to a million dollars to many charities....Baptist schools, Baptist hospitals. Her name is on two large buildings at Gardner-Webb and Mars Hill Universities.

I salute the GIANTS and the giant tasks they made look so easy.

W. Wyan Washburn, Historian

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE REPORT

While participating and liaising with the Sunday School organization of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association in recognition that this is the primary arm of evangelistic outreach for our churches, your Evangelism Committee has given primary attention to the upcoming Bill Glass Area Crusade for Christ. This event is to occur nightly on Sunday, October 31 - November 7. An effective organization has been constructed that reaches across denominational lines but finds its greatest strength in the Baptist churches of Cleveland and Rutherford County. There have been Spiritual Preparation Rallies which have met for eight weeks in various locations for the purpose of trainingp witnesses and counselors and to build cohesion of fellowship and prayer support.

A primary focus has been to build a network of prayer for revival in our individual churches in recognition of the fact that God does not birth spiritual babes in unwholesome atmospheres. The prayer has focused on revival of the clergy, deacon bodies, and officers, teachers and leaders of the Sunday School and the mission organizations. Prayer for revival in a general sense among the entire congregations of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association has been constantly offered. Our people are urged to use II Chronicles 7:14, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land," as a path to follow personally, to experience individual revival, and to know the work of our Heavenly Father in our midst.

Dr. Gene Watterson, chairman

ORDINATION COMMITTEE REPORT

What a blessing it has been to serve on the Ordination Committee of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association. God is still calling, young people are responding, and churches are ordaining.

Our committee was requested to examine the following individuals for ordination to the gospel ministry by the following churches:

Bobby Herndon, Eastside KM
Michael Chambers, Second KM
Thomas Bryan Glisson, Putnam Memorial
Dennis Wells, Second KM

We are grateful to have been invited by these great churches to participate in the lives of these people and their ministries. Special thanks to the members of the Ordination Committee who served so faithfully: J.H. Black, C.A. Kirby, Bill Roberson, and Homer Starnes.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard Plyler, Chairman

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

Be it resolved that we, the messengers of the 143rd annual meeting of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association:

1. Express our appreciation to our Moderator Rev. Russell Fitts and our Vice-moderator Rev. Jim Brackett for their effective leadership, to our Clerk-treasurer Ms. Recca Bingham for accurately managing and reporting our finances, and to Margaret Lipscomb and Judy Franks for their often thankless work of recording the proceedings.

2. Commend those who served on the Order of Business Committee: Chairman Rev. Keith Dixon, Rev. Don McSwain, Rev. Russell Fitts, Rev. Jim Brackett, Rev. Larry Morris, Ms. Recca Bingham, and Rev. H. Lawton Neely.

3. Express our appreciation to the host churches, Westview Baptist and Putnam Memorial Baptist, and to all who have made us feel so comfortable and welcome.

4. Express deep gratitude to the churches of the Shelby group: Bethel, Christopher Road, Churchill Drive, Dover, Eastside, Highland, Lily Memorial, New Jerusalem, Peach Street, Putnam Memorial, Shelby First, Shelby Second, Westview and Zoar for the very fine meal and the tireless efforts of the faithful workers who made it so meaningful.

5. Encourage each church of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association, to seek God's Will in carrying an effective ministry into the world that will win the lost, heal the hurts, comfort the grieving and even draw us closer to the truth of God.

6. Urge all Christian citizens to be aware of the current crisis in the criminal justice system and to prayerfully seek God's guidance in finding solutions to the release of thousands of criminals into our communities in North Carolina each year.

7. Dedicate the 1993 minutes of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association to the loving memory of Rev. Aaron C. Phipps, Rev. Marlow Arthur Stroup and Rev. Robert Bruce Wilson.

Respectfully Submitted,
Jerry Welch, Marion Adams
Ed Sessom, Chairman

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE REPORT

The Membership Committee is charged with the responsibility of working with churches and missions which desire membership in the association. This year, the committee has been working with Crestview Baptist Church on Old Boiling Springs Road.

Through its chairman, the committee has been in constant contact with this church since its beginning on June 13, 1993. Leadership of the association met with representatives of the church on September 1. Then, on September 26, the Membership Committee and association moderator met with several members of the church at their meeting place. The church is meeting in the facilities of EO Corporation and has plans to construct a building at the intersection of NC 150 and Old Boiling Springs Road. The church has 127 members and is averaging 160 in attendance. Offerings are averaging $1600 weekly. On October 3, the church called Rev. David Jones as pastor. The church has baptized 15 since its organization.

The membership has committed itself to cooperate with other association churches and to support the association and its programs.

The Membership Committee believes that Crestview Baptist Church has met all the constitutional requirements of the association for watchcare status and recommends that the church be received under the watchcare of the association.

MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

Since our last gathering at the 142nd annual session of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association, the Lord has called to their heavenly home many from our presence. Each of these will be missed in this earthly pilgrimage by friends, family, and church fellowships that they served faithfully. But let us rejoice that they experience that glorious reality, "to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord."

As Paul shared with the saints in Thessalonica and with us through the printed Word, that in the precious moments of memory and memorial we are "not to grieve as those who have no hope." Our joy and rejoicing with the angels is that God's children have reached home and heaven is dearer to us because of their presence there. May the faith and faithfulness of those who knew Christ as Savior and Lord, served Him faithfully, walked amongst us, and have now preceded us into the glorious presence of our Lord, challenge us to "press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." May it be with a fervency and commitment second to none!

Let us praise our Heavenly Father for the "footprints" that these have left in the "sands of time." May they lead us to a greater and more perfect obedience to Our Heavenly Father's will for His people and the leading of the masses of the unsaved to Christ. As it was spoken by Brother C.O. Greene several years ago I echo it today, "Many of us are better persons because we walked in their footsteps." I share with you a challenge from the pen of William Wadsworth Longfellow:

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime.
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sand of time.

Footprints, that perhaps another
Sailing o'er life's solemn main
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother
Seeing, shall take heart again."

May we accept the "torch" from those who have faithfully run the race of life and hold it high that those who "follow in our train" may be challenged to "fight the good fight, to keep the faith and finish the course" for the glory of God. May we bow our heads in gratitude for these whose lives have challenged us!

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMITTEE REPORT

The Christian life is lived out in the home, work place, school, and everyday activities more than at Sunday School and worship. This is only sensible since we spend most of our time at home, work, and at business affairs.

Since we are all so busy doing the work of living out the Christian life, it is good to have someone or some group to make us aware of current events affecting our Christian life style. For instance, how aware are we right now of the "Lottery Agenda" being discussed in our N.C. Legislature?

Our associational and church Christian Life Committees can help us to keep current. We are hard at work trying to channel information about Christian living to our church members. I hope that we have reached most of you this year with at least some information on current issues.

If you don't have a Christian Life Committee in your church please consider forming one this year.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Jerry Rumfelt, chairman

MISSIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

The focus of your Missions Committee during 1993 has been upon enlarging the tent of our outreach and ministry while strengthening the foundations upon which all our ministries rest. We have a strong biblical basis for choosing our priorities. Isaiah 54:2, "ENLARGE THE PLACE OF YOUR TENT, STRETCH YOUR TENT CURTAINS WIDE, DO NOT HOLD BACK; LENGTHEN YOUR CORDS, STRENGTHEN YOUR STAKES." (NIV)

The members of the Missions Committee this year are: your vice-moderator as chairman and the following key leaders of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association; Russell Fitts, Leland Kerr, Charles Reed, Recca Bingham, Joe Cabaniss, Joe Collins, Dave Gordon, Harold Wright, Frances Cline, Charlton Bozard, Ron Caulder and Harold Ellis. We have met five times during our associational year.

In our effort to enlarge our ministry we determined early to work to secure two missionary families to be in residence in our association so that more of our churches will have first hand experience with our missionaries. We thank God for blessing our efforts.

In mid-July Dennis and Debbie Connell and their two sons, Clay & Phillip, moved into the lovely home provided by the gracious folks at Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church. Our associational WMU and many individuals assisted in the transition from Japan by the Connells. Dr. Bob Lamb of Gardner-Webb University was especially helpful in this endeavor. The Connells are now available and eager to get better acquainted with you, give them a call and put a friendly face on the term missionary.

We are excited about the arrival of our second missionary family in December. Jack and Kathy Ollis will be arriving from Singapore where they have served with Cooperative Service International, which is a new area of service of the Foreign Mission Board. Jack and Kathy have masters degrees in teaching science, chemistry and physics. They have three children, Jennifer, James and Mary. We look forward with great joy to their arrival and ministry in our association. They will live in the Sarratt home in Earl.

We have and are reaching out in other areas as well such as the great beginning this summer in our New York Partnership in the Greater Rochester Association - thanks to everyone who made this a great beginning - especially to Leland Kerr for all he did in this ministry.

We look forward to further development in our Ukrain Partnership coordinated by the Baptist Men's Department of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. We also encourage you to mark your calendar for the 1995 World Missions Conference to be held September 24-27, 1995.

In addition to all the above, we as a Missions Committee have diligently sought to strengthen, encourage and nurture churches and individuals on a local level within our own Kings Mountain Baptist Association. If we have overlooked you and your needs, please forgive us and call on us. We are committed to standing with you as you seek to fulfill God's high calling in your place of service.

Respectfully submitted,
Jim C. Brackett, chairman

STAR OF BETHLEHEM HISPANIC MISSION REPORT

This year has been a blessing in our work for God. His word says: "If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple" (Luke 14:26).

All my free time I spend on families who do not know about Jesus. Many families have been helped with housing, lights, food, and clothes through our mission with the help of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

During the first three months of 1993, many families lost their jobs. This caused them to move to Lincolnton, Forest City, Charlotte, Durham, Raleigh, Miami, and Mexico. We still keep in touch with these families and some of them come to church every fifteen days.

In January 1993 we started Bible studies every Wednesday with a forty percent attendance. We also have services on Monday and Saturday for the people who have been sick and could not come to church on Sunday. We continue to teach Spanish on Saturday at my house from 6-8 p.m. (These classes are free).

This year was a successful one with the migrant workers. We had twenty-seven accept Jesus as personal Savior, two were baptized, three were reconciled and two children were dedicated to God.

We received a van from Polkville Baptist Church. We are very thankful for their generosity. We also want to thank Leland Kerr, Charles Reed and the associational staff for their help.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Jose Espinales, pastor

LAOTIAN MISSION REPORT

In June, 1992, the Kings Mountain Baptist Association and the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina joined with the York Baptist Association and the Baptist State Convention of South Carolina in a mission effort to reach the Laotian people with the gospel of Jesus Christ. This mission effort focused on the Laotian communities in and around Clover, South Carolina and Kings Mountain, North Carolina.

Steve Seripap has directed the work with the advice and assistance of retired missionary to Thailand, Rev. Judson Lennon. Steve has attempted to minister to two communities of Laotians - one meeting in Clover and the other in Kings Mountain. Steve would meet on Sundays for a month in our community and then meet on Sundays the next month in the other community. The work was progressing slowly, if at all. With advice from Rev. Lennon and in consultation with leaders in Clover and Kings Mountain, some changes are felt to be necessary.

Beginning in January, 1994, Steve will focus his work exclusively on the Laotian community in the Kings Mountain area. Sunday School will be taught by Steve, followed by a worship service in space provided by First Baptist Church, Kings Mountain. This change will enable Steve to spend all his visitation time in the one community. Of course, the change will result in a loss of financial support from the Baptist State Convention of South Carolina and the York Baptist Association.

Please pray for Steve Seripap to find permanent employment. Pray for the spiritual growth and development of the few Laotian believers. Pray for the penetration of the gospel in and through the Laotian community.

Respectfully submitted,
Dr. John "Chip" Sloan

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE KINGS MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

On November 7, 1851 the following churches from the Broad River Baptist Association met at Double Springs Baptist Church for the purpose of organizing a new association: Beaver Dam, Bethel, Boiling Springs, Broad River, Buffalo, Double Springs, Mt. Pleasant, Mt. Sinai, New Bethel, Pleasant Hill, Sandy Run, Zion, and Zoar.

The need for a new association resulted from geographical conditions. The boundary of the Broad River Association was so extensive that delegates were unable to attend the annual sessions due to swollen rivers and streams.

The name "Kings Mountain Association" was chosen because its boundary included the Kings Mountain battleground, a monument to be remembered by every patriot and lover of religious liberty.

In 1903, the association appointed a committee to establish and endow a denomination high school. In 1905, Boiling Springs was chosen as the most suitable site by a 15-member Board of Trustees. The Sandy Run Association was invited to join the Kings Mountain Association in establishing the school. In 1906, efforts and plans were begun to raise money for the school and in 1907, the first building was erected. The school opened on October 1, 1907 with 135 students. The first principal was Professor J.D. Huggins. The school later became known as Gardner-Webb College.

Directors of Missions who have served the association are:

Lewis E. Ludlum	1946-50
Tom W. Bray	1950-59
C.O. Greene	1959-73
Cline W. Borders	1973-91
Leland A. Kerr	1992-present

Interim Directors of Missions who have served are:

W.V. Tarlton	August 1, 1973 to October 31, 1973
Sam Snyder	May 1, 1991 to January 24, 1992

During the tenures of Rev. Ludlum and Rev. Bray, the association occupied an office in the First Baptist Church, Shelby. In 1949, the association voted to build a missionary home on Buffalo Street for the associational missionary. In 1959, the association voted that the missionary home be turned into an office building to provide space for the associational missionary, secretary, clerk/treasurer and to provide conference space for meetings. The home was sold in 1965 and the association rented office space in Shelby.

In April 1978, the association called Rev. Bob Davis as Church and Community Ministries Director. Rev. Davis served until August 1989 when he went on medical leave. Rev. Sam Snyder served as interim CCM Director from October 23, 1989 to September 30, 1990. In October 1990, the association called Rev. Charles Reed as the current CCM Director.

Additional staff and growing ministries led the association to build an associational complex on Wyke Road in Shelby. In 1981 a dedication service and open house was held.

Currently the association is made up of 77 member churches, one watch care church, two missions with a total church membership of 29,595.

HISTORY OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, GROVER

When Grover's First Baptist Church was organized November 23, 1878, it served the little town then know as Whitaker, SC, straddling the North and South Carolina state line.

The town post office was in South Carolina and the church with 62 charter members, was in North Carolina. Its first name was State Line Baptist Church. In 1886 the post office was moved into North Carolina, and the town was incorporated as Grover. The church changed its name, also, to Grover Baptist Church. In 1948, it assumed its present name, First Baptist.

In 1907 John A. Ellis gave the land on the corner of Cleveland Avenue and Linden Street to build a new sanctuary. In 1945 the sanctuary was remodeled.

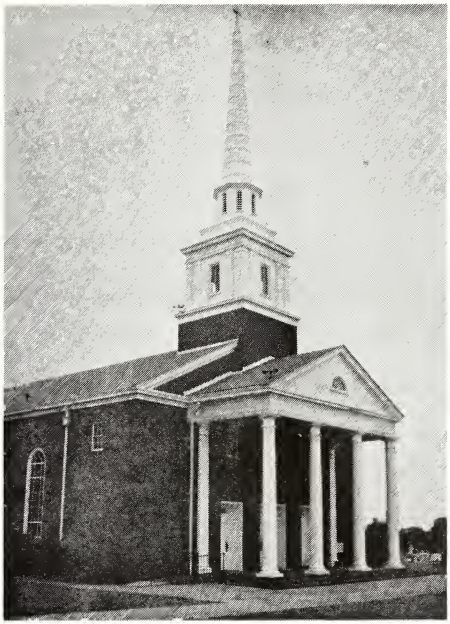
In 1922 the parsonage across the street was erected to accommodate large families. In 1959 a new parsonage was built at the corner of Maple and Linden and the old one was then rented. Then in August 1990 a third parsonage was dedicated on Timberland Drive having sold parsonage number two.

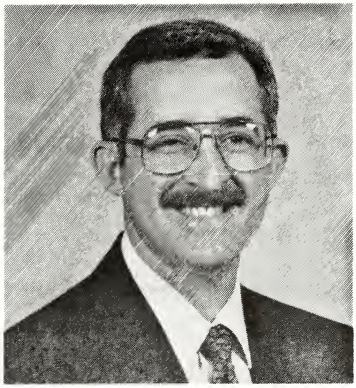
In 1955 a new educational building was constructed. It included 25 assembly and class rooms, an office, pastor's study, restrooms, kitchen and large dining-recreational room. In 1987 the kitchen was completely remodeled and partial renovation to the dining-recreational hall.

On May 18, 1969 the groundbreaking of our present sanctuary took place and on May 10, 1970 we walked down the street from the old sanctuary into the new. The old sanctuary was demolished leaving the old educational building attached to the new sanctuary.

On May 8, 1994 the newly decorated sanctuary and baptistry were dedicated to the glory of God and for His worship.

Rev. John Bridges serves as the present pastor. Current membership is 348.





HISTORY OF PATTERSON SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH

The Patterson Station Baptist Church, which is now the Patterson Springs Baptist Church, was organized on October 18, 1895, at the old Ellis School house. The organization was begun as a mission under the direction of Elizabeth Baptist Church, and met in a brush arbor. The 35 charter members brought their membership from New Hope, Pleasant Hill, and Elizabeth. Services were held once a month, led by the first pastor, P.R. Elam.

The first church building was constructed about 1897, the second in 1923, and the present 1968. The education building was constructed in 1956-57, and a Christian Fellowship Growth Center in 1986. The CFGC building includes a kitchen, Sunday School rooms, meeting space, fellowship and recreation areas, and a full basement.

The pastoral leadership during the first 55 years of the church was quarter-time and half-time. The first full-time pastor, W.T. Roberson, was called in 1951 and a parsonage was built that same year.

In 1992 the church began a debt-reduction plan for their Christian Fellowship Growth Center. A goal of $20,000 was set and a total in excess of $28,000 was given.

God has truly blessed Patterson Springs Church in her 99 years. Many souls have been born into the Kingdom of God as the Lord has worked through the local fellowship. Our prayer is that God would continue to use our church to reach this community with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Rev. Steve Waters serves as pastor, Rev. Dale Clark serves as minister of music youth and Mrs. Brenda Champion serves as secretary. The current membership is 597.

CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

We, the members of Missionary Baptist Churches in the County of Cleveland, State of North Carolina, and territory adjacent, do hereby propose to establish and maintain the principles and rules of order of a district Association in conformity to the following plan:

ARTICLE I NAME

B. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Kings Mountain Baptist Association shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law.

C. Upon the dissolution of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Association is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: The Association shall be composed of cooperating Baptist churches in the area of the Association.

Section 2: Churches desiring membership in the Association shall apply to the Membership Committee. Application should include:

(1) Formal action by the group seeking admission reflecting that seventy-five percent (75%) of those voting expresses their intent to cooperate.

(2) A written statement reflecting their beliefs and practices.
(3) A written statement that expresses their intent to cooperate.
(4) A willingness to meet with the Membership Committee to discuss other items of mutual interest to both parties.

The Membership Committee should be sensitive to groups seeking its services and be willing to present a statement of Baptist belief and practice and what it means to cooperate with the churches in the Association in a world-wide mission program. If recommended by this committee and accepted by the Association, a mission or a church shall agree to come under the watchcare of the Association for a minimum of one (1) year. Membership within the Association shall be determined by vote of the Association at its annual meeting. Churches under the watchcare shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Association except their members shall not hold office nor vote.

Section 3: The Association shall be the sole judge of its membership and may receive churches, or reject churches, according to its Constitution and By-Laws. Member churches may also withdraw as they desire, and if requested, the Associational Executive Board may grant letters of recommendation to other like associations.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON
OCTOBER 25, 1994

20. As messengers and visitors gathered at Patterson Springs Baptist Church for the second session of our annual meeting, special music was presented by the choir of Patterson Springs Church under the direction of Rev. Dale Clark, their minister of music and youth. Mrs. Randy Carothers accompanied on the piano and Mrs. Lisa Barnes on the organ.
21. Moderator Jim Brackett asked everyone to fill out an enrollment card and the ushers collected them. Rev. Steve Waters, pastor of our host church, Patterson Springs, welcomed us. Mrs. LaDell Shields, minister of music youth at Beaver Dam, led the congregation in singing, "Rescue the Perishing," for the opening hymn of this session. Rev. Olin Byrum, pastor of Kings Mountain Church, read scripture from Acts 5:17-29. Mr. Tom Beam, minister of youth children at Boiling Springs Church, led the opening prayer.
22. Rev. Charlie Cabaniss, chairman of the Nominating Committee and minister of music youth at Christopher Road, presented the following nominations for 1994-95:

Moderator	Rev. Jim Brackett
Vice-moderator	Mrs. Mary Lou Causby
Clerk-treasurer	Mrs. Recca Bingham
Brotherhood Director	Mr. Richard Stroup

Baptist Mens Director ..... Rev. Ervin Price
Asst. RA Director ..... Mr. Roger Harris

There were no nominations from the floor. These were voted on and approved.

23. Vice-moderator Mary Lou Causby presented the Missions Committee report. The Mission Committee responsibility is to assist in strengthening existing churches and help form new churches. Romans 10:13 should encourage us as we try to do this. Several mission efforts have taken place this year with great results. The Habitat House was completed in 1994 for the Rev. Jose Espinales and his family. Christ Covenant Church was launched in January 1994 with 106 in attendance. We continue to sponsor our Missionary-in-residence program. Elizabeth Church gave us the use of their parsonage for the housing of missionaries. A sub-committee worked hard to furnish the house and get it ready for the first missionaries. This committee was: Chairman Mary Lou Causby, Mona Scism, Frances Cline, Delores Hamrick, and Recca Bingham. Our associational outreach ministry continued with the New York Mission Trip with 160 youth and adults going to Rochester in July 1994.
24. Rev. Ron Caulder, pastor of Oak Grove Church, gave a presentation on behalf of Campbell University. Campbell has a 1994 enrollment of 6,400 making it the third largest of the 53 SBC universities.
25. Mr. Charles Mack, chairman of the Constitution Committee, presented the recommendation for the changes concerning the CDD Director, Seminary Extension, Senter Scholarship and Article II Purpose. There was no discussion. These changes were voted on and approved.
26. The Committee on Committees report was given by Rev. Jeff Brendle, pastor of Elizabeth Church. He thanked the committee, Leland Kerr and Jim Brackett for all their work in securing workers to fill these position for the coming year. Rev. Brendle moved the adoption of this report. One correction was made: Student Ministry Committee: Alice Cullinan changed from Boiling Springs Church to Beaver Dam Church. The report was voted on and approved.
27. Rev. Dan Jolly gave the Memorials Committee report. We lost a total of 264 persons this year which included 3 pastors, Rev. Ben Davis, Rev. Carl Miller, and Rev. J.D. Wyatt. Rev. Jolly led a prayer in memory of these.
28. The Executive Committee report was given by Clerk-treasurer Recca Bingham. She reported that the Habitat House project was completed and was much appreciated by Rev. Jose Espinales and his family. The New York Mission trip was one of the great outreach opportunities for our association. The Missionary-in-Residence project is also an asset to our association. Ms. Bingham then presented the January-September 1994 Treasurer report and asked for any questions. There was none. The report was approved by the association.
29. Rev. Steve Zimmerman, minister of education at First Baptist, Shelby, and associational Sunday School director, gave his report. He stated that the ASSISTeam is here to help and encourage the churches in all aspects of Sunday School work. He introduced the ASSISTeam and thanked them for their dedication. One of the main needs of a growing and effective Sunday School is the support of the pastor. Rev. Zimmerman challenged each Sunday school to grow and to "go outside the lines" to reach prospects.
30. Rev. Glenn Walker, pastor of Double Springs Church and the associational Discipleship Training director, gave his report. He expressed thanks to Rev. Larry Burns, pastor at Faith, who served as DT director for the first half of this year. Rev. Walker mentioned that there are some great new materials available for discipleship training. We have been baptizing people but fail to "disciple" them. Discipleship Training will help us learn how to become great Christians.

31. Moderator Jim Brackett asked that since we were ahead of schedule that we might have any announcements at this time. Rev. Rick Hamrick, minister of education youth at Polkville, and chairman of the Associational Youth Committee, gave these dates and events: January 7, 1995: Youth Witness Training for Here's Hope, February 3-4, 1995: Associational Youth Retreat at Ridgecrest, March 17-18, 1995: Rescue '95. Rev. Peter West moved that we adopt the whole 1995 associational calendar. Rev. Keith Dixon seconded and it was adopted. Rev. Jim Brackett encouraged those present to get involved with the 1995 Cleveland County March for Jesus and Promise Keepers, a nationwide project for Christian men.
32. Rev. Bob Dills, minister of music at First Baptist, Shelby, led the congregation in singing, "Jesus Saves."
33. Vice-moderator Mary Lou Causby recognized Joe Cabaniss, chairman of our Finance Committee. Mr. Cabaniss expressed gratitude to our churches for their support for local, home and foreign missions. He also thanked all committee chairmen who submitted recommendations for the 1995 budget. In 1994, $81,000 per quarter was needed to meet our budget. In 1995, $88,000 per quarter will be needed. He moved the adoption of the new budget and it was approved.
34. On behalf of the Membership Committee, Rev. Russell Fitts, recommended that Crestview Baptist Church come into full fellowship with our association and that Christ Covenant Church come under watchcare. Peter West seconded this. It was voted on and approved. Afterwards, about 10 members of Crestview came to the front to be formally welcomed by Director of Missions Leland Kerr.
35. Dr. Wyan Washburn, associational historian, reported that this had been an "anniversary year" for ten of our churches. Double Springs was the oldest of these being 150 years old.
36. Rev. Dale Clark sang a solo backed up by the choir of Patterson Springs Church.
37. Director of Missions Leland Kerr asked that everyone who had any part in the work of the association to stand and be recognized. He expressed thanks to them for all they do for the association. He introduced our new Church Development Director Bonnie Doughtie. She began her work with us on July 1st. Ms. Doughtie came forward to give her report. She and Steve Zimmerman, association Sunday School Director, presented a skit on revitalizing a church through CPR (Challenging People to Renew) which is coming in August of 1995. Certificates were presented to all ASSISTeam members for their work in the past year. A curriculum resource center is being set up in the library at the associational office. The singles ministry is being geared up again with each church asked to assign one person to be the singles representative. Ms. Doughtie thanked the association for the opportunity of being a part of the New York Mission trip this year.
38. Rev. Charles Reed, Church and Community Ministries director, gave his report. He stated that he was not in attendance at the Monday night meeting because he was at an awards banquet at the Red Cross accepting the Good Neighbor Award on behalf of the North Carolina Baptist Men and the Kings Mountain Baptist Association for their work after the Palm Sunday tornado. Church and Community Ministries have had a very busy year. Many volunteers make this work possible. The Annual Christmas Toy Store is coming up soon. Toys and volunteers are needed for all aspects of this ministry. Rev.Reed thanked everyone for the financial support to the ministry. We have applied for the 501 (C) 3 status in order to continue receiving Duke Power Foundation monies and others. On November 1st, Mrs. Teresa Davis will begin her duties with us as Church and Community Ministries secretary

39. Our Director of Missions Leland Kerr gave his annual report. He thanked the churches for their continued financial support to the association. He presented challenges for some of our new ministries and some of our continuing ministries. The Star of Bethlehem Hispanic Mission needs a place to worship since they are outgrowing their space at Christopher Road Church. The Macedonian Call Project is still needed to help small churches with assistance from a larger church. We need to start mission endowments to help new churches. Our continued partnership with the Greater Rochester Association in New York is a great opportunity for missions outreach. Our foreign missions effort with Rwanda and the Ukraine needs to continue. Scholarships for those being called into the ministry are a vital need. We also need to assist our retired pastors and staff who are living with insufficient funding. Another new ministry might be Share Teams such as Personal Witness Teams, People Search Teams, Youth Evangelism Teams, and Telephone Outreach Teams. We do not need to keep our circles so tight that we fail to reach out to those in need. We can make a recommitment through the 1995 Here's Hope effort.
40. Rev. Larry Morris, pastor of Putnam Memorial, presented Flint Hill and Sandy Plains as our meeting places for 1995.
41. Rev. Steve Waters, pastor of our host church, Patterson Springs, gave directions and thanks for our evening meal.

He congratulated Patterson Springs, our host church, for leading the association in baptisms this year. DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS REPORT

The annual meeting is an important time in the life of the association. It serves multiple purposes for those of us who gather to represent our 80 churches and missions. We come to hear reports, challenges and inspirational messages. We come to fellowship with fellow Baptists, renew acquaintances, and make new friends. We come to reflect on the good things happening throughout our association. We should also come with an openness to be renewed as believers. I want to comment on these areas: REPORTS, REFLECTION AND RENEWAL.

REPORTS:

The reports contained within the Book of Reports represents many hours of diligent work on the part of our committees, organizations, associational leaders and associational office staff. We are truly blessed to have workers in these areas who work so hard on behalf of the association. We could not do what we do without the hundreds who volunteer their time and energy. We could not have an effective annual meeting without the support of our associational office staff. Please use these reports to inform your churches about the many ministries of our association. We need you, the messengers, to tell the story of Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

REFLECTION:

We have so much to reflect on from our associational year since last year's annual meeting. I want to summarize a few of these events:

November - The Bill Glass Area-Wide Crusade was held right after annual meeting last year. During the crusade a total of 385 decisions were made for Christ which included professions of faith, rededications, and full-time Christian vocation commitments.

January - Christ Covenant Church in Boiling Springs was launched. Five churches in the Boiling Springs area co-sponsored this start and Dr. Jim Toole was called as pastor.

April - Our second annual Associational Easter Sunrise Service was held at Cleveland Community College Amphitheater. Over 200 participated in this service. We will do it again in 1995.

May - After 3 1 2 years of planning, praying and searching, the association called its first Church Development Director, Bonnie Doughtie. Bonnie joined the staff of Kings Mountain Baptist Association after serving as minister of education at Boiling Springs Baptist for nearly 11 years. We are blessed to have her on our staff.

June - The APOSTOLOI team arrived. This team of four students representing the Baptist State Convention's Student Ministry Department served us well. They served in 16 of our churches during the summer and participated in the Associational Youth Mission Trip to New York.

July - 155 youth and adults from 19 of our churches went to the Greater Rochester Baptist Association in Rochester, New York to do Backyard Bible Clubs, construction, painting, leading worship services, senior adult ministry, youth musical concerts and much more.

August-September - Our annual training events for church key leaders and organizational leaders were held in the areas of Sunday School, Brotherhood, WMU and Music.

October - Training for the steering committees for "Here's Hope. Share Jesus Now." took place. Churches are diligently preparing for this important evangelism emphasis.

We have much more than this that has taken place. These are just a few reminders for us to reflect on.

RENEWAL:

Webster's dictionary defines "renew" as "to make like new; restore to freshness, vigor or perfection; regenerate; revive; rebuild; to do again; repeat; to begin again."

You will hear during this annual meeting about our coming CPR - Challenging People to Renew in 1995. Picking up some of the definitions for renew I challenge us to:

"Rebuild" our commitment to evangelism through the "Here's Hope. Share Jesus Now." emphasis;

"Revive" our churches through the Here's Hope Harvest Revivals next spring;

"Restore to freshness" our witness and our ministry efforts in our church's communities;

"Make like new" our love and support for our fellow church members and our neighboring churches;

"Repeat" our support of our partnership with the Greater Rochester Baptist Association;

"Regenerate" our financial support of missions;

"To begin again" to see where we need to start new churches and or missions;

"To do again" the things that please God.

Our associational staff is ready to assist you in any way that we can. We count it a privilege to serve you and pray for each of our churches. May God "renew a right spirit" within each of us.

On mission with you,
Leland Kerr

CHURCH DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR REPORT

Exciting! Busy! Encouraging! Challenging! Awesome! Training! Rewarding! Learning! Affirming! These are words that describe my first few months as your Church Development Director. I hit the ground running in preparation for the Mission Trip to Rochester, New York. I've been on the move ever since July 1.

Our association is blessed with so many capable and committed people. The 155 who went to Rochester were wonderful missionaries committed to the task of sharing Jesus with the Greater Rochester area. The Lord blessed us and brought us together. He used our mission team in mighty ways - witnessing, teaching Backyard Bible Clubs, painting, constructing, encouraging, loving and being what God called us to be - on mission. I count it a great privilege to begin my ministry with you in being on mission.

During my first months here, I have been encouraged as I visit many of our churches. I have had the opportunity to be a part of teaching, speaking, commissioning, training, and sharing in many areas. Our association has had several key events to train and prepare the churches to be all that they can be. There has been training in Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Brotherhood, WMU, and Music. The Youth Rally was a tremendous success to prepare for "See You at the Pole." Planning with churches to begin work with children's worship, individual Sunday School needs and WMU needs have been a part of my experiences.

Plans are underway to join with the Gaston Baptist Association in ministry to singles. Each pastor has been asked to give me a name of one or two people to represent their church in the singles area. The plans are to have a singles training conference and concert in the spring.

I am here to assist you and help to meet your needs. "Unless needs are met, we have little reason to exist." I am available to assist you with the areas of Sunday School, Discipleship Training, WMU, Brotherhood, Music, Evangelism, Stewardship and Youth.

Days of opportunity are before us to serve the Lord together in the Kings Mountain Baptist Association. CPR for your church is coming. Read The Beacon for details about how your church can experience CPR. I am grateful for each church and her leadership. I am grateful to Leland, Charles, Margaret and Judy for their help and support as a part of the KMBA team. Let us praise the Lord for what He will do through us this year as we serve Him.

Bonnie Doughtie

EXECUTIVE BOARD REPORT

The Executive Board has met in three regular meetings and one called session in the past year. Several memorable things were reported at each of those meetings as follows:

January 24 at Mulls Memorial - The Bill Glass Crusade had trained counselors from our churches and from Gardner-Webb totaling seventy-one, and there were 385 decisions made for Christ. These decisions included not only professions of faith, but rededications and commitments for full-time Christian vocation service.

Many committees work extremely long hours in serving the association. One of those is the Student Ministries Committee whose purpose is to assist students at Gardner-Webb and Cleveland Community. One of its projects this year has been to provide weekly lunches for Gardner-Webb students who commute and may not feel a part of the college family.

April 25 at Norman's Grove - We began to see an emphasis placed on the 1995 spring revival "Here's Hope. Share Jesus Now." which we hope will have many churches participating simultaneously. Our churches will be hearing much more from the Evangelism Committee concerning this emphasis and many other projects which the committee is undertaking.

The Music Ministry of your association has been hard at work. It was reported that the youth in the association would be presenting "Living on the Edge" in May at Bethel. At this meeting, the chairman reported that 103 youth had reported for initial practice on the musical drama and he hoped for more.

July 25 at Allen Memorial - One of the highlights of this meeting was the overwhelming and heartwarming testimonies given by several of those who went on the New York Mission Trip. One person stated people asked him "Why go on a mission trip to somewhere like New York when we have so many needs at home?" He responded that for him he had become so complacent that it gave him a new perspective on the real needs here when he saw just a glimpse of the real needs there.

Ruth Champion, a layperson, attended this meeting for the express purpose of sharing and calling attention to the concerns for the people of Rwanda. She requested all in attendance urge their churches to open their doors for a special time of prayer for the people of Rwanda. The scope of the task there is so great that only God could perform a miracle. We pray for that miracle.

Called meeting on May 23 at Westview - The Church Development Search Committee (after three and a half years of continuous prayer and work) presented Bonnie Doughtie as its choice in this new position in the association and the vote to call her was unanimous. The committee was commended for its diligence to the task and the ultimate result.

There have been some exciting events in which the association has participated this year, one of them being the completion of the Habitat House for the Jose Espinales family. All who had a part in that, I am sure, has received a great blessing.

Other exciting and ongoing events in which we have been given a great deal of participation, along with Gardner-Webb University, have been the projects surrounding our Missionaries-in-Residence. We have had Jack and Cathy Ollis, and Dennis and Debbie Connell, and currently have Robert and Mickie Norman, and Roy and Dirce Cooper. As each of these families has come to the association, they have been open to all the churches for information, talks and programs with regard to their fields of service and missions in the church.

As in the past you have prayed, worked and given of your time, energy and money, we ask for your continued support in all these areas.

Recca G. Bingham, Clerk Treasurer

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

1994 has been a year of new opportunities for growth in Sunday School throughout our association. Yet we must also recognize the ones who laid the foundation before us. Under the direction of Joe Collins and Royce Ballew our association has been truly blessed by these leaders who guided us in developing better Sunday Schools in our churches. It comes as no surprise that your ASSIST (Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team) has received the recognition of Standard ASSIST for the fourth year in a row from the Baptist Sunday School Board. This merit is based on such things as workshop leadership, consultations in churches, participation in various training opportunities, and much more.

This year's ASSISTeam consisted of the following people: Steve Zimmerman, associational Sunday School director; Joe Collins, large church adult director; Jerry Welch, small church adult director; Carey Youngblood, youth director; Evelyn Bridges, children director; Linda Ellis, preschool director; Wendy Mode, Vacation Bible School director; and Chip Sloan, pastor's director. The positions of large and small church adult directors as well as pastor's director are new structures within our ASSISTeam.

There were also various other leaders outside the ASSISTeam that conducted training opportunities for our association. For all these folks we extend our heartfelt gratitude for giving of their time and efforts in these Sunday School endeavors.

Below are some of the training opportunities our Sunday School team conducted and or participated in through this year.

1. Quarterly Sunday School Directors Meetings - These groups discussed the various concerns our Sunday School directors faced within their churches. Possible future support groups may come out of these initial meetings.

2. Building Witnessing Relationships - Around twenty participants meet at First Baptist, Shelby, February 18-19, for an in-depth study in how to share their faith with others in their witnessing circles.

3. VBS Early Bird Clinic - Twenty-eight VBS directors or pastors staff members from twenty churches shared how to discover the "Trail of Treasures" at the associational office on March 22.

4. VBS Clinics - Held May 3 at Second Baptist in Shelby and May 5 at Second Baptist in Kings Mountain.

5. Sunday School Literature Awareness Clinic - Held on June 27 at the associational office.

6. Sunday School Fast Track I - August 5-8, Ridgecrest Conference Center.
Equipping Today's Church - September 9-10, Ridgecrest Conference Center.

7. Associational Training School - August 29-30, Boiling Springs Church.
Associational Sunday School Rally - September 19-20, Patterson Grove Church.

These training events for Sunday School workers in our churches were well represented this year. Over two hundred people from forty churches were present to experience a breakthrough in how they ministered in Sunday School. This attendance reflected a 100% increase over last year.

8. Sunday School Directors/Spouse Dinner - October 13, Polkville Baptist Church.

Kings Mountain Baptist Association is also very fortunate to have Miss Bonnie Doughtie begin during this year as our Church Development Director. Her experiences and wisdom will benefit us for years to come. I look forward to working with her in this next year of Sunday School work.

1994 truly has seen us come to some new challenges in how we go about reaching and teaching others about Jesus Christ. Is your church ready to grow? Are you ready to be better trained to meet these new opportunities? If so, call upon your ASSISTeam. We are here to serve and help you reach new heights.

Respectfully submitted,
Steve Zimmerman, ASSISTeam director

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING REPORT

Discipleship Training is certainly an appropriate name for the task we are all called, making disciples. Church leaders can rely on DiscipeALL to plan and administrate an effective disciple making church. New members can quickly be productive members with the expanded 13-session module "Discover the Meaning of Church Membership." Adults, youth and children can become better disciples in many ways; dated periodicals, computer networking, videos, audio cassettes, retreats, seminars and workshops, just to mention a few.

If we are able to be obedient to Christ command to "make disciples," a commitment to Discipleship Training is imperative. Thanks to all who are involved in making disciples on the day and time that is most effective for you. That day and time will not always be Sunday evening at 6:00 pm. A college and career group meets in Charlotte at 5:30 AM. A group in Kings Mountain meets at 5:30 PM for an hour and a half just before Prayer Meeting. Remember our Lord never gave us a set time and day to make disciples, He just gave us a command to make disciples, if we're not making disciples how can we call ourselves a church in God's will?

Below is a summary of associational training events:

1. Children's Bible Drill
   67 participants from 12 churches

2. Youth Bible drill
   5 participants from 1 church

3. "M" Night
   Calvary won both High Attendance and High Percentage awards and will host "M" Night this year.

Larry Burns, (Director for first half of yr.)
Glenn Walker, Director

WMU REPORT

For the year 1993-94, our Associational WMU enrollment was 3,902 which includes 286 organizations.

Serve in Christ's Name is a very appropriate theme for WMU this year as it was incorporated into our permanent watchword "Laborers Together With Christ." All age levels in WMU have certainly served in His name. Baptist Women observed World Day of Prayer in November and joined with the Baptist Young Women in May for an inspirational meeting with Cathy Ollis as speaker. The BYW honored the MK's and international students at Gardner-Webb University with a banquet in February. The Acteens held an associational foreign mission study and also trained an Acteen Activators team to participate in the New York Mission trip. The associational Acteen leaders also arranged for two buses of Acteens and their leaders to attend the National Acteen Convention in Birmingham, Alabama in June. The GA's held an event in May and money was raised from games and concessions for the homeless shelter and the Crisis Pregnancy Center. We are proud of our Mission Friends who held two very successful events this year--a Fall Festival and an Easter Egg Hunt. Over 90 Missions Friends and their leaders attended each event.

An associational-wide WMU project was collecting lotion for the Women's Correctional Center in Raleigh at Christmas. We hosted an open house for the three missionary families who were on furlough: Jack and Cathy Ollis, Roy and Dirce Cooper, and Rob and Mickie Norman. We also held an open house for the Jose Espinales family who moved into the Habitat House in Kings Mountain.

Our Annual Spring Meeting was held in May at Patterson Springs Church. Mildred McWhorter, retired home missionary whose ministry was in Texas, inspired us in her unique way. Approximately 150 people attended the Fall Leadership Conference on September 12, 1994 at Elizabeth Church.

The associational WMU leadership was well represented on the New York Mission trip by the WMU Director, Acteen Director, Assistant GA Director, and the WMU Council Secretary.

Priscilla Wray

BROTHERHOOD REPORT

The men of our Brotherhood have responded to many challenges during 1994. Since our whole purpose centers around "Men and Boys in Missions," our goal is to help in local mission activities in addition to reaching out to those in need in other areas.

On the local scene, the Cleveland County Fair Prayer Breakfast is always the highlight of our year. Each year during fair week the Baptist Men of our churches get together and prepare a hot breakfast for the fair workers. We are always pleased with the cooperation extended to us by the Reithoffer organization and the large number of fair workers (100-125), who take time to share a meal with us. The fair workers give our speaker, soloists, and all those who take part in the program their undivided attention and willingly accept and frequently ask for the New Testament

Bibles handed out by the Gideons. One thing is true about God's word; when it is preached and heard, people respond. It happens every year at this service. The breakfast is held on the first Wednesday of the Fair at 10:30 am under the Bingo tent. You are always welcome to come and be a part of this ministry.

On a more distant mission field, we have had many volunteers, both men and women, from our churches make a trip to Albany, Georgia to assist with the clean-up following the rain storms and the flooding. Shoveling mud and tearing down soggy, rain-soaked sheetrock in hot muggy weather is no easy job, and I commend and thank all those who used days off and sacrificed vacation time to participate in that worthwhile mission project.

There will be a continuing effort to restore that area to normal over the next few months. Volunteers are still needed. If you would like information about this project, contact me or the associational office.

We continue to have a growing R.A. program. A training session for leaders was completed in September and lots of plans were made for various activities and field days. I grew up in the R.A. program when baseball was the major sport for youth, but now it seems basketball has taken over that position. Considering the number of young boys participating in the basketball program, it is evident this activity will be successful in helping recruit boys to the R.A. program. Interest change rapidly. We must do things that will allow us to keep pace with our youth.

In closing, I sincerely request that you pray for and support the Brotherhood and R.A. leaders in your church. It is through your prayers, self-involvement, and financial help that these programs exist to reach out to others in Jesus' name.

God bless you all.

Respectfully submitted,
Harold Wright, Associational Brotherhood Director

MUSIC MINISTRY REPORT

We have had a good year through the association Music Ministry for 1994. The Lord gave us several opportunities to serve Him with our association of churches.

1) On March 7, 1994 a Choral Clinic was held at First Baptist Church, Shelby. Our guest clinician was Dr. James Davidson from Viewmont Baptist Church in Hickory, North Carolina. There were some 80 adult choir members from across the association in attendance as we learned three new anthems that evening. A short time of fellowship followed the Choral Clinic.
2) The Associational Youth Choir Musical, "Living on the Edge" by Michael W. Smith was presented by nearly 100 youth from the association on May 15 and 16 at Bethel Baptist Church in Shelby. There were some 500 in attendance on Sunday Evening and about 300 on Monday night. The program was televised on Saturday, May 21 over WGGS TV-16 from Greenville, South Carolina. This musical was also presented twice by the young people on their 1994 Mission Trip to Rochester, New York the week of July 8-16.
3) On September 26, 1994 the Associational Church Music Workshops were held at Bethel Baptist Church in Shelby from 7:00-9:00 p.m. There were classes offered in Keyboards including synthesizers and sequencers, Reading Music, Instrumental Ensembles, Handbells, Creative Worship, Sound Systems, and Children's Choirs. There were 47 in attendance that evening as we shared ideas on how to improve our Music Ministries in our association of churches. A time of refreshments and fellowship was included as part of the schedule.

4) Our Associational Ministers of Music get together each month for lunch and fellowship as we make plans for upcoming events through music ministry. One area that we encourage all Ministers of Music to participate is the Annual Association Meeting in October. Each year we form a choir and at least one other group such as instrumental, handbells, or ensembles.

The following is our four scheduled events for 1995:

May 14-15 - Associational Youth Choir Musical
September 25 - Church Music Workshops
October 23 - KMBA Minister of Music Choir Instrumental Ensembles

HISTORIANS REPORT

Nineteen ninety four is an ANNIVERSARY YEAR for ten churches in our association, if we think of marking time in decades.

Several of these churches have already had anniversary celebrations, and others may be planned before the end of the calendar year. Churches ending decades this year include:

Double Springs, 150	New Prospect, 140

HERITAGE DAY was celebrated in September with sausage grinding, chicken picking, apple cider making, and dozens of other home, farm and church activities being presented in pageants, plays and musical demonstrations.

The church will observe Founders Day in December with a worship service at which Dr. Nolan Howington, a native of Cleveland County, former professor of preaching at the Baptist seminary in Louisville, Kentucky will be the chief speaker.

Double Springs was founded in December, 1844, and was one of the original 13 churches to form the Kings Mountain Baptist Association when it was constituted in 1851 at Double Springs.

A dozen other churches may celebrate anniversaries in 1995. They include:

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE REPORT

Your Evangelism Committee has been meeting on a regular basis this year. The major event this year was the Evangelism Rally held on January 31, 1994 led by Milton Hollifield, Director of Evangelism for the Baptist State Convention. There was good attendance at the rally and workshops held prior to the rally. Plans are already underway for next years Evangelism Rally to be led by the staff of First Baptist, Spartanburg, South Carolina.

"Here's Hope. Share Jesus Now." plans are already underway. Ministers training and local church Steering Committee training rallies have already been completed. "Here's Hope" will also be emphasized during the annual meeting in October of this year. An associational prayer retreat is planned for November 19th. Sixty days of soul-winning are planned for January 9 - March 9, 1995. Simultaneous harvest revivals are suggested for April 2-9,1995.

Jesus desires for His people to present the Gospel to every person in this generation. Acts 1:8 "but you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth," involves every local church in this process. Therefore do as our Lord commanded in Matthew 28:19 "Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit."

The men of our association are urged to become Promise Keepers. PROMISE KEEPERS is a nation-wide movement to challenge men to keep the promises they made in salvation, in marriage, and in family. Promise Keepers calls on men to be the spiritual, physical and moral leaders of their familes. They are to be faithful to the Lord, their wives, and their children. A Promise Keepers Rally will be held October 30 at Christopher Road Church.

Barry Coker, Chairman

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMITTEE

A major goal of the Christian Life Committee is to serve the churches of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association by supplying information about Christian life concerns. We have attempted to do this by telephone, mail, and newsletter. It has been a busy year but an enjoyable one as we have seen the power of God at work through answered prayer.

One concern has been legalized gambling and the lottery in North Carolina. So far this has been defeated in our state legislature in answer to much work and prayer. However, we cannot relax because hard work is being done to bring the issue back again next session. Let us keep praying and working on this issue.

On the first day of April of this year we promoted and participated in the "TURN OFF YOUR TV" campaign to send a message to TV producers that we do not want violence and intimate sexual contact shown on television. From all reports this campaign was successful.

On May the fifth your Christian Life Committee promoted and participated in the National Day of Prayer by sponsoring meetings at city halls. These meetings were well attended and much prayer went up for our government officials and for the moral climate of America. If you were unable to attend this year, please try to be present on the National Day of Prayer the first week of May 1995.

A survey was made this year to determine the number of our churches who have elected a Christian Life Committee. The survey showed that eight churches have a CLC and 13 others are interested in electing one. One of our priorities this next year will be to encourage and help those 13 churches to elect a CLC soon.

An effort is underway at present to encourage sponsors of the Shelby Christmas Parade to have a Christian theme on all the floats. Help us by praying for this effort.

Respectfully submitted,
Jerry Rumfelt, Chairman

MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

As we gather in this 144th Annual Session of the great Kings Mountain Baptist association, we are made conscious of the absence of many of God's redeemed in our midst who have been called home.

Their earthly presence will be missed and their audible voices will be heard no more by family, friends and the fellowship of believers. But let us "not grieve as those who have no hope," but let us rejoice that they "rest from their labors" in the presence of the Lord and their "works do follow them." May those "works" that "follow them," which we have seen and are the benefactors of, be that challenge, example, and encouragement for us to press on toward the prize of our high calling as Jesus' disciple and ambassador. May we too be able to say as they were permitted to say with Paul "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness,..."(II Timothy 4:7-8A). I believe the poet, Alfred Tennyson, expressed their parting message well in his masterpiece, CROSSING THE BAR:

And one clear call for me,
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

...May there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

From the hands of those we memorialize today, the "torch" of God's love, the message of salvation through faith in Jesus Christ, God's promises and keeping power are true, and His promise to return for His church, has been passed to our hands. May we keep it burning through a life committed to our Savior and lift it high lest we fail God and mankind. Let us rejoice and be glad for God's sharing and caring in their lives and ours!

MISSIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

The Missions Committee of Kings Mountain Baptist Association has met five times since the annual meeting in 1993.

The primary purpose of this committee has been to assist in strengthening the churches in the association and giving encouragement as new churches and missions are formed. Even with the number of churches already here there are many people who have yet to accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. As Paul said in Romans 10:13 "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." This should encourage Christians to share the gospel with everyone.

The Habitat for Humanity house for the Jose Espinales family was completed and dedicated early this year. The Star of Bethlehem Baptist Mission continues to serve the Spanish speaking people in this area.

Christ Covenant Church, which is contemporary in style, has had a successful beginning. Launch Day was January 30 with an attendance of 106. The church is meeting rent-free at Gardner-Webb University in Noel Hall and several classrooms. Rev. Jim Toole is the pastor of the new church.

We have continued the joint sponsorship of the Missionary-in-Residence program with Gardner-Webb University. This past year proved to be very successful as the two missionary families were able to speak in a number of churches and give a fresh insight to the importance of missions here and abroad. Many of the churches had not had a missionary speaker in a number of years.

One of the most exciting things to happen this year was the generosity of Elizabeth Baptist Church to allow the association to use their recently renovated parsonage as a house for missionaries. This necessitated the formation of a sub-committee to furnish the residence. Those members were: Mona Scism, Delores Hamrick, Recca Bingham, Frances Cline, and Mary Lou Causby. Many churches and individuals have contributed furniture, money and time to prepare the house for the first missionary family. We welcomed Dr. and Mrs. Roy Cooper, who serve in Costa Rica, and their nephew, Daniel Moura the last of July. Also arriving about the same time were Rev. & Mrs. Robert Norman and sons Matthew and Philip, missionaries to Greece. They are living in the Pleasant Ridge missionary residence. Both of these couples are willing and eager to be used in the churches of the association.

An outreach ministry that was begun in 1993 and continued again this summer was the New York Partnership in the Greater Rochester Association. Leland Kerr has done an excellent job with this as he led 160 youth and adults from nineteen of our churches.

World Missions Conference has now been changed to May 18-22, 1996 because of "Here's Hope. Share Jesus Now." revivals in 1995. These dates were given to us by the Home Mission Board and the Foreign Mission Board.

It is our prayer that we will be sensitive to the needs of every church in the association concerning missions outreach.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Lou Causby, Chairman

STAR OF BETHLEHEM HISPANIC MISSION REPORT

The mission purchased a typewriter, amplifier for a guitar and repaired the van which was given to them by Polkville Church. At the beginning of 1994 the mission started having more visits and services in homes and they continued their Wednesday services. Our mission desires to get a lot for a church one day.

I appreciate the association for their assistance with the Habitat house in Kings Mountain and for all who visited in my home for "Open House" on June 12.

I was involved in revival with Harvest Time Baptist Church. During the four days of revival seventy-six made professions of faith and eight were baptized.

In the migrant ministry twenty-three migrants made professions of faith. I appreciate the churches who have supported the migrant ministry this year.

Our mission does not have many members. Most of our prospects work in restaurants and do not have time to come to the mission.

We gave out fifty-seven Bibles, 250 pamphlets, and continue to help families with clothes and food. I work every day with the Spanish people. Four people were baptized in August.

I take classes in Charlotte on Saturday mornings at Boyce Bible School.

The Lord bless the association and it's leaders for supporting our mission.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Jose Espinales, pastor

YOUTH MINISTRY REPORT

The youth ministry of our association sponsored three major events for the youth of our area.

First, in February, a "True Love Waits" rally was held at Malcolm Brown Auditorium. The purpose of "True Love Waits" was to promote sexual abstinence until marriage. As a result of the rally, over 250 young people in our community made the decision to remain sexually pure until marriage.

Then in April, our annual "Rescue" rally was held at Gardner-Webb University. Our program personalities included Mylon LeFevere and Morgan Cryar. Over 500 youth attended both evenings.

Finally, to kick off the new school year, a rally was held at First Baptist Church in Kings Mountain. The creative group, Images provided an inspirational and entertaining evening for our youth. At this rally, a prayer time was held for "See You at the Pole." SYATP is a world-wide day of prayer when students come together and pray at their schools. Over 800 youth in Cleveland County participated. What a wonderful testimony!

We are excited about the enthusiasm of the youth in our association! Continue to pray for your youth and the work of our association!

Respectfully submitted,
Faith Cooper Beam, Chairman

STUDENT MINISTRY REPORT

The Kings Mountain Baptist Association Student Ministry Committee began its first year of work in November 1993.

Funds were provided to assist students at Gardner-Webb University in attending a Gardner-Webb Baptist Student Union Retreat and a regional Fellowship of Christian Athletes Conference during the Spring semester, 1994.

A major project for the committee has been to coordinate weekly meals for commuter students at Gardner-Webb, with the main emphasis being to involve churches in providing these meals. Three churches, First Baptist and Second Baptist of Shelby, and Westview provided a total of five meals. Student Ministry budgeted funds provided the balance of the meals in the Spring 1994 semester. Seventy-four students were reached through these meals with an average of 38 attending each meal. The students were appreciative of this ministry.

Work is under way to provide commuter meals during the Fall 1994 semester although a lack of funds and church participation may limit the number of meals provided this Fall and in the future.

Future plans include starting a Baptist Student Union at Cleveland Community College, and obtaining a volunteer to direct this work. It is also our hope to provide financial assistance to students at Gardner-Webb and Cleveland Community to attend BSU Leadership Conferences, student conventions at Ridgecrest and other similar opportunities.

Another objective is to assist churches in developing their local church ministry to college students in our area. One tool for this is the booklet titled "Developing a Ministry with College Students -- A Guide for Churches." This is published and made available to churches at no charge by the Youth and Campus Ministries of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. Churches may obtain a copy of this booklet by contacting the associational office.

How can we convey to the people of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association the need for ministering to college students within our circles of influence in the name of Jesus Christ? College students are in a state of transition and growth, needing to know the love and support only Christ can provide through us. International students at Gardner-Webb can give us an opportunity to send the Gospel of Jesus Christ with them back to their countries when they finish their education here.

In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, we ask for the people of our association to take an active part in ministering to college students in Cleveland County.

Respectfully submitted,
Maria Aldridge, Chairman

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE KINGS MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

On November 7, 1851 the following churches from the Broad River Baptist Association met at Double Springs Baptist Church for the purpose of organizing a new association: Beaver Dam, Bethel, Boiling Springs, Broad River, Buffalo, Double Springs, Mt. Pleasant, Mt. Sinai, New Bethel, Pleasant Hill, Sandy Run, Zion, and Zoar.

The need for a new association resulted from geographical conditions. The boundary of the Broad River Association was so extensive that delegates were unable to attend the annual sessions due to swollen rivers and streams.

The name "Kings Mountain Association" was chosen because its boundary included the Kings Mountain battleground, a monument to be remembered by every patriot and lover of religious liberty.

In 1903, the association appointed a committee to establish and endow a denomination high school. In 1905, Boiling Springs was chosen as the most suitable site by a 15-member Board of Trustees. The Sandy Run Association was invited to join the Kings Mountain Association in establishing the school. In 1906, efforts and plans were begun to raise money for the school and in 1907, the first building was erected. The school opened on October 1, 1907 with 135 students. The first principal was Professor J.D. Huggins. The school later became known as Gardner-Webb College.

Directors of Missions who have served the association are:

Lewis E. Ludlum	1946-50
Tom W. Bray	1950-59
C.O. Greene	1959-73
Cline W. Borders	1973-91
Leland A. Kerr	1992-present

Interim Directors of Missions who have served are:

W.V. Tarlton	August 1, 1973 to October 31, 1973
Sam Snyder	May 1, 1991 to January 24, 1992

During the tenures of Rev. Ludlum and Rev. Bray, the association occupied an office in the First Baptist Church, Shelby. In 1949, the association voted to build a missionary home on Buffalo Street for the associational missionary. In 1959, the association voted that the missionary home be turned into an office building to provide space for the associational missionary, secretary, clerk treasurer and to provide conference space for meetings. The home was sold in 1965 and the association rented office space in Shelby.

In April 1978, the association called Rev. Bob Davis as Church and Community Ministries Director. Rev. Davis served until August 1989 when he went on medical leave. Rev. Sam Snyder served as interim CCM Director from October 23, 1989 to September 30, 1990. In October 1990, the association called Rev. Charles Reed as the current CCM Director. In July 1994, the association called Rev. Bonnie Doughtie as their first Church Development Director.

Additional staff and growing ministries led the association to build an associational complex on Wyke Road in Shelby. In 1981 a dedication service and open house was held.

Currently the association is made up of 78 member churches, one watch care church, and one mission with a total church membership of 29,224.

HISTORY OF FLINT HILL BAPTIST CHURCH

Flint Hill Baptist Church is in her 87th year of ministry for Jesus Christ in this community. The church was organized at the Flint Hill School on August 27, 1909 when worship was held under a brush arbor and inside the school house. Brethren from sister churches formed a Presbytery to organize Flint Hill Baptist Church.

The church's first building was erected around 1910 with approximately 105 members. Since that time three other buildings have been built. The present building was readied for worship at an approximate cost of $600,000. The first church building stood on a half-acre site that was donated to the church by Virgil Weaver. Presently the church owns approximately twenty-eight acres of land, with twenty-one being developed for outdoor recreation and ministry.

Flint Hill Baptist Church has experienced steady growth throughout her history. Currently, the church has a total membership of 656 and an operating budget of $223,678.12. The commitment to providing effective ministry took another step as the members committed $294,000 above their tithes and offerings over a three year period to begin construction of a new education wing to the present facility. This new building would consist of classrooms, choir room, senior adult room and fellowship hall.

Flint Hill also has a growing concern for missions. As a result of this growing concern, the church has doubled its mission giving in the last ten years and in 1994 gave in excess of $35,000 to mission causes.

Rev. Keith Dixon serves as the nineteenth pastor of Flint Hill Baptist Church and recently observed his tenth anniversary in that capacity. Mrs. Doreen Wacaster is the minister of music and Jason Kerr serves as part-time minister of youth and children.

HISTORY OF SANDY PLAINS BAPTIST CHURCH

Sandy Plains Baptist Church began in a brush arbor meeting on the Chancey Grigg Farm in the New House community. It was constituted as a church on March 24th, 1854 with twenty-seven charter members. The church became a member of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association that same year. In 1856, Zion Hill Church petitioned to unite with Sandy Plains and was received into fellowship.

Services were originally held on a monthly basis in the one room log structure. The original structure was replaced in 1877 and the present sanctuary was constructed in 1912, with several additions and remodeling since that date.

From its earliest beginnings, Sandy Plains was aware of Christ's summons to go into all the world and make disciples. A church mission program was organized in 1871. From that date forward, this church has been in continuous support of our North Carolina Baptist agencies and has enthusiastically supported both the Cooperative Program and the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship since the dates they were formed. We are equally pleased to be part of the ministries of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association. Believing that all of the above have proven through their labors to be committed to Christ and His church, we are honored to be associated with each of them and count them as our indispensable partners in doing His work.

The current pastor is especially pleased to note the valuable contributions of our women in ministry. Currently, three of our deacons, our music minister, our Sunday School director, and other key leadership positions are filled by women in response to Christ's call in the use of their God-given gifts and talents.

Dr. Donald McSwain serves as pastor, Mrs. Joy Harris is music minister, and Mrs. Donnis Walker is Sunday School director. The current membership is 401.

These included: Rev. Steven Akers, pastor of Piedmont; Rev. Attendance cards were collected at this time.
8. Rev. Steve Zimmerman, minister of education at First, Shelby, and associational Sunday School director, gave his report. He encouraged participation in the training events for 1996. He introduced the ASSISTeam members. Those present were: Evelyn Bridges, Jerry Welch, Joe Collins and "Chip" Sloan.
9. Rev. Glenn Walker, pastor of Double Springs Church and Discipleship Training Supporter, gave his report. He stressed how we all need to be involved in an on-going training program and think about what we do for our own spiritual growth. He presented a plaque to Calvary Church for high attendance at "M" Night in 1994. He announced that we would not have "M" Night this year but will look instead at a spring training event in 1996.
10. Rev. Lawton Neely, associational music director, presented his report, gave the dates for 1996 music events, and stated he is relinquishing his position as music director to Mrs. Faithe Beam.
11. Rev. Rick Hamrick, minister of education/youth at Polkville Church and chairman of the associational youth committee, presented the youth ministry report. He also gave the dates for upcoming 1996 youth events.

12. Rev. Leland Kerr called attention to the printed information on our World Missions Conference scheduled for May 18-21, 1997. We viewed a ten-minute video on what a World Missions Conference is about. Leland stated that Rev. Charles Reed, church and community ministries director, will assist him in preparing for this event.
13. Rev. Bonnie Doughtie, church development director, presented her report. She stated our task in helping to develop churches and members is to help them feel or experience God. She must constantly challenge herself in order to challenge or help others. Another task is to cultivate the many talents and abilities within our church family. Training is a part of assisting people to develop. She reported that 586 people from forty-nine of our churches were involved in training in August at CPR (Challenging People to Renew) at First Baptist, Shelby. She expressed thanks to all involved in this event. She stated we will seek to do CPR every three years and let each organization do their individaul training the other two years. Our next CPR training event will be August 31 and September 1, 1998.
14. Mrs. Ladell Shields, minister of music/education/youth at Beaver Dam Church, led the congregation in singing, "So Send I You."
15. Rev. Bruce Rabon, director of Church Relations, from Gardner-Webb University, brought greetings from the university. He reported the largest enrollment in their 90-year history. They have 2,518 enrolled with 1,300 on campus. They have 102 students in the school of divinity. Gardner-Webb is thankful for the opportunity of "dabling" in the lives of these young people and for helping shape their destiny.
16. Rev. Russell Fitts, chairman of the Membership Committee, presented his report and recommended that Christ Covenant Church be accepted into full membership in our association. The motion was seconded by John Houze and carried. Rev. Jim Toole and several members who were present for the meeting were asked to come forward. Rev. Toole expressed appreciation to Kings Mountain Baptist Association and Gardner-Webb University for their support to Christ Covenant Church.
17. The Kings Mountain Baptist Association Ministers of Music Ensemble presented our special music for the evening. The group included Doreen Wacaster, Beth Hefner, Ladell Shields, Faithe Beam, Bob Dills, Chris Roberts, Lawton Neely, and Larry King. They sang "Boundless Love" and "Here I Am, Lord" and were accompanied on the piano by Angela Zimmerman.
18. Dr. John "Chip" Sloan, pastor of First Baptist, Kings Mountain presented the annual sermon. He shared various scripture passages including Ephesians 5:22, Genesis 22:1-2, 24:67. He spoke on areas of renewal. 1. Honor for the church. You cannot honor Christ if you do not honor the church. If there is going to be renewal. then we need to clean up our tongues of criticism of our church. 2. Love for the Lord. We are the bride of the church. God wants love from us. In our worship God wants us to sing and talk to Him not just about Him. 3. Submission to the Lord. We need to pursue His will, not our goals and ambitions. We need God ruling our church. 4. Be ready for His coming. Jesus went to prepare a place for us and we should be preparing ourselves to meet Him. We need to renew ourselves, rid ourselves of all negatives, submit to Him, go where He wants us to go and be mindful that one day the Lord is coming back for His church.
19. Moderator Jim Brackett came forward at this time and asked for a silent time of commitment.
20. Mr. Jason Kerr, minister of youth at Flint Hill Church, pronounced the benediction.

Larry King, associate pastor and minister of music and youth at Westview, led the congregation in singing, "Praise Him!," as our opening hymn. Scripture from Matthew 25: 35-40 was read by Rev. Marvin Gobble of Zoar Church and the opening prayer was led by Rev. Vincent Hefner of Second Baptis in Shelby.
23. The Nominating Committee report was given by Rev. Ralph Sparrow of Oak View. The following nominations for 1996 were presented:

    Moderator ..... Mrs. Mary Lou Causby
    Vice-moderator ..... Rev. Keith Dixon
    Clerk-treasurer ..... Ms. Recca Bingham

    There were no nominations from the floor. These were voted on and approved.
24. Rev. Paul Williams, pastor of Lawndale Church, gave the Committee on Committee report. He thanked the committee for all their work in filling all but three of the 130 positions for next year. Rev. Williams moved the adoption of this report. The report was voted on and approved.
24. Moderator Jim Brackett then recognized Rev. Sam Snyder, retired pastor, to give a report from the Baptist Retirement Homes. Rev. Snyder encouraged us to support the retirement homes through our prayers and through the offering. Last year our association gave $5,152.67 to this special offering. The statewide goal for 1996 is $425,000. Two new projects are underway. A new home is being constructed in Fayetteville and in partnership with the Presbyterian Homes, we will provide in-home care for older adults so that they can remain in their own homes.
26. Mrs. Priscilla Wray, associational WMU Director, reported the WMU has been very busy this year with "lots" of training here in our association and at Ridgecrest. This training has helped us with all the changes in WMU and has been good to get us more involved in missions. Mrs. Wray and Mrs. Evelyn Jackson presented a skit emphasizing the differences in the years of 1915 and 1995. This showed us how much things have changed in our world in the past 80 years but one thing remains the same and that is GOD.
27. The Christian Life report was given by Dr. Jim Richardson, pastor of Poplar Springs Church. He said that the purpose of this committee is to help our churches become more aware of the modern issues that effect Christian living such as illegal use of drugs and pornography. Our goal is to have a Christian Life Committee in every church of our association.
28. Ms. Recca Bingham, our clerk-treasurer, gave the Executive Board report. She mentioned that the scripture instructs us to pray, to work and to give. She encouraged each church to send representatives to our Executive Board meetings so that the church may be informed as to what is happening in our associational work. Ms. Bingham also presented the treasurers report for January - September 1995. These reports were voted on and approved.
29. Rev. J.C. Goare gave the Memorials report and led a prayer in memory of those we have lost this past year.

30. Mrs. Faithe Beam, minister of music, education, and youth at Zion Church, led the congregation in singing, "Blessed Assurance."
31. Vice-moderator Mary Lou Causby gave the Missions Committee report. She stated that although the way we do missions has changed the Story of Jesus is the same as it was in the beginning. Our partnership with the Greater Rochester Baptist Association in New York continues as we had another mission trip to New York this past summer to minister and to help build the associational office. We have recently learned that some Acteens from New York want to come to our area soon to share with us as we have shared with them. Mrs. Causby stated that we are pleased to have our missionaries-in-residence as we have three at the present time: M/M James Russell, M/M Rob Hefner and Miss Elizabeth Oates. Rev. Yasuaki Fugunaga from Japan has come to our area this year to work with and learn from our churches in the youth ministry and in music ministry areas. Rev. Fugunaga is also ministering to the Japanese students at Gardner-Webb University. Mrs. Causby ask that we be in prayer for our pending mission partnerships with Japan and South Africa. She ask that we look over the calendar for next year and pointed out the change in the dates for the Chemical Dependency Conference at Gardner-Webb to July 15-16, 1996 and Chris Roberts, minister of music at Boiling Springs Church mentioned that the NC Music Conference at Caraway is January 15-17, 1996. The association voted to enter into a partnership with South Africa and Japan.
32. Rev. Leland Kerr, our director of missions, gave an update on our New York partnership. He expressed thanks from New York and from our association to all those who have supported this partnership through their prayers and financial support. Special thanks to all who have given of their time and energy to go to New York. Between 30 and 35 of our churches were involved. The membership of the entire Greater Rochester Baptist Association is about 800. We have some churches with larger memberships so we are compelled by our blessings to help these churches. A group from Christopher Road Church has just returned from New York where they helped with the completion of the building of the 1200 square foot associational office. Our churches have donated about $19,000 for this building project. We will continue this partnership as long as the need is there.
33. The 1996 budget was presented by Mr. Jim Hope, chairman of the Finance Committee. He noted that the budget cuts in Church and Community Ministries are due to the fact that we receive funding from such sources as Duke Power Foundation, the Dover Foundation, Home Mission Board and designated gifts from churches and individuals. He moved the adoption of this new budget. There were no comments or questions. This was voted on and approved.
34. Mrs. Jack (Cathy) Ollis, missionary to Singapore, spoke to us about her experiences on the mission field and about her work here at Gardner-Webb University in helping form a World A Resource Center to open in January of 1996. Rob and Phyllis Hefner, missionaries to Brazil, shared with us how God IS working in our world today. The Hefners gave special thanks to Patterson Grove Church for "adopting" them. Moderator Jim Brackett asked Rev. Jim Richardson to lead a time of special prayer for all our missionaries.
35. Dr. Wyan Washburn, our associational historian, gave his report. He asked that we read his written report at home. Director of Missions Leland Kerr presented a plaque to Dr. Washburn for serving as historian 1958 to 1995.

36. Special music was presented by Leland Kerr on the bass, Lawton Neely on the banjo, and Jason Kerr on the guitar with the congregation singing along on several favorite old hymns.
37. Rev. Charles Reed, Church and Community Ministries director, gave his report. He stated that he has completed five years of service here in KMBA. The World Mission conference dates for our association is May 18-21, 1997 and our churches can and should be involved. Participating churches can have five services involving 2 home, 2 foreign and 1 state missionary. Rev. Reed mentioned that this year's Christmas Toy Store will be dedicated to the memory of J.W. Gantt, volunteer who has been an important part of the Toy Stores in the past. Rev. Reed thanked Jennifer Ollis, daughter of M/M Jack Ollis, who served as CCM Summer Worker this summer.
38. Rev. Leland Kerr thanked Sandy Plains for hosting us today and thanked Paul Setzer for providing the sound equipment. Dr. Don McSwain, pastor of our host church, gave directions and thanks for our evening meal.

40. Mr. Bruce Wilson, minister of music at Lawndale church, led the congregation in singing, "Victory in Jesus." We were accompanied at the piano by Rev. Chris Roberts, minister of music at Boiling Springs Church.

Dave Gordon, New Hope Church; Mrs. Mona Scism, Patterson Grove Church; Mrs. Mickie Burgin, Lattimore Church; Mr. John Rudasill, Union Church; Mrs. Mary Coker, Christopher Road Church; and Rev. Chad Harvey, New Prospect Church.
46. Mr. Barry Coker, layman from Christopher Road and chairman of Evangelism Committee, gave his report. He asked for counselors for the upcoming toy store and next year's Rescue '96. He reported 1500 people attended "Toy Maker's Dream" with forty-four decisions made. He announced a Billy Graham Crusade will be held September 26-29, 1996 at the Panther stadium in Charlotte.

47. Our Director of Missions Leland Kerr gave his annual report. He expressed appreciation to our host churches Sandy Plains and Flint Hill as well as to the entire Lattimore group of churches. Pertaining to our association, he spoke on who we are, how the association helps churches, who does the work, where the money comes from, why we do what we do. Rev. Kerr shared a few of his dreams with us: (1) Partnership Missions, (2) Associational Drama Team, (3) Christian Counseling Ministry, and (4) Missions Investment Fellowship. These are discussed further in his printed report. He spoke also on what it means to be associated, that he is burdened that some of our churches are not really associated, and that his goal is to bridge relationships and strive to bring our churches together as an association.

Mrs. Faithe Beam continued to lead the congregation in a number of hymns and choruses.
49. Missionary-In-Residence Elizabeth Oates, on furlough from Brazil, expressed thanks for prayers for all the missionaries and gifts to Cooperative Program and Lottie Moon offering. She shared about her work in Brazil and how great the need is to reach people and begin new work there. They also have a great need for training lay people to work in various ministries.
50. The Westview Quartet presented our special music for the evening. The group included: Rev. Larry King, Mark Fitzgerald, Marla Bralley, and Amelia Raines. They were accompanied by Carolyn Clatfelter, pianist.
51. Rev. Jim Brackett brought the moderator's message. Selected scripture passages included: Ephesians 1:3-4, 7, 13-14 and John 14:6. He asked what it is that calls us together and stated it is not enough just to be together, no matter how large the crowd, we must be together in the presence of God. We were chosen by God in love and elected by His love for service. He urged us to look into God's eyes and be captured by all that we find there.

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS REPORT

We have spent much time this past year encouraging our churches to be renewed. We continue that theme through our annual meeting. We have participated in many events to help us seek renewal.

I want to highlight a few of the major events this past year that enabled us to be renewed:

Renewal Through Evangelism

1995 was the year of the Here's Hope Simultaneous Revivals. Lives were renewed and new life experienced as a result of these revivals. We are still receiving the Annual Church Profiles as I write this, but our baptisms appear to be higher this year over last year.

A recent evangelism event was the presentation of "The Masterpiece: A Toymaker's Dream." This event drew approximately 1500 people over two nights with eleven professions of faith.

Our annual youth evangelism event "Rescue" was also very successful.

Renewal Through Missions

A vital part of our ministry this year has been our partnership with the Greater Rochester Baptist Association. This partnership continues to develop each year as more and more churches and individuals respond to the call to assist them. A total of 275 volunteers from twenty-four of our churches participated in this years mission trip to Rochester. We contributed nearly $20,000 and most of the volunteer labor to build their associational office building. We will continue this partnership next year.

Renewal Through Training

One of the most successful training events in our association's history took place in August as we held CPR - Challenging People to Renew. Nearly 600 people from forty-nine of our churches participated in this multi-program training event. This was a tremendous time of fellowship and learning.

Renewal Through Ministry

Our association has been a model for years as an example of effective ways to minister to the community. We continue to assist those in need with emergency and relief, help families provide toys for their children at Christmas, and offer hope to those who often wonder if there is hope. HOPEBUILDERS was launched in our association as an opportunity for the elderly to have vital repairs made to their homes. We continue to receive support for our ministries from our churches, individuals, other church groups, the Home Mission Board, and charitable foundations. For this we are indeed grateful.

I believe we can also find renewal as we look to the future and dream about new areas of opportunities for ministry. Let me share a few of my dreams with you.

Partnership Missions - We have the opportunity to become directly involved in two foreign missions partnerships - South Africa and Japan. I hope we will support these.

Associational Drama Team - I hope we can develop this team to serve as a resource to our churches and our partnerships in missions.

Christian Counseling Ministry - The needs are almost overwhelming in our area for Christian counseling. I urge our association to explore the possibility of providing this ministry in some way.

Missions Investment Fellowship - This would be made up of individuals who would give $100 a year to a special fund to help start new work, assist our missions partnerships, and respond to new missions opportunities.

Above all, we need to be reminded that renewal must occur in our individual lives before we ever truly understand renewal in our churches and in our association.

We need to be reminded of the words Paul wrote in Romans 12:2 "Do not comform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is - his good, pleasing and perfect will."

On the renewal journey with you,
Leland Kerr

   A party was held at Boiling Springs Baptist Church prior to final exams in the spring semester at Gardner-Webb University for fourteen blind students. Graduation gifts were given to seniors completing undergraduate and graduate programs.

6. Ministry to the Developmentally Disabled:
   Day Camps and other activities for the developmentally disabled were conducted by Jennifer Ollis, CCM summer worker.

7. Migrant Ministry:
   Worship and fellowship services for seasonal farm workers in Upper Cleveland were held during the summer months at Belwood Community Center. Rev. and Mrs. Jose Espinales from the Star of Bethlehem Church conducted the worship time in Spanish and Jennifer Ollis, CCM summer worker, coordinated the fellowship meals with KMBA churches. This year children had a special time of Bible study while their parents attended the worship service.

8. Friday Lunch Program:
   The number of meals served to the hungry and homeless this year was 1,537. Assisting in serving were 182 volunteers.

9. Jail Ministry:
   Services were conducted on each Sunday afternoon at the Cleveland County Jail and the Jail Annex by thirty-four churches serving on a rotating schedule. Mr. A.B. Davidson coordinated this ministry and Mrs. Judy Allen schedules the churches each year.

10. Children's Bible Ministry:
    Children whose parents have applied for assistance at the CCM office are mailed Bible books on their birthdays by Mr. John Cabiness and his Sunday School class. Bibles and Bible books were taken to the Cleveland County Fair to give to the school children who travel with the carnival.

11. Volunteer Receptionists and Clothing Room Workers:

We have eighteen volunteers who assist us regularly as receptionists for the CCM office. Nine ladies volunteer time on a weekly basis to assist in our clothing room.

Summary of Volunteer Times:

1.	Emergency and Relief	2363
2.	Toy Store	595

12. Chemical Dependency Workshop:

The fourth annual workshop entitled "The Church Ministering to the Chemically Dependent and Their Families" was held at Gardner-Webb University July 17-20, 1995. The workshop was co-sponsored by Kings Mountain Baptist Association, the B.E. Morris Academy and the Christian Life Council and Public Affairs of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. Once again there were thirty-seven participants counting the faculty.

13. HOPEBUILDERS:

This pilot program sponsored by NC Baptist Men, Kings Mountain Baptist Association, and the Council on Aging of Cleveland County was most successful. Three low-income houses or trailers were renovated by visiting church groups from Winston-Salem and Harrisburg, NC. Local churches provided meals for the volunteers and followed up on the families who were ministered to by HOPEBUILDERS. This will be an on-going project with NC Baptist Men, the association, and agencies making referrals for repairs and renovations on low-income housing.

14. Metrolina Food Bank:

In March 1995 CCM became a member of the Metrolina Food Bank. In addition to buying privileges at the Charlotte Food Bank at greatly reduced prices, volunteers pick up meat, dairy products, and grocery items from local Food Lions daily. Churches are still needed to contribute non-perishable food items as requested in the association newsletter to provide food for those in need. We had eight volunteers who picked up food items on 132 occasions during March 1995-September 1995. A total of 13,310 pounds of salvage items were received from the Food Lion stores.

CHURCH DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR REPORT

Each month in The Beacon my article is entitled Bonnie's Lightlines. I chose this because I love lighthouses. Lighthouses reflect light to those who need assistance and guidance. I view my job as your Church Development Director as one who offers assistance and guidance. My report to you offers reflections on the past year as we have served the Lord together here in Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

November began with the Baptist Women's Day of Prayer as we prayed for ourselves, missionaries and others. "M" Night offered a time to reflect on Discipleship Training and we were led by Maurice Cooper. Also, during November I attended the Associational Religious Educators Update at the Baptist Sunday School Board. This is an annual event where the BSSE shares what's new and changes taking place in curriculum.

December was a time for Steve Zimmerman, Barry Coker and me to go to Rochester to do their Here's Hope training. We shared in a weekend training of pastors and lay leaders to help them prepare for Here's Hope.

January was spent with the Sunday School SSALT Training in two locations. Bad weather hindered our attendance but excellent training took place for those who braved the elements. Also, a staff ministers support group began. We meet monthly and review a book relating to education and youth ministry.

February found me at Ridgecrest for Associational Training Institute and Youth SkiTreat at the same time. The mission trip organizational meeting began in February to see who was interested in going to Rochester. I also attended the Southern Baptist Religious Educator Association meeting in Williamsburg, Virginia.

March was the time for the VBS Early Bird Clinic to prepare for "Windows on the World." Also, Rescue '95 at Gardner-Webb brought many youth and leaders out.

April was a time to be in the air and fly to Rochester along with Leland and Peter West to make plans for the mission trip.

May helped all of our leadership in the association to be trained at key leadership. Also, the youth musical was performed in two locations.

June found the Apostoloi Team (A-Team) arriving and summer plans were well on their way. Mission trip preparation was in full swing.

July was very busy with final plans for the mission trip. Also, 275 of us spent two weeks in Rochester. This was a very wonderful experience and God blessed in so many ways. Plans are already in the making and dates set for next year (two weeks).

August was one of the most exciting times of the associational year. CPR (Challenging People to Renew) training took place at First Baptist, Shelby. 586 people from 49 of our churches were involved in all types of training. Let me commend the 26 pastors who came with their church leadership and led the way for training. The CPR event was one of the largest, if not the largest training event, in the history of the association for training. Thanks to each person who shared in this event. The cost averaged out to $4.53 per person attending. You cannot go to Ridgecrest for training for less than $5.00. The next CPR training will be in 1998.

September came and the youth "See You At The Pole" Rally was a big success. The prayer time around the pole found 910 youth praying for their peers, teachers, country and each other.

So, you can see this has been an exciting and eventful year. Reflecting always helps us to rethink and renew. I was also teaching mission studies, training of leaders, speaking, sharing and worshipping with many of our churches.

The Curriculum Resource Center continues to grow. The Sunday School Board almost weekly sends us more new materials. Spend some time browsing in the Curriculum Resource Center at the KMBA office.

Thanks for the opportunity to serve with you. You are very mission minded and eager to become better leaders in the churches of KMBA. I am grateful for each pastor and leader. Please call me if I can be of any assistance to your church.

Respectfully submitted,
Bonnie Doughtie

EXECUTIVE BOARD REPORT

The Executive Board has met in three regular meetings since the Annual Meeting during the past year. The space allotted for this report allows only a brief mention of some important issues to which attention was called at each of these meetings.

January 16 at Christopher Road:

1. The Evangelism committee reported that by the time of this meeting, Here's Hope training had already been held in our county and in Rochester, NY. Preparation is already underway for the mission trip to Rochester in the summer months.
2. Our Church Development Director reported the many ministries available through her part of the association's work, just to mention a few: Baptist Women's Day of Prayer, Here's Hope Prayer Retreat, "M" Night, and Associational Relgious Educators training and update in Nashville. She had also set up the Curriculum Resource Center at the association office which is available to everyone.
3. The association was introduced to the new CCM secretary, Teresa Davis, who has been a great asset to our work during the year.
4. The approval of the 501 (c) (3) non-profit status has placed our association in the advantageous position of being able to continue to receive funding from the Duke Power programs, to begin receiving assistance in the way of food supplies from the Metrolina Food Bank in Charlotte, and possibly from other organizations as well who contribute only to recognized non-profit entities.

April 24 at Mount Sinai:

1. Yasuaki Fukunaga was introduced; he is from Japan and is studying in our association for one year; he is exploring ideas to take back to Japan in the way of ministry. "Yasu" has been as inspiration to our association during the time he has been here. (He played the piano for the meeting of the Executive Board in July at David Baptist Church).
2. In the area of Student Ministries, it is hoped that BSU work can be established at Cleveland Community College during the year.
3. Among other things shared during our time together at this meeting were Vacation Bible School training, the success of Rescue '95, the mission trip to Rochester (292 folks planning to go), the upcoming Challenging People to Renew (CPR) training in August, the work of the Apostoloi team, and the success of our Missionaries-In-Residence program.

July 24 at David:

1. Several replacements were made for persons who had resigned from committees: Frances Cline, chairman of the Ordination Committee; Tom Beam, chairman of the Student Ministries Committee; and Jim Hope, chairman of the Finance Committee.
2. The many opportunities mentioned in this meeting were the continued urging to attend Challenging People to Renew (CPR) training, Hope Builders, Chemical Dependency Workshop, the work of the student summer worker with the Friday Lunch Program and the day camps for the developmentally disabled, and Christmas in July.
3. Several persons gave a short testimony concerning their experiences on the New York mission trip and Leland Kerr, director of missions, stated that the construction of the new associational office building there was well underway when the team left New York to come home. A goal of $16,000 was set to help construct the building there and as of the meeting time a total of $19,000 has been collected.

The scripture tells us to pray, to work, to give. Your association has expected and received from you in all these areas of life. We thank you.

Recca G. Bingham, Clerk/Treasurer

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

Challenge is probably the best description for what our associational Sunday School ministry set out to do in 1995. As we began the new year, your ASSISTeam took the challenge to enlarge its corp. We are very excited about our two new team members! Chip Sloan, pastor of First Baptist, Kings Mountain is serving as Pastor's Director on the team. He has proven to be an asset in giving us a pastor's perspective and much-needed ministerial support. He has also demonstrated how important Sunday School is to a pastor's ministry. Jerry Welch, pastor of Carpenter's Grove of Lawndale, has been a loyal team member of the ASSISTeam for years. His new role this year has been to enhance adults in our smaller churches throughout our association. With his heart and love for the smaller church, we are fortunate to have his skills for the vast majority of our churches. Both of these gentlemen are a wonderful blessing to our ASSISTeam.

Many times this year our other ASSISTeam members were called upon to give numerous consultations to our pastors and lay church leaders regarding the challenges facing their Sunday School roles. To these team members, I extend a very deep personal sense of gratitude for all their work. Thank you, ASSISTeam, for your commitment in our Sunday School ministries.

Due to the emphasis of our Here's Hope Revivals, our typical spring training events were pushed forward to January. Cold weather and severe storms challenged many Sunday School leaders to come out for this annual equipping time. Our heartfelt thanks goes out to those of you who attended these events in January at Zion or Second, Kings Mountain.

After the spring thaw and weeks of revival, our attention turned to Vacation Bible School preparation. Under the direction of Linda Ellis Carpenter, the association hosted an Early Bird Clinic at the associational office to preview "Windows on the World" on March 16. Regional training clinics for VBS workers were followed by this preview at Second, Kings Mountain on April 25 and at Eastside, Shelby on May 11. From these clinics, workers were challenged to open up spiritual windows for their churches to see and do missions in their world around them.

Yet the greatest obstacle faced by our associational Sunday School this year came in the form of the Challenging People to Renew training held at Shelby, First from August 28-31. Never before in recent history has there been such an undertaking on behalf of Sunday School. However, such an event is ideal for the many jobs that our Sunday School leaders perform in the churches. After much prayer and year-long publicity, this challenge superseded many of our goals and expectations! The level of success would not have been so great had it not been for a lady and a group of men. Bonnie Doughtie's tireless efforts to make this event so successful were very much noticed and appreciated. Thank you, Bonnie, for the countless hours you poured into this massive church-wide training project. Another word of thanks goes out to over twenty pastors in our association who supported this training by being present with the leaders in their churches. Thank you for modeling the importance of training in the lives of your church members.

This year has been full of challenges. As we prepare for 1996, our ASSISTeam is coordinating efforts to pursue even more opportunities for growth in Sunday School. As you will see in this year's book of minutes, we have added three new members to the ASSISTeam. We are looking forward to having Dr. Marvin Gobble, Dr. Jim Toole, and Rev. Tom Beam provide us with some additional support and expertise. If you would like to have one or all of the ASSISTeam members to consult with your Sunday School leaders next year, we are only a phone call away. We have been trained to assist you in your needs. Call upon us. We are ready to serve. We are also planning for more regional training events next year throughout all of our association. If your church would like to host a Sunday School event in 1996, please contact Bonnie Doughtie or me.

Respectfully submitted,
Steve Zimmerman, ASSISTeam Director

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING REPORT

Discipleship has been defined as the ongoing process of spiritual growth and development in the lives of believers. As we consider this definition we realize that discipleship is not just something that happens for an hour on Sunday evening. It is involved in every aspect of the work of the church. Our challenge is to help people to be involved in opportunities of spiritual growth. Thus, we must learn to be flexible in the scheduling of classes and events in order to meet the spiritual needs of people in our fast-paced culture. There is a wide range of Discipleship Training curriculum that will meet the needs of any age or any group.

The two main events that we have done in the association are: "M" Night and Youth and Children's Bible Drill. On Monday, November 21, 1994 "M" Night was held at Calvary Baptist Church with Maurice Cooper from the Baptist State Convention as our speaker. There was approximately 80-90 in attendance.

On Sunday, April 9, 1995 the Youth and Children's Bible Drill was held at Elizabeth Baptist Church. There were 12 churches represented with 52 children and 3 youth participating. Thanks to Creola Pearson and Carolyn Gordon for coordinating this event.

Respectfully submitted,
Glenn Walker, Discipleship Training Supporter

WMU REPORT

"A TIME TO GROW" was the WMU theme this year and it was very appropriate as WMU began preparing for changes in the 1995-96 church year. We had very good attendance at our training sessions at Ridgecrest and Gardner-Webb University. There were 251 WMU leaders registered in our sessions at Challenging People to Renew (CPR). This really shows the dedication of the women in our association who are involved in mission education in our churches.

Baptist Women and Baptist Young Women (now to be combined and called Women on Mission), got off to a very good start this year with the Baptist Women's Day of Prayer in November. We also had very good attendance at our Spring meeting at Polkville and our salad supper at Eastside in May. In December we contributed money to the State WMU office to be used for the Women's Correctional Center in Raleigh. The associational emphasis this year was Project Help: Hunger. All organizations participated to provide 5,538 cans of food and donated $1,547.85 for the associational food pantry or their own community food pantries.

The Acteens hosted a banquet for the international students and MK's at Gardner-Webb University. Eight Activators and three leaders also participated in the New York mission trip.

An open house was held for the Russell family, missionaries on furlough from Japan, who are living in the Pleasant Ridge house.

God has truly blessed our association with capable leaders and all our positions are filled. We are looking forward to a great year in 1995-96 as we "Risk the Journey."

Respectfully submitted,
Priscilla Wray, WMU Director

BROTHERHOOD REPORT

The men and boys of our Brotherhood are looking at several new ways to expand their ministry. To teach and involve our men and boys in missions is our primary goal.

Each year, our Baptist Men have an opportunity to be involved with the Cleveland County Fair Breakfast on the first Wednesday of the fair at 10:30 a.m. under the bingo tent. The Baptist Men of our churches prepare a hot breakfast for the fair workers. The Gideons are there to present the people with Bibles. After the meal, there is special music and a message presented by the Baptist Men. We extend to you a special invitation to join us and be a part of this ministry.

Much interest has been expressed about putting together a Disaster Recovery Team. This is in progress now and all churches will be notified prior to the next meeting. We hope the fine details will be worked out shortly and this ministry can be added as part of our Brotherhood Ministry.

As we look now to our young people, our R.A.s and Challengers, we are excited about these programs and the ministry they provide to our communities. We are pleased to announce the addition of a Challenger Director for the association as well as an existing R.A. Director. We feel this will benefit each church group by making these men available to assist you any way possible. Please contact the associational office if you would like one of these men to help you in your group.

As always, the R.A. Field Day was a lot of fun and fellowship. The boys competed against each other in many Field Day activities and in the car race. The basketball season went well with a good group of our young men participating. To enhance the sports program this year, a Sports Director has agreed to work with both R.A. and Challenger sports events.

Our leaders were very fortunate to have the opportunity to participate in a CPR Training (Challenging People to Renew) this year. It was an excellent training session for counselors that were experienced as well as for those counselors who are just beginning to work with the R.A.s and Challengers.

Please keep all of our Brotherhood, R.A. and Challenger leaders, and participants in your prayers. Thank you for your prayers, involvement, and support of our Brotherhood Program.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard Stroup, Brotherhood Director

MUSIC MINISTRY REPORT

We have had another great year with our association Music Ministry in 1995. The Lord again gave us many opportunities to serve Him with this association of churches.

1) On March 6, 1995 a Choral Clinic was held at Westview Baptist Church, Shelby. Our guest Clinician was Neal Eller, Assistant Director of the Music Department for the Baptist State Convention in North Carolina. There were some 100 adult choir members from across the association in attendance as we sang four new selections from "Share Jesus Now." A short time of fellowship followed the Choral Clinic.

2) The Associational Youth choir presented "Salt and Light" on May 21 at First Baptist Church, Kings Mountain and at Beaver Dam Baptist Church, Lattimore on May 22. Nearly 100 youth participated in each of the two performances. The program was televised on Saturday, May 27 over WGGS-TV-16 from Greenville, South Carolina. This musical was also presented twice by the young people on their 1995 Mission Trip to Rochester, New York the week of July 7-15.
3) On September 25, 1995 our Association Church Music Workshops were held at Bethel Baptist Church in Shelby from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. Classes were offered in keyboards, reading music, youth choirs, handbells, creative worship, sound systems, and children's choirs. There were fifty-two in attendance that evening as we shared ideas on how to improve our music ministries in our churches. A time of refreshments and fellowship was included as a part of the schedule.
4) Our associational ministers of music get together each month for lunch and fellowship as we make plans for upcoming events through music ministry. One area that we encourage all ministers of music to participate is the annual associational meeting in October. Each year we form a choir and at least one other group such as instrumental, handbells, or ensembles.

The following is a schedule of events for 1996:

March 4 - Choral Clinic
May 19-20 - Associational Youth Choir Musical
September 23- Church Music Workshops
October 28 - KMBA Minister of Music Choir and Ensemble

HISTORIANS REPORT

I am in DEBT, deeply in debt to many, many people, happenings, ministers, the laity, and experience I have had the past 75 or more years in which I was aware of the association. I remember my parents, grandparents and members of old Double Springs who talked about the annual meeting before it was held and after it was over.

It was one of the big things in the life and work of our church.

It was information, inspiration and encouragement for the membership, especially the leaders. It was also a big social occasion as friends renewed acquaintance and made new friends. It was also a revival in religion, with all resolving to do more of the Lord's work next year.

No one could forget the long tables loaded with the best things the skillful housewives could prepare: fried chicken, beef, ham, cakes and pies galore. Not only the messengers and ministers, but many people came from town to indulge in the biggest meal of the year.

The first annual meeting I attended was at Lattimore in 1923, and the second at Double Springs in 1924. Brother John Suttle was moderator and Brother G.G. Page, editor of a paper in Kings Mountain, was clerk. I have attended most of the other sessions of the association except the years I was in medical school and in Europe and Vietnam, with the United States Medical Corps.

I hope to attend many more, especially the one in the year 2001, when the association will celebrate its 150th birthday, the Sesquicentennial date. Two churches, Shelby and Boiling Springs will celebrate their sesquicentennial in 1997, two years from now.

Double Springs celebrated its 150th date last year, with four special occasions including music, drama, testimonies, a new History room, planned by Ricky Toms and his committee.

A dozen other churches have or may yet celebrate their founding. They are:

Union, 110 years	Patterson Springs, 100 years
Pleasant Ridge, 80 years	Kings Mtn, Second, 80 years
Calvary, 60 years	Community, 50 years
Temple, 50 years	Elliott Memorial, 40 years
Lily Memorial, 40 years	Piedmont, 40 years
Immanuel, 20 years	Northside, 20 years

My first official work with the association was in 1934 and 1935. I had just finished college at Old Wake Forest in Wake County, and had gone to work with Sen. Lee B. Weathers at the then Cleveland Star (now Shelby Star), and also became leader of a new organization calle B.Y.P.U. (Baptist Young Peoples Union) at First Baptist Church in Shelby. Then I became associational leader for BYPU and introduced this organization to a number of rural churches. This movement later became Baptist Training Union (BTU), and now is called Discipleship Training, under the leadership of Miss Bonnie Doughtie of the KMBA staff and Rev. Glenn Walker, Associational Discipleship Training Supporter.

BYPU in 1935 had 2,033 members in some thirty-five churches .

Much of my inspiration and encouragement came from ministers and lay persons alike. First, of course, was Rev. John W. Suttle, who was my pastor for thirty-seven years and moderator of the KMBA for forty years, from 1913 to 1952. He also became president of the NC Baptist State Convention, the first rural pastor to do so in over 100 years.

I became his personal physician in his later years, and he spent his last days at our little hospital in Boiling Springs. Other ministers to whom I owe gratitude include:

Rev. D.F. Putnam, a church "planter" who helped in the formation of many churches here and in other associations. He asked me to be a member of a presbytery to found the church at Polkville in 1940. They celebrated their first half of a century five years ago. Like Paul the Apostle, I am indebted to both the Greeks and the barbarians, if the Greeks are our own home folks and the barbarians are folks in the secular world. I mention a few:

Rev. J.L. Jenkins, pastor at Boiling Springs, who also taught preachers how to preach at Fruitland Institute near Hendersonville. Rev. A.C. Irvin, who was so neat and immaculate with his white hair and Van Dyke beard and mustache; Thomas Dixon Senior and Junior for their contributions to leadership and literature; John R. Logan, who wrote a complete history of the Broad River and Kings Mountain Associations in the 19th century; Dr. P.L. Elliott of Gardner-Webb College; the five members of the G.P. Bostic family who collectively spent more than 400 years as missionaries in China; the moderators, clerks and other officers of the KMBA who made things happen in missions, finance, outreach, and the week to week, year to year work of their church and the association.

Dr. Zeno Wall and Rev. Horace Easom helped tie the knot when Emily Davis and I were married at New Hope fifty-one years ago last month.

Ray E. Brown was best man at that wedding. He was one of the top hospital administrators ever to come from this state and was the son of Rev. W.T. Brown of South Shelby.

Many lay persons, both men and women were an inspiration, such as G.V. (Governor) Hawkins, Walter Davis, C.C. Padgett, Mrs. Mae Cline Stroup, Mrs. John Wacaster, Miss Lalene Grigg, and many others.

Since I have had some responsibility, and certainly much interest in the affairs of this body, off and on, for sixty years, I feel free to make the following observations and requests:

The association will continue to exist and be useful for another 150 years, or more.

It will be the uniting force for all the churches and their members for kingdom work.

It will remain an independent body, but will co-operate with state, southwide and national bodies of the same faith and order. It will teach and train its members in Bible study, evangelism, and all that faith, love and hope implies.

It will set apart young men and women for full-time Christian service.

Its watchwords will be to preach, teach and heal until Jesus returns, as He has promised.

Someone, or several persons, will compile a complete history of the KMBA comparable to the John R. Logan book of 100 years ago which will reflect what this great association has done and can do in future years.

This is not "Goodbye" or "Au Revoir," but to bid you all "Godspeed" and to say I will gladly help your new historian any way I can. Thanks to all the clerks and church historians who have helped through the years. Special thanks to Mrs. Delores Hamrick, my associate in this office. You should see the History Room she and her committee have prepared at Poplar Springs.

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE REPORT

The major emphasis of your Evangelism Committee this year was "HERE'S HOPE. SHARE JESUS NOW." Ministers training and local church Steering Committee training rallies were held. An associational prayer retreat was completed. Sixty days of soul-winning were attempted by many of our simultaneous harvest revivals. Only when we get to heaven will we know the true results of our efforts.

Our association assisted Rochester Baptist Association with their training for "HERE'S HOPE. SHARE JESUS NOW." A prayer retreat was also held there.

Your Evangelism Committee also assisted many local churches with their training and people searches for our simultaneous harvest revivals.

Once again we had a successful Evangelism Rally. All in attendance were blessed by Dr. Don Wilton from The First Baptist Church in Spartanburg, SC. Our next rally will be held January 29, 1996. The location and speaker will be announced at a later date. The Martins have already been secured to bless us with their music ministry.

A new evangelism effort was undertaken this year with the presentation of "The Masterpiece - A Toymakers Dream." We pray that the results of this effort will be impacting our community for many days to come. Attendance at this event was 1500 with forty-four decisions made.

PROMISE KEEPERS

The Promise Keepers men's movement continues to gain nationwide momentum. Many of our churches have men's groups meeting on a regular basis. Promise Keepers is not meant to replace any of our men's ministries, but to enhance them. Promise Keepers wants to work within our local churches. The main emphasis of Promise Keepers for 1996 is working with and training our pastors. A Promise Keepers Rally was held October 28, 1995 at Gardner-Webb University at Paul Porter Arena. The main speaker was Dr. Don Wilton from First Baptist, Spartanburg.

Barry Coker, Chairman

During the past year, Christ Covenant Church has been under watchcare of our association. We have kept in close contact with them and they with us. It is good to know of their regular growth. Our committee recommends that Christ Covenant Church become a full member of our association.

CHRISTIAN LIFE COMMITTEE

The major goal of the Christian Life Committee is to help all the churches of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association be more aware of the issues of the day that effect Christians living in the modern day. These issues of modern America should be of great concern to Christian people and they should strive to be involved in every way possible. Issues such as legalized gambling, abortion, pervasive pornography, violence on television and in society, illegal drug use and the decline of respect for human life should be of concern for all Christians as they think of some way to respond.

On May 4th the Christian Life Committee promoted and participated in the National Day of Prayer by sponsoring meetings at the city halls in our county. All these meetings were well attended as people met in our different communities and prayed for our nation and its leaders.

In the coming months we as a committee hope to be able to address the moral concerns of our society so as to make a difference for the cause of Christ and the Kingdom of God.

Respectfully submitted,
Jim Richardson, Chairman

MEMORIALS COMMITTEE REPORT

For those who die in Christ, we can truthfully say: "Think of them as living on as dear in the love of there as in the love of here." The poem, AWAY, conveys this thought beautifully.

John Greenleaf Whittier's poem, "The Eternal Goodness" bears the thought of eternal life. It is as follows:

THE ETERNAL GOODNESS

Within the maddening maze of things,
And tossed by storm and flood,
To one fixed trust my spirit clings;
I know that God is good!

I long for household voices gone,
For vanished smiles I long,
But God hath led my dear ones on,
And He can do no wrong.

And so beside the silent sea
I wait the muffled oar;
No harm from him can come to me
On ocean or on shore.

I know not where His islands lift
Their fronded palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care.

An old-fashioned preacher, who loved to journey through Eastern waters, put it this way: "We make too much of death. We do not dwell enough on the soul and its ongoing might. As one sails the Mediterranean, round whose shores much that is greatest in history has taken place (and it is beautiful), one shrinks from leaving it. Then too, the sea contracts toward the west; the shores gather together, in the way of the ongoing mariner the straits of Gibraltar are narrow; apparently they are impassable; they like the end of a person's life.

But as you advance, the illusion vanishes. The straits are wide and deep enough for the mightiest ship. On past the great rocks at the portal, your ship goes out into the vaster sea. From the horizon comes the sight of the vast Atlantic Ocean.

Such is a person's voyage on the sea of time. In the narrow passage we call death we naturally have fear. But there is room for the greatest soul to pass. Let him go forward in confidence and hope. Beyond is the Infinite and out into it the soul is moving to hear the call of loved ones, and to find the welcome of the Father's love and the light of His eternal home."

May we now stand for a few moments in loving remembrance of those who have gone from us.

Respectfully submitted,
J.C. Goare, chairman

MISSIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

This has been a good year for the Missions Committee of Kings Mountain Association. We have had four interesting meetings since the Annual Meeting in October 1994.

Every person has a right to know of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We are the ones who know this and must share His mission to all mankind. This is our primary purpose as we continue to strengthen the churches in the association and encourage the formation of new churches and missions.

We are seeing more people becoming "hands-on" missionaries as the opportunities become available for the association. Our partnership with the Greater Rochester Association was exciting as 275 people from 24 churches were involved in a two-week project of evangelism, Back-Yard Bible Clubs, construction and painting.

David Jackson, director of missions of Greater Rochester Association, came in April and challenged our churches to join the partnership and help them finance the building for their association office. We have surpassed the goal set by our association of $16,000. We are looking forward to another year of fellowship with them.

Our lives have been enriched as the missionaries on furlough have lived in our midst and spoken in many of our churches. They have broadened our missions education and awareness of peoples needs here and around the world. The co-operation between Gardner-Webb and the association with the Missionary-In-Residence program is successful. Yasuaki Fukunaga lived in the Elizabeth missionary residence a few months during the spring and summer of 1995. He is a young music and education minister from Tokyo, Japan who will be serving and observing in our association for one year. Now the Rob Hefner family, missionaries to Brazil, is living in the Elizabeth house. The James Russell family, missionaries to Japan, is living in the Pleasant Ridge missionary house, and Miss Elizabeth Oates, missionary to Brazil, is living in Boiling Springs.

As North Carolina looks forward to becoming a partner with South Africa we hope our association will become an active part during the next few years.

Star of Bethlehem, our Spanish speaking church, is having good attendance and hope they can secure a place of their own for worship in the near future.

Thank you for your involvement with missions this year and our prayer is that we will continue to be sensitive to the many needs of our churches and each member.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Lou Causby, Chairman

STAR OF BETHLEHEM HISPANIC MISSION REPORT

"Serve the Lord with gladness: Come before his presence with singing". Psalm 100:2

This year 1994-1995 was a wonderful time to serve the Lord. My wife and I have worked hard for the King of Nations and several people have taken Jesus as their personal Savior. We have had six baptisms and one wedding ceremony. At this time the church has 15 members.

We have had a beautiful time doing different things for our God. We have helped several families with clothes, food, furniture, dishes, etc. We have helped find houses to rent, connect power, phone, water, etc. We have also helped people in prison. We appreciate all the materials and spiritual support our association has given us.

During the summer months we enjoyed working with Jennifer Ollis who is the daughter of missionaries. Jennifer served as the Church and Community Ministries summer worker. We worked as a team in the Migrant Ministry. We distributed about sixty-three Bibles to the migrant workers and had some accept Jesus as Savior.

The summer was important, too, because we had two classes for our children, some of which accepted Jesus as Savior. Maria Espinales was leader for this ministry which was an exciting time with our Lord.

My thanks goes to Rev. Mickey Heyward, pastor of Christopher Road Baptist Church; Christopher Road Baptist Church; Rev. Leland Kerr, director of missions for the Kings Mountain Baptist Association; and to the others in the association for their support. My desire is to give the glory to Jesus for my time of ministry with Star of Bethlehem.

I believe our church is ready for new growth. At this time Star of Bethlehem is looking for a new pastor.

Pray for my family that God will open a new ministry in another place of service for us.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Jose Espinales

STUDENT MINISTRY COMMITTEE REPORT

Our Student Ministry Committee is hard at work developing plans for the implementation of a Baptist Student Union at Cleveland Community College. We have been able to secure permission for the formation of such a group on the Campus from the Student Government Association. We have also secured a faculty sponsor to oversee the work of the Baptist Student Union. Our next task is to secure a Volunteer Director to coordinate activities and programs, as well as lay the groundwork for the new Baptist Student Union at CCC.

Our committee continues to support the Baptist Student Union at Gardner-Webb through pledging financial help to those students who may have difficulty securing funds to attend leadership conferences, fall conventions, retreats, etc. The committee works closely with the GWU Campus Minister in the distributing of these funds.

We are in close contact with the Campus Minister with regards to the commuter meals provided at lunch for commuter students who attend GWU. Anyone or any church interested in providing commuter meals for GWU students are encouraged to call the Campus Ministry office at GWU.

We encourage each church to take an active role in the ministry to your college students and those students at Gardner-Webb University and Cleveland Community College. Please pray for our students as they are searching for their place in this world.

Tom Beam, chairman

YOUTH MINISTRY REPORT

The Youth Ministry Committee sponsored four events over the last year. Much work went into planning and promoting these events, and the hard work of a dedicated committee really paid off.

On Saturday, January 7th, we held training for youth witnessing, using the Youth Roman Road Materials that were part of the Here's Hope campaign. Twenty-three were trained that day and encouraged to participate in the 60-days of Soul-Winning.

In February we held a ski-retreat with 197 in attendance, representing twelve churches. Four Bible studies, each concerning making right decisions, were led by a group of students from Appalachian State University. The Friday evening and Saturday morning program was held at Ridgecrest Conference Center, February 3rd and 4th. Believe it or not, it snowed too hard on Saturday to make it to the ski lodge!

March 17th and 18th were the dates for our fifth annual youth crusade, Rescue '95, held at Gardner-Webb University. On Friday night The Martins provided music and Rick Caldwell delivered the message. There were fifty-two decisions, seven of which were for salvation. On Saturday night Lisa Bevil performed. Although a formal invitation was not extended, Lisa did make herself available for one-on-one counseling after the concert. Several responded. Attendance was estimated at 450 each night.

Finally, on September 16th, Polkville Baptist hosted a Back-to-School cookout and See You at the Pole Rally. One-hundred-eighty attended on a dreary day, but had lots of fun and food, and enjoyed a concert by Carl Cartee. The event ended with students from the different schools represented having prayer meetings for their particular school.

It has been an honor to work for the Lord this year through association youth ministry. Let this committee know if it can be of service to your church's ministry to youth in any way.

Rick Hamrick, chairman

Less amount for CCM director provided by Home Mission Board/State Convention		-3,940
GRAND TOTAL TO BE PROVIDED BY KMBA		357,257

Comments:

1. Salaries and housing/utilities allowances, plus the resultant changes in retirement have been increased by 3.5% for our ministerial staff (directors). Support staff salaries reflect a one time salary adjustment of approximately 20% to recognize the fifteen years of service by Margaret Lipscomb and Judy Franks and to compensate Teresa Davis according to the amount of work she does. The Church and Community Ministry Assistant's salary line item in the budget had received no increase in two years.

2. The Home Mission Board pays life insurance, disability insurance and all but $130 a month of medical insurance for our Church & Community Director. Our association pays the remaining portion as part of his salary.

3. The Church and Community Ministries Budget has been reduced in order to increase other budget areas. In addition to the budgeted amount, Church and Community Ministries receives donations from the Duke Power Foundation, The Dover Foundation, designated gifts from our churches and other churches in the area, the Home Mission Board and individual gifts.

4. In 1996, we will receive $3,940 toward the salary, expenses, etc. of our Church and Community Ministries Director. This amount is deducted from our total budget of $361,197 and adjusts our budget needs for 1996 to $357,257. This is a 1.1% increase over the 1995 budget.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE KINGS MOUNTAIN BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

On November 7, 1851 the following churches from the Broad River Baptist Association met at Double Springs Baptist Church for the purpose of organizing a new association: Beaver Dam, Bethel, Boiling Springs, Broad River, Buffalo, Double Springs, Mt. Pleasant, Mt. Sinai, New Bethel, Pleasant Hill, Sandy Run, Zion, and Zoar.

The need for a new association resulted from geographical conditions. The boundary of the Broad River Association was so extensive that delegates were unable to attend the annual sessions due to swollen rivers and streams.

The name "Kings Mountain Association" was chosen because its boundary included the Kings Mountain battleground, a monument to be remembered by every patriot and lover of religious liberty.

In 1903, the association appointed a committee to establish and endow a denomination high school. In 1905, Boiling Springs was chosen as the most suitable site by a 15-member Board of Trustees. The Sandy Run Association was invited to join the Kings Mountain Association in establishing the school. In 1906, efforts and plans were begun to raise money for the school and in 1907, the first building was erected. The school opened on October 1, 1907 with 135 students. The first principal was Professor J.D. Huggins. The school later became known as Gardner-Webb College.

Directors of Missions who have served the association are:

Lewis E. Ludlum	1946-50
Tom W. Bray	1950-59
C.O. Greene	1959-73
Cline W. Borders	1973-91
Leland A. Kerr	1992-present

Interim Directors of Missions who have served are:

W.V. Tarlton	August 1, 1973 to October 31, 1973
Sam Snyder	May 1, 1991 to January 24, 1992

During the tenures of Rev. Ludlum and Rev. Bray, the association occupied an office in the First Baptist Church, Shelby. In 1949, the association voted to build a missionary home on Buffalo Street for the associational missionary. In 1959, the association voted that the missionary home be turned into an office building to provide space for the associational missionary, secretary, clerk/treasurer and to provide conference space for meetings. The home was sold in 1965 and the association rented office space in Shelby.

In April 1978, the association called Rev. Bob Davis as Church and Community Ministries Director. Rev. Davis served until August 1989 when he went on medical leave. Rev. Sam Snyder served as interim CCM Director from October 23, 1989 to September 30, 1990. In October 1990, the association called Rev. Charles Reed as the current CCM Director. In July 1994, the association called Rev. Bonnie Doughtie as their first Church Development Director.

Additional staff and growing ministries led the association to build an associational complex on Wyke Road in Shelby. In 1981 a dedication service and open house was held.

Currently the association is made up of 78 member churches and one mission with a total church membership of 28, 996. This total does not reflect four non-reporting churches whose membership would add approximately 250 to this total.
